for me. I was sure that if it were possible to shield me from the unpleasant train of circumstances which appeared to be following the Stockbridge tragedy, Lillian would manage it. And with this assurance I resolved to put aside rigorously any thought or reference to the Bayview unpleasantness until I should need to see her.

"Why! When you took the cake things from me to wash them, you said that I could help you more some other way."
"Oh, dot!" Katle chuckled delightedly, "Dot only vay to get you out by kitchen, no place for pretty hands. I no vant notings. But if you vant sometings.
