

U. N. B. COMPARED BY MONTREALER TO FAMED NEW ZEALANDERS

AL BUT ONE OF WINNERS ON SCHOOL OUTFITS

MacTier Cup Winners Definitely Through for the Season

FREDERICTON, N. B., Nov. 18.—Placing the MacTier Cup away carefully and doffing their football togs with a tinge of regret, University of New Brunswick's brilliant 1925 rugby eleven turns to the classroom and lectures now. The team will not play again this year, according to announcements at a dinner Monday night.

In connection with all the well-deserved praise heaped upon the rugby team of the University of New Brunswick, slight should not be lost of the fact that the team is dependent almost entirely upon the New Brunswick Inter-Scholastic Rugby League for the material which has been worked up into such a brilliant fifteen. With the exception of one player the regular team wearing the red and black is composed of players who learned their rugby with Fredericton High, Saint John High or Rothesay Collegiate. From Fredericton High the players are McLennan, Woods, Keene, Curry, Babbitt, Steen, McCaffrey and Hickson. Saint John High contributed a brilliant trio in Capt. Paul Fraser, Seely and Donohoe. From Rothesay Collegiate came three fine forwards, MacPhail, Macaulay and Dalzell. The latter two come from Grand Manan, Odell from St. Andrews is the only player who was instructed exclusively in college. Among the men who did not catch regular places with the team but who figured in one game or more the inter-scholastic teams were, Chastant, Good, speed and Fowler, from Fredericton High; MacMurray and Kincaid from Saint John High.

Four players will be graduated in May next and lost to the team. They are Fraser and Seely of the three quarters and MacPhail and Odell of the forwards. Academy standing must be maintained to permit of students representing their college on teams and that also enters into the situation and changes the personnel.

With the reserve players available as expected and with the high schools turning out more players, MacPhail, there should be enough players to fill any gap and make competition keen.

BURDEN CONGRATULATED

Coach Burden has been heartily congratulated upon the triumph which he worked the team up to. Coach Cass of Fredericton High whose team won the New Brunswick school title at Sackville Tuesday deserves credit also for his instructional work as more than half the team learned football with him. Ability to play school rugby evidently is what is needed in successful college teams nowadays.

COMPARED TO N. Z.

A letter to Chancellor C. C. Jones from Dr. C. E. V. of Montreal was congratulating him upon the brilliant rugby played in Montreal Saturday which was read by the chancellor before the Fredericton U. N. B. Club Tuesday night. Stated that Captain Seager, of the Montreal Club who played against the U. N. B. team, had characterized the red and black showing Saturday as being as good as that of the New Zealand team which played in the Old Country two years ago. U. N. B. is not as heavy as English teams. Seager formerly played with Blackheath, a well-known London club.

Series of City Meets Strongly Urged At Annual Skating Meeting

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN A. DUNLOP.

ONE WEEK from tomorrow night, the curtain goes up on the 1925 professional hockey season in the east at Boston when Pittsburgh invades the Hub. The informal opening took place this week with Victoria Cougars and Montreal Maroons doing the honors at Montreal. Tonight, Canadiens hook up in Montreal with the Pacific Coast team. This will be the greatest season in the history of hockey due to the inclusion of three big American cities in the circuit, Pittsburgh, New York and Boston, and some attendance records are bound to go. That hockey will flourish in these big cities is a question that few people ever think about for the idea of hockey failing to draw big crowds is seldom considered. The game is an attractive one and the time is not far distant when a purely United States league will be in operation. There has been a lot of talk on the other side about developing their juniors and thus doing away with the practice of securing Canadian stars. If they started now on an extensive program in this direction, it would take between five and ten years for any results to show. In contrast to what might be termed this artificial and forced method, we have in Canada a natural system of development springing from our rather rigorous winter climate that makes a playing surface out of every pond. On paper, this U. S. junior development sounds good but in our humble opinion so long as our friend Jack Frost quarters most of his legions above the international boundary just so long will Canada provide the real hockey stars of the entire world. And that means until Gabriel plays his saxophone.

GENTS by the name of Bogoljubow and Bogatyshuk, they say, are in the running at the international chess tourney at Moscow these days. The makers of the Pullman cars should take note.

THEY KNOW how to appreciate their athletic heroes at Fredericton, whatever else may be said of the capital city. Hardly had the wires finished ticking off the news of U. N. B.'s win of the MacTier Cup before the Common Council had met in extraordinary session and prepared plans for a welcome. The students and co-eds combined and a splendid demonstration was tendered the young gridiron heroes. There is nothing like getting the glad hand as you step off the train and see that the home folks appreciate what you have done. It was a great and notable victory and further enhanced Fredericton's sporting reputation. When you look back over the capital city's record in the athletic world, it is surprising the number of times they can produce a winner. It seems to be a characteristic to be thorough in the matter and leave nothing to chance. For its population, Fredericton is in the front rank of Maritime cities. A poor entry from Fredericton is a rarity these days.

ROGER PECKINPAUGH says that Buckley Harris asked Walter Johnson at every inning if he wanted to quit. Asking the big Swede to quit is like asking the government for a station. Buckley should have been more polished and used the word "retire." There's a difference.

THE ADMIRAL BEATTY'S generous offer to the Saint John Amateur Skating Association at the annual meeting last night in inviting Clas Thunberg, Olympic champion, to accept the hospitality of the hotel during his stay here was greeted with generous applause and well it might. Wholly apart from the monetary consideration involved in the offer is something deeper and finer and that is the quick recognition by Manager Peters of the fact that this meet is a co-operative affair and needs the backing and boosting of every citizen. The Admiral Beatty has done its share well and has set the pace for citizens to follow. The offer was totally unexpected to the association and it aroused considerable enthusiasm among those present. At no cost to the association—and when you get down to bedrock that means Saint John—the Olympic champion will be looked after in the best possible manner. Is that not something to rouse up considerable pep in regard to the big meet? We only hope the contagion of this public-spirited example will spread its good work throughout the city and that we shall all unite for the common good. Can Saint John for once stop all bickering and petty quarrelling and set our eyes on the goal ahead and overlook the many little difficulties that will cause irritation? If we do this resolutely and give the local association what it needs—our co-operation—that job will be easy. A united, solid front is what we need. In union there is strength.

He was cared for at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hurtle for several days as he did not wish a doctor, but yesterday, as he was still suffering considerable pain, he was brought to the General Public Hospital. His condition is not considered serious.

A. P. PATERSON AGAIN HEADS ASSOCIATION

N. B. Skating Body Also Holds Its Annual Session

SKATING got properly set for a flying start at the annual meeting of the New Brunswick Skating Association and the Saint John Skating Association in the Board of Trade rooms last evening with the presidents in both cases being re-elected. Frank White heading the provincial body and P. Paterson the local one. Encouraging reports were received at both meetings and talk regarding a series of local meets for skaters in the city was hearty in its approval of the idea. Plans for the big meet were considered and in this connection, spics was added to this when D. J. Corr, secretary of the local body, announced that he had been in communication with Boston and had been informed that Charles Jewtraw, one of the greatest amateur skaters ever developed on the continent would get into the game this year after being out for one year and that in all probability the Lake Placid boy would be an entrant for the big meet here at which Clas Thunberg will be the outstanding competitor.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

In his report, Secretary D. J. Corr, reviewed the activities here for the past few years in conducting championship meets which had proved very successful and spoke about the premier meet that is to be held this coming season. He also spoke about the series of local skating meets held last winter and that he was surprised to learn that some principals of city schools had objected to their pupils taking part in skating events, that they were not in favor of athletics among the boys. He thought that the boys neglected their studies.

A. W. Covey also stated that he had found the same difficulty in arranging for school boy meets and thought the matter should be drawn to the attention of the Board of School Trustees. On motion it was decided that the executive appoint a strong committee to take up the matter with the school board, and also another committee be appointed to look after the holding of a series of city races this season.

On motion a hearty vote of thanks was tendered D. J. Corr for the excellent work he has accomplished during the past few years in the holding of skating meets in the city, and for his untiring efforts in making arrangements for the coming world's events.

When asked what he thought about holding a big meet on Lily Lake, Joe Tebo replied that the Lake was there if it was needed, former meets had been conducted there, but he was quite willing that some other rink should have the opportunity to hold the meet if the Association so wished.

A GOOD OFFER

Great applause greeted the reading of a letter from H. A. Peters, manager of the Admiral Beatty Hotel Company, Ltd., who said he took great pleasure in extending to Clas Thunberg a hearty invitation to accept the hospitality of the Admiral Beatty Hotel while participating in the struggle for the World's title. H. A. Peters also wished the association continued success in the contemplated meet. On motion the secretary was instructed to acknowledge the receipt of the letter and the matter was left in the hands of the executive for further action.

Charles Lingley of the South End said that a number of races had been held in the South End, they had been well attended and were very successful and he thought the idea a good one and that it should be continued.

H. A. Nixon, who had acted as director of last year's meets, stated that the boys were enthusiastic over the series and were looking for more races during the coming season.

John Thornton said that he was in accord with the others that the races should be held again this season.

After the report of L. V. Lingley, treasurer, had been read, a nominating committee composed of Frank White, Thomas Nagle and K. J. MacLure was appointed and they proposed the following officers for the ensuing year who were elected as follows:

A communication was read from W. J. Stack and N. Jenkins who requested the privilege to supply 15,000 programmes for the World's meet and would pay the Association $500 for the privilege. The matter was left in the hands of the executive.

Hilton A. Byles, stated that if grandstands were built round his Carleton open air rink, he could accommodate 20,000 people, that he would grant the privilege of the association to hold the World's meet there free and invited a committee to look over the premises and discuss the matter with him.

John Thornton, representing the North End Association offered the use of the North End Improvement Grounds for the big meet and stated ten thousand people could be accommodated if grandstands were erected. These two applications were received and handed over to the executive committee.
