FUNERALS

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of her son, 347 City road, of Mrs. Phoebe E. Morrell. After a short service the body was taken to Fernhill cemetery for interment.

The funeral of James Gray was held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence, 118 St. James street, West end. Rev. L. Brindley conducted the service and the interment took place in Cedar Hill cemetery.

The funeral of Doris P. Patterson, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Patterson, took place from her parents' residence, 65 Clarence street, to Fernhill cemetery yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. O. F. Brown conducted the service.

The funeral of Mrs. Herbert Jenner took place from the residence of her sister, 63 Moore street, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rev. B. A. Armstrong conducted the service and the interment was in Fernhill cemetery.

The funeral of Margaret Costello, of 189 Brussels street, took place on Saturday afternoon from the Cathedral. The burial service was conducted by Rev. Father Harnage. Interment took place in the New Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of D. Wesley McBeath, who was killed while working on a schooner last Thursday morning, was held from his late residence, 28 Marsh street, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Rev. L. Brindley conducted the service.

27,000 MILES TO VISIT GRAVE.
London, Eng., Jan. 3.—A seventeen-year-old boy has made a journey of 27,000 miles to see his father's grave at Eastbourne. In 1918 Capt. E. Barry of South Africa was buried at Eastbourne. His brother notified the widow, and Athol Barry, the dead man's son, worked his passage to England in a sailing schooner, Vin South Australia, Cape Horn and the east coast of America, the voyage lasting 900 days.

NEW YEAR'S IN THE CHURCHES

The services of Rev. Isaac Brindley, who has been in charge of Tabernacle Baptist church, have been secured as acting pastor for Ludlow street Baptist church until March 1 to succeed the late Rev. W. R. Robinson. Joseph Griffiths, lay reader at Tabernacle, will conduct services until the return of Rev. Mr. Tedford.

Last evening a special memorial service was held in the Ludlow street church conducted by Rev. Dr. Wilfred Kierstead, of Fredericton, who was specially invited to do so because of his connection with the late Rev. W. R. Robinson. The service was a deeply impressive one and was commemorative not only of the late pastor but of the members of the congregation who had recently passed away. Rev. Dr. Heine assisted. The young men's choir led the singing and the special music was given under the direction of Miss M. E. Mul-
In the Fairville Methodist church last evening the annual covenant service was observed and Rev. Thomas Marshall presided. There was a good congregation in spite of the unfavorable weather conditions. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered at the close of the service.

Rev. Clifford Clark, now stationed at Pokiak, York county, occupied the pulpit of the Fairville Baptist church at both services yesterday. Rev. Mr. Clark is a St. John boy and is the son of D. C. Clark of West St. John.

T. Brindley, son of Rev. Isaac Brindley, now of Ludlow street Baptist church, was the special speaker in the Victoria street Baptist church in the morning and delivered a striking New Year's message. Mr. Brindley was a student preacher at Grand Falls during the summer and is studying at Acadia University.

The annual conference of the congregation of the Germain street Baptist church was held on New Year's morning and had the largest attendance in the history of the church. Much enthusiasm was displayed in discussing matters relating to the welfare of the church.

The Douglas Avenue and the Coburg street Christian churches united to hold a New Year's service in the Douglas Avenue church on New Year's day. The service was largely attended and was full of inspiration. Rev. J. L. Appleman, who conducted the service, gave the first address, taking as his subject the Bible. Rev. J. C. B. Appel spoke after Mr. Appleman on the same subject. Rev. E. P. Wright of St. Luke's church led in prayer. The singing was a specially impressive part of the service. A choir of male voices led the singing and two special numbers were sung by the McEachern male quartette. The offering taken is to be given to the Bible Society.

EELS BLOCK WATER WHEEL

Plymouth, Mass., Jan. 3.—Eels, hundreds of them, crawled into the water wheel that furnished power for the Cobb and Drew factory at Rocky Nook and compelled closing the mill. Records show that it was just fifty years ago that a like thing happened at the old mill.
