BUSINESS SECTION OF TOWN BURNED

DAMAGES ESTIMATED AT OVER HALF A MILLION

Big Blaze at New Milford, Connecticut—Many Stores, Banks and Hotels Destroyed.

Danbury, Conn., May 6.—Between $500,000 and $600,000 is the latest estimate of the loss by fire which destroyed the business section of New Milford, 16 miles north of here, last night.

A message asking for aid from this city was received here at 9 o'clock, but soon afterward all communication with New Milford was cut off.

The fire spread to the office of the Y. M. C. A. building on Main street, destroying both. The fire was under control at 4 o'clock this morning, but still burning in many places.

MILLS FOR NORTH.

Letters, Etc., Will Be Accepted For Transmission By White Pass Road at Once.

Ottawa, May 6.—The postmaster-general will notify to-morrow all post offices in Canada that all mail matter will be accepted for Dawson and places along the route by the White Pass railway at once.

Good progress was made with supplementaries to-day, but it is not likely that proposition can be resumed on Saturday, although efforts are being made to do so.

Honorable Doctor Borden, on militia items, said that the cavalry and artillery would be drilled this year the same as usual, also the city corps, but all June camps might not be held.

REVOLUTION BREWING.

Critical Condition of Affairs in Portugal—Regiment of Infantry Disbanded.

London, May 6.—A dispatch to a news agency from Madrid says that advice received there from Portugal indicate that there is danger of an actual revolution in that country.

ARCHBISHOP'S DEATH.

Rome, May 6.—The Pope was greatly distressed when he learned of the death of Archbishop Corrigan, of New York.

OVER ONE HUNDRED TAKEN LAST WEEK

MILITARY OPERATIONS STILL IN PROGRESS

The Boer Leaders Are Free to Visit the Various Commands—Lord Kitchener's Report.

London, May 6.—Lord Kitchener's weekly report dated from Pretoria yesterday shows that the peace movement is not allowed to interfere with military operations except so far as to permit of unrestrained meetings between leaders and Boer force commands.

The week's Boer casualties were 10 men killed and 122 made prisoners. General Hamilton's column captured 57 men of the Heilbron-Orange River Colony line.

F. BRET HARTE DIES SUDDENLY LAST NIGHT

The Well-Known Writer, Author of "The Luck of Roaring Camp," Passes Away.

London, May 6.—F. Bret Harte, the American author, died suddenly last night at the Red House, Camberley, near Aldershot, from hemorrhage, caused by an affection of the throat.

He was born at Albany, N. Y., on August 23rd, 1839. Mr. Harte had been living quietly in England for years. Most of his time was spent in the country and when in London he was almost equally secluded, having few visitors at the Red House.

NEW YORK FAILURES.

Petition Filed Asking For Receiver For Offenbach & Moore.

New York, May 6.—There was not much evidence in Wall street this morning of the disturbed conditions of yesterday. There was steady general movement that the worst was known of the losses of the Webb-Meyer exchange house which suspended yesterday.

A petition in voluntary bankruptcy was filed to-day in the United States district court against Offenbach & Moore.

WILL BE APPRECIATED.

Collector of Customs Instructs Officers to Show More Consideration to Passengers.

New York, May 6.—Collector of Customs Strahan, in an address to the entire force of customs inspectors, who assembled at the barge office to meet him, has told the inspectors that trans-Atlantic voyagers must in future be treated with more consideration.

SEATS ON SALE AT TEN SHILLINGS EACH

Ottawa, May 7.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier has received the following cable from Lord Strathcona: "The colonial office have placed six hundred seats at my disposal for the coronation and Royal procession on June 26th and 27th. The price of tickets is about ten shillings each day. Please give publicity to the statement so persons wishing to have their names recorded may write me at once giving particulars and stating whether tickets are desired for one day or both. If the applications exceed the number of seats I must resort to ballot and no definite promises are yet possible. Seats will be allotted at the end of the month, and any not taken up and paid for by June 20th will be re-allocated. Reply. (Signed) Strathcona."

COURT HOUSE AT NELSON CONDEMNED

Strong Remarks by Mr. Justice Martin—Sheriff Instructed to Provide Suitable Quarters for Grand Jury.

Nelson, May 6.—The Court of Assize opened today before Mr. Justice Martin was one of the people of Nelson who have cause to remember. Interest in the proceedings centered in the address of His Lordship to the grand jury. He condemned the court house as it is, and exhorted the citizens to stir themselves to get a new court house or cease to be the judicial centre. Every grand jury for a number of years had condemned the present court house, and there was no question about the lack of accommodation. Witnesses had to sit on the sidewalk and steps of the court house.

ARRIVED FROM NORTH.

Captain of Seattle Schooner Chitco Lands at Vancouver.

Vancouver, May 7.—Steamers Dolphin and City of Seattle completed the round trip race this morning, arriving from Skagway, the latter at 6 o'clock and her rival four hours later. The Dolphin won by five minutes the Skagway, but the Seattle defeated the Dolphin on the way down.

SAIDSBURY'S SPEECH

At Annual Grand Habitation of the Primrose League.

London, May 7.—The Premier, Lord Salisbury, as president of the annual Grand Habitation of the Primrose League, at Albert Hall this afternoon, spoke to an immense audience in a much less pessimistic vein than when he was last time heard in public. He congratulated the league on the staunch support given to the Conservative government, one result of which was that Great Britain was now supreme in Egypt, while with regard to Ireland the country need no longer fear the "insane suicidal projects of Imperial disruption supported by many of the opposition statesmen."

COMING FIGHT.

San Francisco, May 7.—A fight to a finish has been arranged in this city between Jack Root and George Gardner, the middleweight boxer. The men are to meet in Nevada on a day between the second and sixth of July. A $5,000 purse is to be divided, 75 per cent to the winner and 25 per cent to the loser.

ALLEGED KIDNAPING.

Columbus, Ohio, May 7.—Governor Nash decided last night, upon the request of the Cincinnati authorities, to issue a warrant for the extradition of Clara Taylor from Italy, where she has been located with her little niece, Margaret Taylor. She will be charged with kidnaping.

THE FORESTERS.

San Francisco, May 7.—The supreme court of the Independent Order of Foresters formally closed its session, began in Los Angeles, by installing the officers-elect in this city. The report of the committee on "state of the order" showed it to be in a very prosperous condition.
