

Heavy Cannonading in the Open Sea After Departure from Kamranh Bay

Rejostevsky Has Met the Enemy Kamimura is at Manila and Togo Will Assemble South of Formosa on Wednesday.

London, April 23.—A despatch from Manila, April 22, to The Daily Mail, says: "Vice-Admiral Togo's main fleet will assemble south of Formosa on Wednesday."

Paris, April 23.—A despatch from Saigon to The Temps reports that the Russian fleet outside of Kamranh Bay opened a heavy cannonading, probably upon Japanese scouts.

"AND THIS IS NEUTRALITY!" ECHO DE PARIS IS SCORNFUL

Vladivostok is "the Next" Russian Port, and France Has Not Given Her Ally the Full Benefit—May React Some Day.

Paris, April 23.—Some of the newspapers of Paris, commenting upon the expulsion of the Russian second Pacific squadron from Kamranh Bay and affirmed their determination to maintain neutrality has relieved the tension of popular feeling, although it is believed that if Rejostevsky entered Kamranh Bay for the purpose of finally preparing for a dash north, the purpose was accomplished before he was ordered to leave.

London, April 23.—A despatch from Paris to The Central News says: "Admiral Rejostevsky's fleet has sailed from Kamranh Bay, and is sailing of the Island of Hainan, which is in Chinese territory."

St. Petersburg, April 23.—Much relief is expressed by the Russian press with M. Delcasse's decision to remain at the head of the French foreign ministry, as he is regarded here as a true friend of the French Republic.

M. & M. UNABLE TO MAKE FULL PAYMENT OF PRESSE

So Says Le Nationaliste, Discussing the Operations in Newspaper Field of the Railway Magnates.

Montreal, April 23.—(Special.)—Mackenzie & Mann says Le Nationaliste, will soon have a heavy share in a number of Canadian newspapers. Le Nationaliste's correspondence from Ottawa is not so interesting since Mr. Bourassa, M.P., ceased his contribution to the paper, and they reproduce The World's sinton exposure with the comment that it is true, except the reference to Sir Wilfrid and the minister of justice.

Then Le Nationaliste states that Mackenzie & Mann are in Montreal, and that they intend to make the last payment to Hon. Mr. Berthelme of $350,000. Mr. Berthelme could only give $50,000, and Mr. Mackenzie & Mann are waiting to see if they can get the balance from other operations.

After referring to their alleged interest in The Toronto News, The Hamilton Spectator, The Toronto Saturday Night and The Winnipeg Telegram, the paper declares that Mackenzie & Mann will buy up papers in the Northwest and British Columbia.

Conspiracy of Last October. "It is the conspiracy of October last which is being continued," says Le Nationaliste. "Mackenzie & Mann are on terms of intimacy with Fenwick, Roblin, and still closer with Citizen Rogers, who put up the truck on Mr. Sharrett, in England's newspapers, they make war on Sir Wilfrid Laurier, while they consolidate the financial situations of that paper."

Their plan is certainly to lead a helping hand to Sifton whenever it can be done without placing their own interests in danger. They tried, for instance, to rehabilitate themselves in the eyes of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, but they failed.

MUST HAVE A BUMPER CROP TO PAY FOR LANDS BOUGHT

This Will Be Critical Year For Farmers in Northwest—Money is "Tight" Just Now, and There's Only One Way of Relief.

Winnipeg, April 23.—(Special.)—The most encouraging feature at present in the financial outlook in the Northwest is that the seeding has been nearly completed under ideal conditions, for a good crop this year is essential to the continued prosperity of the country.

The world scarcely appreciates its indebtedness to this man for his great services for the past seven years. He has been a true captain of peace in America and King Edward in Great Britain.

GATES SMOTHERED IN WHEAT LOST $1,000,000 SATURDAY

Chicago Wheat Pit Sees Triumph of Armour Forces Over the "May" Operator.

THE GATES WHEAT DEAL. Possible Profit at Chicago, $500,000. High Price of May Wheat, 1.21 1/2. Low Price Saturday, . . . . .08 1/2. Loss in value, . . . . .13. Size of lot, . . . . .18,000,000 bushels. Average cost, . . . . .1.15. Average selling price, . . . . .1.05.

Chicago, April 23.—John W. Gates buried his May wheat deal in the local pit yesterday, the place where it was born, with an avalanche of nearly 5,000,000 bushels to weight it down, and wrote its epitaph in a bold, free hand in a decline of 11 1/2c in the price.

Both the astuteness and the volume of the selling left no doubt the deal was over, and the bulls ready to take whatever they could get for the balance of their holdings.

Whether the liquidation was complete or some fragments of the big line remain to be put on the bargain counter Monday is uncertain, but that the deal was abandoned, at least for the moment, is a fact.

The probability of having to pay for a good many million bushels of cash wheat which might have to be marketed at a loss of 3c per bushel, any attempt were made to sustain May prices, was the main cause of the change from a long to a short.

Gates Does Better in Stocks. In the stock game Gates is a reputed wizard at divining the psychological moment when a long line should be closed.

EMPEROR WILLIAM SEEKING TO BREAK EUROPE'S PEACE

Recent Behavior of Kaiser Leads to Serious Forebodings Which M. Delcasse's Attitude Lends Strength to.

New York, April 23.—The Sun prints the following London cable: Two or three times within a dozen years Europe has been on the verge of a similar relapse, but was saved by the imminent danger until the crisis has passed. There was such a moment when Lord Rosebery delivered an ultimatum to France in the Siamese dispute. There was another such moment in the Fashoda incident. There was a similar peril menaced European peace, and to-day the crisis is still unevolved, although diplomacy takes heart again from the news that M. Delcasse, the French minister of foreign affairs, has withdrawn his resignation.

Idea of the nature and gravity of the crisis may be gained from a brief extract from a letter to The Times, London, correspondent from person holding a high diplomatic position on the continent. He writes: "You know that I am rarely pessimistic; to-day I must confess that I am. When people will not negotiate and say, nevertheless that they are dissatisfied, it looks as if they meant mischief. If Rejostevsky is sent to the bottom, God knows what may happen."

These words may be cryptic to those who have not followed closely the recent developments of European politics. Let it be remembered that Germany has quietly encouraged Russia to pursue the war toward the point of partial exhaustion. The loss of Admiral Rejostevsky's fleet would render her practically impotent so far as any new energy is concerned.

What is more obvious than the opportunity thus created for the Kaiser to fish in troubled waters? What could be plainer from his recent action than his intention to take the fullest advantage of this opportunity? His gratuitous interference in Morocco is now fully recognized by France and England as part of a deep, malevolent plan to breed international strife. It is directed as such against one country as well as against another.

Gray is one of the newly-arrived emigrants and only started to work yesterday at noon. He was awakened by his boss, who told him that he had been fired. They asked for a fig to drive to Chatham and they said he would ask the boss, who lives in a nearby house. At that, it is supposed the three piled on to him.

It was unquestioned when found. He has his jaw broken in two places, several teeth bucked out and is severely cut and bruised about the face. He is unable to talk and will be unable to eat for about six weeks. Jackson was placed under arrest. The assailers were badly intoxicated.
