Cadman was a good third, with 212 feet. A The winners were presented with good cuff links. To-night the last of the scheduled game in the senior league will be played and some good baseball with a little excite- ment mixed in should be witnessed. The first game will bring together H Com- rany. 48th, and G Company. 48th. A great deal depends on this game, so each team will have out their strongest players. The second game will be between C Company, Q.O.R., and G Company. 48th. A great deal depends on this game, so each team will have out their strongest players. The second game will be between C Company, Q.O.R., and G Company, Grenadiers. This should also prove interesting, as the Grenadiers will make an extra effort to land this game. Toronto Gets Catcher Brown. President McCaffery of the Toronto Baseball Club arrived home yesterday from Detroit with, as usual, some good news for the local fans. While in New York he purchased Catcher Brown, who has been with the Boston Nationals the last two years. Brown is a six-footer. weighs 160 lbs., hits and runs well and is 28 vears old. Twe other deals are under way, one be- ing a National League outfielder, one of the old stars, while the bor is a third oaseman. These men are expected to be coralled in any time.

The result was that the game was not played at all, the re- feree deciding in favor of Fredericton team. The people became greatly ex- cited and demanded their money back, breaking windows and destroying other property. Amateur hockey received its death-blow. There has always been great bitterness between the two teams, and the climax came to-night. Hockey Gossip. The O.H.A. yesterday, after considering the conflicting evidence in the Collins, with the result that London now are sore.
