THIS HAS BEARING ON THE MILK QUESTION

The Record of One Farmer's Expenditures and Receipts

In connection with the discussion on the price of milk the Times has received the following record of the operations of a farmer within sixty miles of St. John for the year ended with March last. It will be noted that he bought ten cows, made a liberal allowance for expenses, and at the end of the year had his ten cows paid for and a profit of $427. And he sold milk at last year's prices. Here is the statement from his account book:

March bought ten cows	.....	$400
Cost of hay and feed for year	.....	280
Time spent in milking, feeding, and herding, 800 hours at 50 cents	.....	270
Interest on cow barn, cost $800, 10 per cent	.....	29
Set aside for depreciation of barn, 10 per cent	.....	84
Hauling of milk to station, contract	.....	12
Total expenditure for year	.....	$1,149
Receipts for year	.....	280
Sold 28,400 quarts of milk at 8-1/4 cents	.....	$1,440
Eighteen calves (two died)	.....	180
Total receipts from cows and calves	.....	$1,620
Expenditures, including price of cows	.....	1,149
Receipts from animals	.....	1,670
Profit	.....	$427
And still ten cows to milk.	.....

The Man In The Street

The Bulgarians have taken Katoria, but they need not boast about it. Others have done the same.

Our Only Solace

They had a little trouble over milk in Cleveland, Ohio, lately. There was a strike of teamsters on milk wagons. The mayor notified both men and employers to get together or the city would take over control of the business. St. John cannot take over the milk farms—perhaps it can't afford to put any more water in the milk—but the things the people can say when the ten cent limit is reached would almost make a cow go dry.

Went to the War

There was a post-office box at the corner of St. James and Charlotte streets for the benefit of south end people, who could also get stamps at the corner drug store. That was several months ago. The box was taken away for repairs. It did not come back. An appeal was made to the department. Nothing doing. Then a prominent politician took a hand. He would get that box back or know the reason why. The people still waited. The politician waxed wroth—but still the box did not return. What's the reason? The war—of course. The war is responsible for everything. There is a shortage of post-office boxes, and the men who repair them have all gone to the war. What?

The doors at the I. C. R. depot at train time are like the Ross rifle. They get jammed.

And now flour has taken another jump. We'll be eating sawdust and water before spring.

In these days of agitation over the milk question, it is not amiss to ask what has become of our old friend, the butter-milk man, who used to bring that rich, buttery kind to the house.

Which leads to another. Where is he who in former days brought the oysters to the door and sold you half pint, pint or quart?

Here's another. Do you ever hear the fishmonger's horn nowadays.

But there's no doubt about the fog horn.

A stranger in the city today would think St. John was "some live city," but those on the inside know that the extra activity is due to the bargains offered by merchants.

One could procure anything from a bunch of needles to an anchor for a dollar.

Just seven days left to get a shave for ten cents. It looks as if the tonsorial artists got tired giving some men light hair cuts on the chin for a dime.

If any person can invent some liquid which will remove the natural growth without blemish or injury to the skin, there is an opportunity of making a small fortune.

Many citizens were seen inspecting safety razors today, which they expected to procure bargains on "dollar day."

Robert B. Colwell is New Grand Chancellor

FORMERLY OF ST. JOHN

R. B. Slipp, James Moulson and S. W. McMackin Among the Officers—Next Year Meeting to Be in Sydney

The Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, continued its session in Castle Hall this morning, convening at 10 o'clock. On invitation of Rockaway Lodge, No. 23, of Sydney, N. S., it was decided to meet next year in that city on the third Tuesday in August.

The election of officers proved the feature of this morning's session. R. B. Colwell, of Halifax, formerly of St. John, was elected Grand Chancellor for the coming year. The election of the other officers results as follows—R. B. Slipp, St. John, grand vice-chancellor; S. J. Soley, Port Grenville, N. S., grand prelate; R. B. Wallace, Fredericton, grand master-at-arms; James Moulson, St. John, grand keeper of records and seal; J. R. Polley, St. Stephen, grand master of Exchequer; D. M. Cochran, Sydney, grand inner guard; E. W. Steeves, Moncton, grand outer guard; and S. W. McMackin, St. John, grand trustee for three years.

With the installation of the officers the grand lodge was brought to a close. At the afternoon session yesterday the sum of $400 was voted from the funds of the grand lodge to the Patriotic Fund.

Lance Corp. Freeman Boyd

Friends in Millidgeville who had feared that Lance Corporal Freeman Boyd, assisted by the bride's uncle, Rev. W. J. Wilkinson, of Springfield.

The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Hon. J. P. Burchill, was gowning in white duchesse satin with court train and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The veil was one which had been worn by her grandmother, the late Mrs. Stuart Tremain of Halifax. The bridesmaids were Miss Laura Burchill, the bride's sister, and Miss May Wilkinson, cousin of the bride. They wore white muslin dresses with yellow sashes, white shoes and stockings, and little Normandy caps and carried shower bouquets of yellow roses. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at "Birch Hill," the home of the bride. Only the relations of the bride and groom were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson left on the 1.25 train for a honeymoon trip to Washington and Philadelphia, after which they will reside in Brookline, Mass. The bride's traveling suit was of navy blue cassy willow taffeta with shoes and stockings and hat to match.

THE NEREPS EMBANKMENT

The temporary trestle across the Nereps has been completed and the stean shore and locomotive and cars taken across to Woodman's Point, where the big shovel is now at work and has made a good beginning on the long embankment which will close all but a small portion of the Nereps, leaving only a space for the drawbridge over the main channel of the stream.

THEY MET AFTER TWO YEARS

A letter to Mrs. McDovill, Union street, says that Fred Shear, M. J. Dooley and a young St. John soldier named Graham are all at Monks Horton, Kent, England, and all in fairly good condition again. Graham had been shot in the lung, but is all right again. The letter was written on Aug. 4. Shear and Dooley had just met for the first time in two years.

FORMER ST. JOHN MAN

Moncton lost one of its oldest and best known citizens through the death of Thomas Hogan, who passed away yesterday after an illness lasting some months. He was a native of Pictouville, Queens county, but had spent the greater part of his life in St. John and Moncton. He had been an employe of the I. C. R. for about twenty-six years. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Margaret Gallagher, also two sons, Frank and Thomas of Moncton; three daughters, Annie and Agnes of Moncton and Margaret of Montreal.
