HERE ARE SOME SOLDIERS WHO FORCED TURKEY TO SUE FOR PEACE

MONTENEGRO SOLDIERS USING MAXIM GUNS

The war in the Balkans had hardly started before it seemed to be over. Turkey was whipped at all points and in every engagement. It mattered not whether Serbians, Montenegrins or Bulgarians engaged the Turks, the soldiers of the Sultan were whipped. The Bulgarians and the Montenegrins had well equipped artillery and many rapid fire Maxim guns that proved to be deadly when actual fighting began.

Sofia, Nov. 6.-The Turkish army, commanded by Nazim Pasha, was completely crushed in the great battle of the last two days on the Serai Tchorlu line. According to the semi-officials the Turks lost in killed and injured, more than double the losses to the Bulgarians. The Bulgarians are now pursuing the defeated army.

The sanguinary character of the recent engagement, which it is reported have in the attack on the Tchatalja fortifications, has been due to the extraordinary energy of the Bulgarian attack.

The view of the Bulgarian staff is that the Turks are so demoralized that frontal attacks may be undertaken even against the strongest positions without superior forces, and the Turkish shortage of artillery and ammunition has contributed to the success of these tactics.

The Bulgarian vanguard, it is said, has reached Lake Derkas, one detachment passing between the lake and sea.

Another line of the Bulgarian advance is reported to be attacking the forts in front of the town of Tchatalja, while still another column, which marched down the main road from Tchatalja to Silivri, is now advancing to Bogodol, for the purpose of forcing a passage along the coast of the Sea of Marmora.

These, however, are only flying columns. The main body has not yet commenced the attack on the Tchatalja fortifications.

According to statements made by prominent public men in Sofia, Bulgaria will not rest until Constantinople has been captured and Adrianople has fallen, and although it is said that entry into Constantinople is no part of the allies' plan, Bulgaria will not listen to the suggestion of peace negotiations unless Turkey gives up the city.

Kenney and Macdonald are personally doing some seven or eight miles a day; they have 150 men at work; starting at the Houlton road, near the Trotting Park, they have finished some three miles up to the crossing of the Madunakik; some of these were 50 feet deep; they will now commence the other four miles after crossing the
