APPLES AND POTATOES.

The first arrivals of the New Brunswick apples were placed on the market this week and are bringing the usual prices. The opening of the season, mainly from the country concerning the apple crop are not very encouraging at the present time and the new stock are late in being received, in comparison with other years. Potatoes are becoming more plentiful and have dropped from their former price of $2.25 to 80 and 90 cents a bushel.

THE BOY AND THE AUTO.

An amusing incident, but one that had also serious aspects, occurred yesterday afternoon near the North End police station in Main street. An automobile proceeding very slowly down a narrow street, but was able to stop before the rear wheel had gone over him. When the car came to a stop, the young fellow jumped up and finding that his hat was gone dove beneath the car and rescued it. He then ran with all his might into his house and peeked from behind the curtains to see what had become of the car. Doubtless he was under the impression that he had injured the car in some way. At first it was thought that the child was injured, but it was found that he was only badly scared.

REAL ESTATE VERY ACTIVE

More Sales of Acreage Reported Today, Lancaster, Manawagonish Road and Chapel Grove

Real estate has been very active within the last few days. Several big deals have been recorded and numerous other small ones. Fifteen acres of land in Lancaster were sold today to a Montreal syndicate by Messrs. Armstrong & Bruce. The land was purchased a short while ago for a local syndicate and turned over at a large profit. The price is said to be in the vicinity of $700 an acre. It is thought that the Montreal owners will sub-divide the property for residential purposes.

A farm of 100 acres commonly known as the Hatheway farm on the Mahogany road, but recently owned by Messrs. Guernsey & Harding, has been purchased by the firm of Armstrong & Bruce. The price paid is said to be something over $100 an acre.

There has been another large farm of 290 acres sold by the firm of Allison & Thomas. This farm was owned by Dr. Moore of Montreal, and is situated at Chapel Grove, with a frontage of 400 feet on the Kennebec River. About fifty acres of it is cleared. On the property is a small frame house with two large barns. It is estimated that the lumber is worth $800. The land went to an outside capitalist, and it has been suggested that he intends making a fashionable summer resort out of the section.

There are rumors of other transactions in the vicinity of Brunsels street, out at present nothing definite can be said about them.

CIVIL COURT CASES

Sixty Cents For Judgment on Bill of Half a Dollar

The old adage "revenge is sweet" proved true in the hearing of a case in the civil court this morning when an old man sued a teamster for fifty cents and had to pay sixty cents for the judgment. He told the court that he had engaged a teamster to do a little hauling for him and had paid him fifty cents in advance, that the teamster did not do the work and he was forced to engage another, to whom he paid forty cents. When he went back to the teamster No. 1 he could not get the fifty cents back, so he took the matter to court. He gladly paid the sixty cents for his judgment and left the court smiling.

Another case that came up for hearing was that of David Lore against Percy W. Thomson for $3.25. The plaintiff contended that a coach belonging to him was damaged on July 10 in Union street by the defendant's car backing into it. The defendant was not in court this morning and the matter was allowed to stand over until Thursday next.

LARRY CONNOLLY'S CASE.

Further Postponement of Baseball Matter Till This Afternoon

The case of Larry Connolly, an ex-member of the Marlboro baseball team, against David B. Dixon, J. Russell, J. H. Fleming and Dr. D. C. Malcolm, owners of the Marlboro baseball team, came up for hearing in the civil court before Judge Ritchie this morning. The plaintiff is suing for $88 which he contends is due him as salary when he was with the team. G. H. V. Byles appeared for the plaintiff and Charles Mullin, K. C., for the defendant. The case was before the court last Thursday, but was adjourned because the plaintiff is a non-resident could produce security for costs in case a non suit was granted.

This morning Mr. Byles presented to the court a surety signed by Daniel Connolly, but Mr. Mullin contended that it was not drawn up in conformity with the application of J. A. Barry, calling upon the law, several words required by the law being omitted. He also objected to the sufficiency of the security. Mr. Byles asked for an adjournment until this afternoon at two o'clock in order to have Mr. Connolly in court, and have the matter straightened out. The hearing was therefore adjourned until that hour.

PYTHIANS RETURN HOME WELL PLEASED

The Proceedings of Grand Lodge Meeting in Moncton Very Successful—The Dokers

The trains from the east this forenoon and afternoon brought home most of the St. John Pythians who were attending the grand lodge at Moncton. Every fraternal heartily praises the hospitality extended to all sides by the railway city's K. P.'s and citizens generally. Nothing was overlooked in making the two days' stay of the visitors a delightful one. The entertainment was done by the visitors, such as band concerts, parades, etc., was received with much appreciation.

The grand lodge of the maritime provincial domain met on Tuesday and Wednesday. At the delegates arrived from all points an energetic reception committee met them at the depot and presented to strangers a specially made badge containing the Pythian colors, red, yellow and blue, to which was suspended a shield bearing a miniature photograph of the famous Petitcodiac river bore on its daily rampage. The Brunswick Hotel was headquarters.

The parade of the visitors and Uniform Rank at 2 p. m. Tuesday was a brilliant affair. The Grand Band of St. John led the procession. The uniformed men alone numbered more than 200. Tuesday evening there was no meeting of the grand lodge, so the visitors spent the time about town. The Grand Band gave a fine concert in the park and at ten o'clock the Moncton brethren sprang a surprise in a singing and entertainment in the Grand Opera House. There were motion pictures, vaudeville, choruses and a dainty spread.

After the election of officers on Wednesday morning the grand lodge adjourned to meet at St. Andrew's next year. The visitors were entertained at the horse races in the afternoon and in the evening the Dramatic Order, Knights of Khurasan held their big ceremonial in Oddfellows' Hall, preceded by a street parade, the like of which the railway town had never seen. The whole Arab band, headed by Grand Viceroy Ritchie of this city—the affair being put on by Adria Temple No. 167 of St. John—were arrayed in their gorgeous habiliments, the unofficial members wearing the royal blue and gold fetes. The temple's new camel five feet high, was in line and the thirty candidates roped together in a melancholy line were publicly displayed en route to the scene of mystery. It was a great sight for the Dokers, but a greater one for their victims. A grand banquet wound up this part of the convention.

LOCAL GOLF

The final in the local golf championship will be played some day this week. The survivors of the semi-finals are Andrew Jack and H. N. Stetson, and a close match is anticipated.

The ladies' maritime championship meet is to be held in St. John beginning next Monday. Contestants are expected from several outside clubs.

Clarence Sprague, who won the St. John championship last year, and who was recently transferred to Sherbrooke, P. Q., established a new record for the local course there a few days ago.

The men's maritime championship meet is to begin on the local course on September 2.

THE PLAYGROUNDS

The formal closing of the Harriett R. Allison supervised playground will take place tomorrow afternoon, but this ground will be kept open for some time longer for the latter portion of the day. Tomorrow afternoon there will be a short programme, and the work of the children will be exhibited, and all the apparatus will be in use, showing the children at play. Members of the Playground Association executive will be present and one or two short addresses will be given.

F. G. Spencer gave another treat to the playground children this week. On Tuesday days of the children's grounds were given a free admission to the Lyric on Wednesday those of the Centennial, and this afternoon those of the Aberdeen. A special programme was presented and greatly enjoyed; and Mr. Spencer's kindness was greatly appreciated.

Store closes evenings 6 p. m. Saturdays 11 p. m.
