Frank Mercer's Story of His Sale of Fine Shoes

Just a few more days-good things can't last forever.

When you find your shelves loaded up, your storerooms and basement crowded with shoes-and your Spring Shoes coming in-there's only one thing to do.

We're doing it-and like all trade dilemmas with real intentions behind-we are doing things with energizing thoroughness.

I am not giving these shoes away-but I am selling them for less than they cost me because I must have the room and I must have the money for my new spring models, many thousand pairs of Dolly Vardens and "Napoleons" Shoes are now awaiting entry.

In the Bargain Bins you'll find shoes that will fit you. We've placed them so you can help wait on yourselves.

* For Men:

I am selling $4 and $4.50 shoes for $2.50, and $5 shoes for $3.50; the $6 and $7 shoes for $3.95.

For Ladies :

Smart and clever American shoes that were $3.50 and $4, for $2.50; $4.50 shoes for $2.95; $5 shoes for $3.45.

The makers insisted that I should take off the name stamp on these shoes-so they go forth nameless, but every bit as proud as if they bore the highest title.
