

NA-DRU-CO LAXATIVES

are new and entirely different from ordinary preparations. They accomplish their purpose without disturbing the rest of the system and therefore the ideal laxative for the nursing mother, as they do not affect the child.

Compounded, like all NA-DRU-CO preparations, by expert chemists. If unsatisfactory we'll gladly return your money.

25c. a box. If your druggist has not yet stocked them, send 25c. and we will mail them.

National Drug and Chemical Company of Canada, Limited, - - - Montreal.

MAY SAVE RUSSIAN MADERO GETS AWAY

Surprise Is Sprung at Habeas Corpus Hearing in Winnipeg.

A TECHNICALITY ARISES

Prisoner's Counsel Shows That Russian Requisition Is For a Political Crime Because All Affairs Between Police and Citizens Are Technically Such — Judge Robson Deems Point Important.

Winnipeg, Nov. 24.—The argument on the Habeas Corpus writ of habeas corpus case, which resumed yesterday before Judge Robson, resulted in a surprise being sprung, when counsel for the defence pointed out that in the evidence of requisition of the Russian Government it was stated that the crime was a political one. It was also explained that under the Russian law obtaining at the time, all trouble between civilians and police came under the head of political crime. Special treatment is devised by the Government, and there are special provisions made for arrests and trials in such cases.

Judge Robson considered the point of importance. He asked that the words on the seal attached to the documents be translated, and, pending this adjourned court until to-day.

Packed Dogs in Box.

Galt, Nov. 24.—Fine totaling $54.40 were imposed on John N. Sipes at the Police Court yesterday afternoon before Magistrate Blake. Sipes was charged with transporting dogs into northern game district, in contravention of the special act of prohibition, and also cruelty to animals. The prosecutors were John Jennings, for the Department of Agriculture, and P. C. Laverton Harris, for the Humane Society. C. R. Hanring, K.C., Preston, appeared for the defence and pleaded guilty on both charges. Mr. Jennings said he did not want the full penalty inflicted, but only a lesson read to sportsmen and others.

Sipes boxed up two hounds in a close packing case and consigned them to Parry Sound, to be used for deer hunting. At Shawangwa the box was discovered by a provincial constable, who confiscated and released the dogs. The animals had been four days without food or water and nearly perished.

DO YOU BREATHE LIKE THIS? IT'S CATARRH

I SEND YOU ABSOLUTELY FREE A TRIAL PACKAGE OF A REMEDY THAT CURES THIS DISTRESSING CONDITION. IT COMES PREPAID TO YOUR DOOR.

Consider my offer. I willingly send you free of charge a trial treatment of the wonderful Gause Combined Catarrh Cure. You have everything to gain and nothing to lose. It's up to you. If you wish to be cured of that foul spitting and 'hawking'—that 'don't dare look any body in the face' feeling then fill out this coupon without further delay. I possess the remedy that will cure you, but as I have not your address you must supply it. That's all I ask. Simply fill out the following coupon and mail it to me to-day. It will be the means of restoring you to a perfectly, normal condition, giving you a sweet, pure breath.

FREE

This coupon is good for one trial package of Gause's Combined Catarrh Cure, mailed free in plain package. Simply fill in your name and address on dotted lines below and mail to:

C. E. GAUSE, 9574 Main St. Marshall, Michigan.

OPENLY DISLOYAL

Mr. Brodeur Continues His Revelations on Eye-Election.

BLONDIN DENIES CHARGES

Member for Champlain Says Conservative Members Were True and Loyal During Drummond-Arthabaska Fight, But Mr. Brodeur Presses Home His Cases of Unpatriotic Conduct in Quebec.

Ottawa, Nov. 24.—When the debate on the address was resumed yesterday afternoon, Hon. L. P. Brodeur, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, continued his criticism of the campaign in Drummond and Arthabaska. In fact the entire session was devoted to a discussion of the methods employed by both parties in the recent by-election, and it was followed upon counter-charge by Conservatives and Liberals, until the amendment of F. D. Monk (Jacques Cartier), upon which the discussion mainly rose, was lost to view.

Mr. Brodeur read more reports of speeches by Nationalists in the campaign, and said he sought to show the influence of these speeches upon the election. He had carried on an incendiary campaign against British connection and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He quoted from a statement of Tancred Macell, who said that he had been in the parish where the English had deserted a church and fed their horses from its sacred vessels. He quoted from a further speech in which Macell described the burning of the late Cecil Rhodes. The Minister of Marine declared the Governor-General. It was a shame that this sort of campaign was being carried on, and he asserted, it did not represent the feeling of the Province of Quebec.

Contrariwise, a different campaign was being conducted in Ontario where Sir Wilfrid Laurier was declared to be anti-British.

Continuing, anti Liberal and Conservative cheers, Mr. Brodeur read the advice tendered to the electors of Drummond and Arthabaska. E. L. Borden advised them to vote according to their conscience, which satisfied the Minister, as it showed that Mr. Borden did not appreciate the anti-British appeals which had been made. Not so, he maintained, in the case of Hon. George E. Foster, Hon. Robert Rogers and others, who had advised Conservatives to vote against Laurier and this implied direct support to the Nationalist candidate, to accomplish the embarrassment of the Government.

Dealing with the amendment of Mr. Monk, the Minister declared that the creation of a navy did not change our relations with the Mother Country, any more than when Canada provided the land forces for Her Majesty's troops. When Great Britain withdrew her troops from North America, Mr. Monk's proposal was not in accordance with historical record, as was instance when Canada took over the fisheries protective service, and even the important question of confederation was not submitted to the people. The naval policy was an affirmation of Canadian autonomy.

P. E. Blondin (Champlain), one of the Quebec Conservatives, who had been pilloried by Government speakers for alleged apathy to racial prejudice during the campaign, said: "I wish to declare from my seat in this House and before the country that, during the whole of the Drummond and Arthabaska campaign, the Conservative members who took part in it were true and faithful to our King and our country, in conformity with the principles of the Liberal-Conservative party."

He took neither credit nor discredit for his presence in the constituency, because, before the campaign opened, the people were already in a hurry to elect a Government workers remark that things were going bad 'because of the damned navy bill.' He denied that he had Quebec owed nothing to the Liberal-Conservative party, and that the people of the province were narrow and fanatical.

Dr. H. S. Beland (Liberal, Beauce), said he had not intended to take part in the debate, but he was obliged to do so in view of the remarks of the previous speaker. If Mr. Blondin did not make the statement attributed to him, Dr. Eugene Paquet (Liberal, Montmagny) would have been obliged to do so in view of the remarks of the previous speaker. If Mr. Blondin did not make the statement attributed to him, Dr. Eugene Paquet (Liberal, Montmagny) would have been obliged to do so in view of the remarks of the previous speaker.

Then Dr. Beland proceeded to give to the House a story of the Drummond-Arthabaska campaign, as he saw it. He said that he had presented himself to the electors as a Liberal, who would support Sir Wilfrid Laurier on all questions but that of the navy.

And Laurier had said at several meetings that the only way to please Sir Wilfrid Laurier was to vote for Gilbert, because, when the Nationalist candidate was elected, he would be able to go to Earl Grey and Mr. Borden and say: "See, the people have declared themselves against the naval policy. We must repeal the bill." When the Nationalist had appealed to the instincts of the electors and had tried to frighten fathers and mothers by the bogey of conscription, Nantel (Conservative, Terrebonne) spoke in French. He said they had told the electors that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was not a god, nor yet a demi-god, but just a plain man, with a love for titles and automobiles, given him by English lords, and that they were perfectly entitled to rebuke him when he made a mistake. The people of Drummond-Arthabaska had heeded this advice, he said, and the victory was the result.

J. P. Turcotte (Quebec County), also speaking in French, explained that

CLAIMING AMNESTY

Brazilian Mutineers Are Willing to Surrender.

PARDON HAS BEEN GIVEN

Brazilian ... 78903 6 N1678 Senate Has Met and Approved the Granting of a General Amnesty For the Sailors Who Rose Against Their Officers—They Want More Pay and Abolition of Corporal Punishment in the Navy.

Rio Janeiro, Nov. 25.—The mutineers in the navy have sent a message to the Government offering to surrender. The Senate has unanimously approved a proposition for amnesty to the rebels.

The Chamber of Deputies closed its meeting and adjourned until to-day with the question of amnesty for the mutineers still under discussion. It is thought that amnesty will be granted by a small majority.

The Sao Paulo and Balsa have gone outside the bar, but the Minas Ceraes has taken up a position in the bay, opposite the Government palace.

These are the two battleships whose crews mutinied Wednesday. They turned their guns upon the loyal ships and also threw a few shells into the city. During the outbreak several officers were killed. The fighting ceased at night, but the rebels remained in possession of the two vessels.

It is officially stated that the trouble is not of a political character, and should be described as a mutiny among the sailors to enforce certain concessions from their officers, rather than a revolt against the administration of President Fonseca.

For some time the men of the navy had been agitating the matter of more pay. They also objected to the practice in the navy of inflicting corporal punishment upon insubordinate or otherwise offending sailors.

The matter came to a head Wednesday when the crews of two of the bigger warships turned upon their superiors. It is reported that the captain of the battleship Minas Ceraes was killed.

Following the fighting the mutineers made a formal demand for increased pay and the abolition of corporal punishment, and then withdrew to the outer harbor.

The battleship Sao Paulo and Minas Ceraes, both modern dreadnaughts, were built in England for Brazil. They were in London at the time of the Portuguese uprising, the newly-elected Brazilian President, Marshal Hermes Fonseca, being on board one of them. It was these foreign warships which first offered a refuge to Manuel and his mother.

Fractured His Skull.

Brantford, Nov. 25.—James Adams, an Englishman, 40 years old, was found in the basement of the Imperial Hotel early yesterday morning with a badly fractured skull. He had fallen down the stairs, striking his head on the concrete floor. He recently inherited a sum of money from the old country. It was only this week that a bartender, Angus McLean, broke his leg in the same stairway.

Frauds Exceed $1,000,000.

Washington, Nov. 25.—An announcement on the arrest on Wednesday by post-office inspectors of John W. Knight, senior member of the Cotton Brokerage firm of Knight, Yancey & Co., New York, has caused considerable interest. It is thought that the operation in which he says that the operation of this concern through the alleged fraudulent use of the mails would doubtless exceed a million dollars.

First Power at Port Arthur.

Port Arthur, Nov. 25.—First power to be received by Port Arthur through the new submarine cable system, constructed by the Hydro-Electric Commission, came yesterday from Kakabeka Falls. Six hundred horse-power temporary supply was turned on to the lighting system, making a material improvement. About Dec. 15 power will be coming from the same source for all municipal franchises.

Imperial Trade Correspondents.

Calgary, Alta., Nov. 25.—Mr. Richard Griggs, his Majesty's trade commissioner to Canada, has been in Calgary for the last few days making inquiries with a view to the nomination of imperial trade correspondents for Calgary, Edmonton and Regina, which will place these cities on a par with the larger and older cities of Canada.

Boy Scouts for Coronation.

Montreal, Nov. 25.—It was announced at a dinner of the boy scouts that it had been decided to send a squad of the Montreal scouts to the coronation in June next. This will be done through the kindness of Lieut.-Col. J. H. Burland, who has recently been appointed to the command of the brigade in this district.

Ex-Customs Collector Dead.

Brantford, Nov. 25.—Thomas Foster, recently superannuated as collector of customs in this city, died here Wednesday night from a lingering malady. The deceased has been prominently connected with local business interests prior to his appointment here, and was one of Brantford's best known citizens.

Hanged Himself.

Quebec, Nov. 25.—A barber named Bedard, was discovered yesterday morning hanging to the ceiling of his room, by his leather belt, which he had fixed on a hook and tied around his neck. He had been suffering for some days with delirium tremens.

Shot Himself.

St. Thomas, Nov. 25.—Arthur Brown, a well-to-do farmer, who resides near here, was found by his son in a dying condition in a cowshed. He had shot himself.

Want British Warship.

Washington, D.C., Nov. 24.—The Progressive Union of New Orleans has requested the British Embassy to have a British warship detailed to attend the annual Mardi Gras carnival in New Orleans, La., Feb. 23 to 25, 1911.

TO HAVE PAROLE SYSTEM.

Hon. Mr. Hanna to Have Central Prison Board.

PAROLE BOARD TO BE CONSTITUTED

Toronto, Nov. 25.—A parole board is to be constituted in connection with the new Central Prison at Guelph, and while the personnel of the board has been decided upon by the Provincial Secretary, he prefers not to make the names public until they have been consulted and have consented to act.

"The work will involve some time in any sense a transfer of the function of the Department of Justice to the parole board, but simply leaves the Department to act on recommendations that the board may make. Should these recommendations be made only after the care and consideration that I expect will be given them, they will generally, no doubt, be adopted at Ottawa."

To Test the Feeling.

Montreal, Nov. 25.—It is now stated that the pro-navy demonstration in St. Johns on Saturday indicates that another test is to be made in this province as to public opinion on the popularity of the Ministerial measure, which brought such signal disaster to the administration in Drummond and Arthabaska.

The story goes in political circles that Recorder Dupuis will be retired on account of ill-health, and that Joe Demers, M.P. for St. John's, Irvellville, will be appointed in his place, and that one more county will be asked in the very near future to pronounce itself upon the wisdom of the Ministerial policy, the gathering in St. John's on Saturday being but the prelude of the campaign.

The Government supporters claim that Mr. Bourassa will be absent, and that, without his vote, the verdict of Drummond and Arthabaska cannot be repeated.

It is also said that other judicial appointments may be made in the near future, although the temper of the electorate just now will prevent members of Parliament in any great number from donning the ermine before the general election, but it is said that C. A. Wilson, M.P. for Laval, may be appointed to the position held by the late Judge Piche, and that the Government candidate in Laval will be Mr. David, who defeated the Liberal candidate in the night of the Laurier demonstration in the Monument Nationale.

Mrs. Sage Builds Model City.

New York, Nov. 25.—The preliminary plans for the Russell Sage foundation, established by Mrs. Sage, as a memorial to her husband, for the establishment of a model suburban city, providing healthy and beautiful homes for persons of moderate means, were announced yesterday. Briefly the project is to utilize a tract of 142 acres of land at Forest Hills Gardens, Long Island, nine miles from this city, in laying out a town for 1,500 families. The initial financial expenditures for the purpose, it is announced, is made plain that the enterprise is not a charity, but is to be made self-supporting and yield a fair return on the investment. Its purpose, rather, is to enable persons in moderate circumstances to own their own homes at a minimum cost, while obtaining buildings of better construction than the average individual could erect, and amid surroundings and under conditions that will make the little city an ideal residence place. The minimum cost of paying for a home there, it is estimated, will be $25 a month, including principal and interest.

Evangelical Alliance.

London, Nov. 25.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—At a meeting of the Evangelical Alliance Archdeacon Madden and Rev. George Hanson gave vivid descriptions of their tour of Canada. Archdeacon Madden said the Dominion is determined to have a Canadian Evangelical Alliance, and he believed the best thing to do was to fall in with the scheme put forward at Halifax and Toronto for an alliance, with headquarters in Toronto, employing a travelling secretary.

Cheaper Cables.

London, Nov. 25.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—The Postmaster-General, speaking at a banquet in honor of Henniker Heaton, said the chief cable companies are ready to adopt a system of accepting deferred telegrams and non-urgent telegrams at half rate. It is now charged that no effort will be left unmade to carry into effect the reforms which he means to make for drawing closer the bonds of imperial unity.

Gave Himself Up.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nov. 25.—Peter Napolitano, Italian, who stabbed his wife Sunday night in a fit of jealousy, upon returning home and finding her entertaining male friends, and who afterwards escaped to the woods, has given himself up and is confined at the jail. His victim is in a precarious condition.

Struck by Yard Engine.

Sault Ste. Marie, Nov. 25.—William Jukes, 40 years of age, married, foreman of a section gang, was perhaps fatally injured in the C.P.R. yards at noon yesterday by being struck by a yard engine. Six ribs were broken and he sustained other serious internal injuries.

Struck With Piece of Wood.

Chatham, Nov. 25.—Newton J. Miller, an employee of the Chatham Auto Top Factory, was seriously injured yesterday by being struck in the abdomen by a piece of wood. He is now in the hospital in a very serious condition.