FILM SHOWS SINKING OF BIG LINER BY SUBMARINE

"Thru the Wall," at the Strand, One of the Best Pictures Shown Here.

One of the best criminal motion picture dramas that have been seen in Toronto for some time is "Thru the Wall," a big six act V.L.S.C. production, the feature of an excellent bill at the Strand Theatre the first three days of the week. At the head of the cast are Neil Shipman, William Dunn, and George Hock and three, by their meritorious acting and thorough grasp of the intricate plot, are able to cast a spell over any audience. The plot is ingenious, the scenes of the sinking of the liner are provided. One powerful scene portrays the sinking of a great liner by a submarine. Following which follows the torpedoing of the vessel comes the sinking of the great ship and the drowning of many of its passengers. "Some Liar" is a comedy picture which completes the bill.

PAGEANT OF ALLIES AND MAE MURRAY AT MADISON

Last Public Appearance of Duke of Connaught at Splendid Patriotic Carnival.

Mae Murray, in "The Big Sister," an exceedingly emotional drama with a punch and thrill in every scene, the headline attraction at the Madison Theatre for the first time last night. Miss Murray, who takes the part of a little girl kept under the threatening thumb of a band of crooks, gives some exceptionally fine emotional acting in a part that is well suited to her personality. The play is well staged and produced, most of the scenes being taken right in New York City, where the story is set. The "Pageant of the Allies," the last public performance of the Duke of Connaught and party, is well illustrated in a film which shows not only the Duke and Duchess and Prince Patrick, but many other Canadian celebrities. An exceptionally good comedy, "Some Liar," and the usual travel feature complete a long and varied program.

RIALTO.

A record-breaking crowd attended the Rialto theatre yesterday to witness what was proved to be the best production ever presented at this house, namely "The Christian," which features those well known film stars, Earle Williams and Edith Storey. Charlie Chaplin and Mary Pickford were also seen in two exceptionally good subjects. The same program will be shown again today and Wednesday.

PADEREWSKI TOUR.

Paderewski is a Polish pianist mark for people of this kind for many years. Paderewski will give a recital at Massey Hall on Thursday evening, October 19.

Censor Will Not Go Outside Toronto to Pass on Show

William Banks, theatre censor, laid down an important principle yesterday when he declined to pass upon a theatrical performance prior to its being presented at Toronto.

Numerous inquiries and complaints having been received at the Royal Alexandra Theatre, from clergymen and purists generally, in reference to the New York Winter Garden Show "Robin Crusoe Jr.," in which the black-face comedian, Al Jolson, is to appear next week, Jolson's business representative appealed to Mr. Banks to inspect the performance as given in Toronto on Monday night and delete any action, scene, dialogue or costume that fail to meet with his approval.

UNUSUAL PRODUCTION AT THE GAYETY THIS WEEK

Dave Marion Heads Splendid Company in "World of Frolics."

Something of musical burlesque is offered by the "World of Frolics," appearing at the "Gayety Theatre" this week. There is no plot whatever to the show which is given in the form of a revue. Not only is the Frolics above the average burlesque production in staging but it carries a larger cast. There are fully 50 people in the company, including the leading artists.

The attraction is just one of the many which the well known burlesque Dave Marion brings along each season.

Marion wrote the lines and the production was staged by Leon Errol. Marion was seen in his old character of "Shuffy the cabman." With his old English chaise, he is inimitable and was greeted by hearty applause.

Assisted by a mule, S. H. Dudley, black-face comedian, introduced something new in the funmaking line. Marion and Dudley are very funny in the closing act.

The chorus, which consists of 21 attractive girls and nine males, render lots of assistance to their leaders in the musical side of the show. The girls are neatly costumed in bright stage creations.

Anella Bartolletti is a very graceful ballet dancer and her act provides something out of the ordinary.

The scenic portion of the show is very good. There are 10 beautiful stage settings in the initial half of the show, the last of which is of a patriotic nature.

"World of Frolics" is a performance which none of the patrons of the popular theatre can afford to miss, if they desire to see a classy performance replete with gaudy, Agnes Behler, then De Verdier are among the leading women who are seen to good advantage.

GLOBE.

Crowds thronged the Globe all day yesterday to view the big eight-reel Vitaphone picture, "God's Country and the Woman," which is by all odds the most unusual attraction offered this season. The audiences were held spellbound by the remarkable story and wonderful scenes through the entire picture, which was taken in the great Canadian North-west, where men shoot straight and love wild with anger. Agnes Behler, then De Verdier are among the leading women who are seen to good advantage.

OPENING OF THE BEAVER.

The Beaver Theatre, 1744 Dundas street, was opened on Saturday last by the Beaver Theatre Co., Ltd., of which Robert S. Marvin, of the Strand Theatre, is president. Yesterday crowded audiences thronged the theatre and were delighted with the program provided. For the first half of the week the program has for its headline photo play, "The King of Nowhere," a noble piece of work, quite in the classical vein, with a splendid power which gripped the audience and recalled many former stage triumphs.
