BOYS WHO RAN AWAY FROM THE HOME ARE TO BE PLACED ON TRIAL

Remanded in Court Today—Rockland Road and Another Stealing Case On

The season in the police court this morning was a lengthy one. Two preliminary hearings were begun, the three lads who escaped from the Boys Industrial School were before the court, the police sheet was disposed of and several by-law cases were taken up.

After Frederick Reicker and Lawrence McCarthy, Home and Fawcett charged with escaping from the Boys Industrial Home and being given a talking to by the court. "You were given a good chance, the last time you escaped, to go back to the home and do better, but you did not take advantage of it, and you will now be probably sent to Borchester for a long term. When you escaped from the home you went right out and acted like highwaymen, robbing and breaking into houses along the road. I am going to remand you for the present but when you come before the court again it will be for a preliminary hearing, at the expiration of which you will probably be sent up for trial." One of the lads had a cap in his hand, and on being asked where he got it, he told the court that he had stolen it. They were remanded to jail.

The preliminary hearing in the case of Harry McNally, charged with snatching a purse from Mrs. Annie Chase in Rockland Road on January 11 was begun this morning. At the time of the arrest a few days ago, the prisoner, who is about eighteen years of age, pleaded guilty. Mrs. Chase gave evidence this morning that on the night of the robbery she was walking up Rockland Road about 9 o'clock when two lads jumped out of a yard and snatched her purse. They then ran away. The purse contained about $2 and some papers. She could not identify the prisoner. Detective Killen sold of arresting McNally and of the latter admitting his guilt. The witness entered into a recognizance of $200 each to appear at the next sitting of the circuit court.

McNally was also charged with breaking and entering the store of Maurice Jacobson in Main street on the night of January 29, with George Watson. The latter denied the charge, but McNally pleaded guilty. Jacobson said that his store had been broken into and more than $5 stolen. He identified a watch produced in court as being similar to the one he kept in stock.

Detective Killen said that after he had arrested McNally on the charge of stealing the purse, he had visited him in his cell and had found a watch hidden under a bench. He had asked the witness where he had got the watch and McNally said that he had found it on Long Wharf. After being questioned further McNally admitted having broken into Jacobson's store, and implicated Watson. He admitted taking the watch but denied that he stole the $5. Both prisoners were remanded.

One prisoner charged with drunkenness was remanded and another was fined $4 or ten days in jail.

The hearing in the case of Howard Dorr, charged with entering the house of Samuel Kandris in Union street on January 8th will be continued this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The case against Walter Hodd, charged with stealing a watch from John Raynes, will be continued tomorrow.

SAYS LATE HIRING OF VEHICLES AT KING SQUARE MUST CEASE

Police Magistrate Also Speaks of Renewal of Corner Loading Habit

James Alexander was fined $10 for allowing his horse to stand unattended on the North Side of King Square for one hour. The fine was allowed to stand on condition that he would not keep his horse and team standing on the square late at night. "I am credibly informed," said His Honor, "that several drivers make a practice of keeping their teams out late at night, and it is certain that they are there for no good purpose. The matter will have to be stopped. I would also like to call the attention of the police to the fact that the square is again becoming the rendezvous for a lot of street corner loafers. I had a crowd of them before me once before and they were cautioned then and have it remedied."

Andrew Johnston, reported for not placing a light on a staging in Charlotte street, was fined $2. The fine was allowed to stand.

William Daley, reported for going beyond the stand allotted for coachmen at the Union depot, was fined $2. The fine was allowed to stand.

J. W. White, reported for working in the city without a license that he had made the necessary arrangements. The matter was allowed to stand.

W. McPherson, reported for not having a proper number on his automobile, said that he had applied for the proper license and expected to have it any day. The matter was allowed to stand.

MAY RETAIN THE MONEY

Judgment Given in Connection With Savings Bank Deposit

In the case of William Stinson administrator of the estate of Mrs. Margaret Tear vs. William A. Deart, tried before Mr. Justice Landry without a jury, in January, judgment was delivered this morning in favor of the defendant. A verdict was accordingly entered with costs. This was a suit brought to recover $200 which had been on deposit in the Dominion Savings Bank since August 1, 1910. The title of the claim was Mrs. Tear in the joint name of herself and the defendant, the bank being authorized to pay out the money to either or the survivor of them.

After the death of Mrs. Stinson the money was withdrawn by the defendant. The plaintiff contended that he should not have taken the money for his own use as he was only acting as agent for the deceased but the defense set up that the money had been given to him absolutely in the nature of a donation, as usual, the bank book being given as symbolical of the gift. J. R. M. Baxter, K. C. appeared for the plaintiff at the trial and George H. V. Belyea for the defendant.

GREEK SENT BACK

Compatriots Agitated Over The Case of Anthony Chaggaris

His friends about the city among the Greeks are agitated over the deportation of Anthony Chaggaris who was sent back to the United States this morning, after being here about three weeks. He came here on a visit to one of his cousins who was about to leave for his native land and to aid in the fight against the Turks, intending to stay only a short while, and leaving a deposit of $50 for his return to the states with the immigration officials. After coming here, however, he decided to remain a little longer than he had at first planned and help manage the fruit business of Anthony Nektipoulos, and he did so but on Wednesday of this week the immigration officer stepped in. He was taken back to the states today.

Anthony was in St. John about three years ago, and conducted a shoe shine parlor in Main street near Paradise Row. He went to the states later on, and has since been living in Boston. Local Greeks say that there was no intention to defraud the authorities and they are interesting themselves in his case with the result that if negotiations are successful permission may be given for his return. Some of them said today they might carry the matter to Ottawa.

ROYAL FORESTERS HOSTS

On Thursday evening Brunswick Esplanade Royal Foresters gave a tea and social evening to their friends, illustrious Commander H. H. Bell, and officers of the encampment welcomed the guests to the large hall in the Orange hall, Simonds street, in which the affair was held. The hall was specially prepared for the occasion and presented a most pleasing scene when all were seated. Two long tables occupied the full length of the hall and were faced by capacity by the good things provided and by those in attendance. The high court with companions and subordinate courts were represented, illustrious Commander Bell presided and following the tea a social hour was spent during which songs and short addresses were given. D. G. Lingley, P. H. C. R., and M. E. Greas, H. V. C. R. in their addresses expressed their appreciation of the work done by the Royal Foresters at the installation ceremonies during the last month. The large attendance and success of these gatherings was chiefly due to their efforts. E. J. Todd replied in a brief address. Songs were given by Messrs. Mowry and Cascon and encore demanded. Short addresses were also given by Mr. C. E. Belyea, chief ranger of Companion Court Wygody, and by J. E. Arthur, J. A. Brooks, E. O. Macquod, W. H. McNeil, W. A. Fitz and T. Cranville. A very pleasant evening was brought to a close by singing of the national anthem.

MR. THORNE HOME

W. H. Thorne arrived home today from Montreal and Ottawa. He was in the latter place as a member of the delegation sent from this city by the board of trade in connection with the making of Boston a port of call in the proposed West India service. Mr. Thorne said that what had already been stated by the other delegates had been satisfactory and covered the arrangements quite clearly.

Store closes tonight at 6 o'clock

LOCAL NEWS

NOT THE FAIRVILLE MAN

G. H. Allam, of Fairville, informs the Times that he is not the Allan mentioned in the report of a one of those seeking incorporation to conduct an automobile business in the city.

TRAINS LATE

The Montreal train due at noon today was about an hour and ten minutes behind time, while the Boston was also about an hour late. It was said that cold weather had something to do with this, making it more difficult to keep steam up.

NOVELTY SHOWER

A very pleasant evening was spent last night when a number of friends called upon Miss Bertha Seely, of West St. John, and presented to her a novelty shower. The gifts were numerous and handsome. The evening was very pleasantly spent with games and music. Miss Seely will be one of the principals in a happy event at the latter part of the month.

LEINSTER-STREET BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

A business meeting of the Leinster street United Baptist Sunday school was held in the church parlor last evening. The superintendent, Arthur Everett, presided. Reports from special committees were heard, the principal of which dealt with the finances of the school, which are in good shape. Other matters of importance discussed were the question of adopting the graded lessons for the junior classes, the Easter exercises, and the purchasing of new chairs for the vestry.

Reports show that the school is progressing very favorably, and at the present time has several well organized classes doing excellent work.

The Baraca Brotherhood in connection with the school also met last night and made preliminary arrangements for the organizing of an orchestra. Several young men were present and a short practice held.
