

Grand Representatives: Baker, Belz, Davidson, Hall, Hetherington, Jørgenson, King, Lumsden, Lindsay, Macleod, Mapledoram, Murdoch, MacDonald, McNaughton, Neal, Pyke, Paul, Rhycard, Robertson, Stewart, Smith, Van Tuyl, Wallis, and Past Grand Chancellor Gardner.

Representative Neal, of No. 16, offered the following resolution, which was adopted :—

Resolved, That a Special Committee be appointed to draft suitable resolutions of thanks and appreciation for the courtesy and hospitality extended to the Grand Lodge by the members of the city lodges and the citizens of London.

The Grand Chancellor appointed Past Grand Chancellor Vale, Grand Master of Exchequer Peace, and Representative Robertson, of No. 12, as such Special Committee.

Representative King, of No. 25, moved a vote of thanks to Past Grand Chancellor Vale, for his services as Official Reporter, which was unanimously adopted.

Past Grand Chancellor Vale acknowledged the vote in a few well chosen remarks.

Supreme Representative King, of No. 25, presented the following Report, which was adopted :—

REPORT OF THE SUPREME REPRESENTATIVES.

Your Supreme Representatives beg leave to report that they furnished a full report of the proceedings of the last session of the Supreme Lodge to the Grand Chancellor shortly after their return home, and that it having been printed in the Journal of Proceedings of the last session of this Grand Lodge, anything further than a formal announcement of that fact is unnecessary.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN S. KING, M.D.
A. J. RATTRAY.
Supreme Representatives.

The Grand Lodge then held a Secret Session which lasted over two hours, during which Supreme Representative King fully exemplified the ritualistic work of the Order.

Regular business having been resumed, Past Grand Chancellor Vale from the Special Committee on "Thanks," presented the following Report, which was adopted :—
