YOUR Child's Eyes
Are They Normal or Defective?

The answer is of the utmost importance. Defective eyesight in children often escapes detection for years and leads to ill-health and backwardness in studies. Don't guess about your child's eyes. Let us examine them. The proper fitting of glasses NOW may make them unnecessary later. Isn't it worth while to find out TOMORROW?

TRAIN CREWS SEE SNOW FLURRIES
WINGHAM, Sept. 20.—The change of the weather was noticed this morning by train crews when they observed snow flurries in the air.
Much corn is being cut and put into silos. Corn is a good crop this year. The flax industry promises the best in years. Aid. Tipling, who will have nearly 500 acres to harvest, states it is a bumper crop, the heads well filled and the straw clean and firm.
Mr. Jerome, one of the oldest citizens of the town, at his home on Shuter street, after a lingering illness. He was in his 84th year, and leaves behind his wife, a respected family. He at one time was a dentist, and was obliged to give up his profession some years ago owing to ill-health. The funeral was held to Lucknow Cemetery.
The potato and root crops look excellent, and all that is needed now is good weather to lift them out. Potatoes should soon drop to $1 a bag. At present they are from $1.40 to $1.60 a bag. Many citizens are confined to their homes with heavy colds, which appear almost the same as the flu, only a lighter epidemic and not so dangerous.

TILLSONBURG FAIR
OPENING FEATURE
FAST BALL GAMES

Brantford and Local Teams
Defeated by St. Thomas
Nine.

HORSES RACES TODAY
Judging of Wonderful Display of Fruits and Flowers Completed.

TILLSONBURG, Sept. 20.—The annual Tillsonburg and Durham Agricultural Fair opened today under very discouraging weather conditions. The big attraction of the day was the baseball tournament open to the world, but only three teams appeared, St. Thomas, Brantford and Tillsonburg, against some of the best baseball talent in Western Ontario, including many players from the Michigan-Ontario League. The game between Tillsonburg and St. Thomas was a much fought ball game in evidence. In the first inning, St. Thomas blanked Brantford by a score of 4 to 0. Batteries for Brantford were Sumner and Taylor. St. Thomas, Down and Binna. The final game was very close, being 2 to 1 in favor of St. Thomas. The final inning, when the visitors scored three runs, and Tillsonburg had a lone runner, the score being 4 to 1. The weather being ideal the crowds would have witnessed one of the greatest baseball tests ever seen in Ontario.

Fast Racing Expected.
The free-for-all, 235 trot of pace, and the 235 trot of pace, on Tuesday are all filled up with the pick of Canadian circuit horses, and with favorable weather will furnish a good afternoon's sport.

SON BORN TO MAN
MURDER AT SIMCOE
Lorne Heimer's Previous Exemplary Character May Prove a Godsend.
SIMCOE, Sept. 20.—A recent birth of interest to residents of Norfolk County is that of a son to Mrs. Lorne Heimer, who is now awaiting trial in the county jail here on a charge of murdering her husband on July 13 last. The baby was born recently at the Heimer farm in Wainwright Township, near the village of Silver Hill, within a few rods of the place, where the murder is alleged to have been committed.
According to the evidence of Charles Heimer, 15-year-old brother of accused, Lorne struck Lorne down with his fist after the aged man had struck him during a dispute regarding the farm. The charge is that the young Norfolk County farmer likely a reduction of the more serious charge to one of manslaughter. W. B. Kelly, K.C., and son, David Kelly of this town, will defend him.

At The Theaters

AT THE GRAND.
The silver, shimmering Rio Grande, bordered by orange-colored deserts and winding in a series of purple mountains, is the scene of the picture drama, "Rio Grande," at the Grand Theatre. This is a picture which is thrilling from the first flash to the last, depicts a romance between a Texas Ranger and a beautiful American, and a beautiful story, who through half-American, hates Americans and loves Mexicans, who will soul. Aside from the story, which is one that appeals to one and all, a wealth of scenic beauty, showing tropical gardens and frontier towns.

"Rio Grande" is a worthy picture, and a picture which is a story by the famous playwright, Augustus Thomas.
Maria Inez in "Rio Grande" is the wonderfully portrayed by Rosemary Theby, and Allan Sears as the Irish-American hero is equally as well. Maria Inez in "Rio Grande" is the daughter of a Mexican father and an American mother, and they are traveling in a covered wagon to the Rio Grande River to meet the father, who will not go to live in Mexico. During the night Felipe, her father, flees with Maria Inez from the river and she and her father are pursued by the children of the river to the Rio Grande. One day, while near the river, Danny captures Maria Inez, whom he does not know, and she is taken to his home with her father and his government. She invites him to come over to a dance at the river, and he goes. In the end the two are happily married.
A sparkling comedy entitled "Money To Burn," and "Peggy of the Day" are complete an excellent bill that will be shown again today and on Wednesday. Particular mention should be made of the "Money To Burn," which is a comedy with a special orchestra accompanying the "Rio Grande" film.

"MY SOLDIER GIRL" ALL DRESSED UP.
"My Soldier Girl," with a brand new book, music and production, is coming to the Grand Theatre, Friday and Saturday, with Saturday matinee, with gorgeous costumes, moderate prices, clean, wholesome comedy, haunting melodies, a splendid cast and a brigade of soldiers in this new musical show. The story is a love story, and the leading comedian, is the bright particular funnaker in this new musical show. "My Soldier Girl" is the work of J. Lorch Baber—that he is the object of the theatre party for two. A sparkling comedy, which makes the situation more tense. The well-known comedy continues her under the name of "My Soldier Girl" until finally Robert seeks an outlet for his misery by clandestinely indulging in a theatre party for two, with a young mannequin as the second party.
