HARNESS HORSES TRAINING

AT SARNIA FAIR GROUNDS

thers, well-known driver of Port Arthur, is wintering six head and preparing for a strenuous campaign in 1916.

year-old son of Unko, 2:13, dam Opera Fan, 2:09, by Capt. Hunter. He is owned by J. M. Young of the St. Clair Hotel, who predicts great things of this bird, having with very little work shown 2:10 and 2:11. Look around you and see for yourself the profound uneasiness which prevails amongst us and which is becoming more and more general. A solution is necessary. What is the soul of the question? Two hundred thousand men, British subjects, faithful to
