SPORTING MATTERS THE ALGONQUIN CLUB.

At a meeting of the Algonquin Club last evening a committee composed of Chas MacIntyre, John Scott and A. W. Thorne was appointed to look after track sports. It was also decided that if any more indoor meets are held, the Algonquins would be represented.

ON THE ALLEYS VETERAN BOWLER WON.

Edgar Cowan, a veteran of seventy years, won the prize for the highest average in the alley on last night at Black's alleys, and took home a nice fountain pen with him.

THE RING JOHNSON WON AGAIN.

MELBOURNE, Australia, March 4.—"Jack" Johnson, the colored American heavyweight champion, fought here today with Lang, a Victorian pugilist and easily defeated him in the ninth round. The fight was witnessed by 15,000 spectators.

THOMAS VS. MELODY. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 6.—Joe Thomas, of California, had a slight advantage over William Melody, of Charleston, Mass., in their six-round bout before the National A. C. tonight. Thomas dropped Melody in the opening round with a left to the chin, but the latter was quickly on his feet and rushed to a clinch. The fight was unsatisfactory because of the almost continuous clinching of both fighters.

HOCKEY. PASSENGER DEPT. WON.

The first game of hockey between the Passenger Department of the C. P. R. and the Telegraphers' team was played on the Marathon ice last evening, and proved most interesting, ending in a victory for the former team with the close score of 4 to 2.

MARATHONS BEATEN. Two interesting games of hockey were played in the Marathon rink last evening, when the Marathon city league team was taken into camp by the St. Joseph's team to the tune of 5 to 3, and the Beavers defeated the Bankers by a score of 6 to 0.

CURLING. C. A. COSTER WON.

In the Carleton Curling Rink Tuesday evening, C. A. Coster won the trophy in the points competition with an aggregate score of 86. Mr. Coster's first score of 40 was very large. His other scores were 27 and 19. The highest score on Tuesday night was 21.

MONCTON CURLERS AFTER McLELLAN CUP. Three rinks of Moncton curlers are expected in St. John on Saturday to play the "Circles" for the McLehlan cup. The skips elected for the matches by the visiting club are E. H. Allen, George W. Maddison and W. N. Rippey.

MONCTON DEFEATS AMHERST. MONCTON, March 6.—In a four rink match here this afternoon the Moncton curlers defeated Amherst by a narrow margin—seven shots. Score by skips: Moncton: J. Edvard, 13; C. C. Black, 15; C. H. Mitchell, 18; R. C. Fuller, 8; J. M. D. Cooke, 16. W. P. Hammaurice 15; G. W. Maddison, 19; J. Lawlor, skip, 10; skip, 13; Peter Archibald, skip, 17; skip, 17; Arthur Johnston, R. A. Snowball, skip, 10; skip, 7.

QUEEN'S CARNIVAL. The carnival in the Queen's rink last evening was noticeable for many excellent costumes. Perhaps the most attractive of them was worn by Mrs. W. Carnell, who represented the Easter millinery opening. The idea was most uniquely contrived and the air ship she carried was a masterpiece of work.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., March 5.—The annual meeting of the golf club was held on Monday evening in the armory. There was a very large attendance. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: G. H. Harrison, House Committee—G. H. Harrison, C. D. Richards and Miss B. K. Diblee. General Club Committee—The officers are Dr. R. F. Sprague, A. D. Holyoke, Rev. G. D. Ireland, R. N. Loane, Mrs. A. B. Connell, Mrs. J. S. Creighton and Mrs. T. P. Sprague.

WANDERERS WILL GO WEST. MONTREAL, March 7.—The Wanderers will go west for the cup. As Brandon and Kenora are both in the race, the Kenora cannot be played till the 16th. The Wanderers will leave Friday and play several exhibition matches on the way west at Peterboro, Toronto and Berlin, and others to be arranged. The western championship will be decided March 16. Last evening the Wanderers defeated the Shamrocks 16 to 5.

A SURE WAY. First Author—Oh, the unutterable monotony of existence! I am thoroughly disgusted with it. Would that I might completely disappear for awhile. Second Author—Then why don't you marry a famous woman?—Judge.

Foreign Ports. VERMONT IS STRONGLY IN FAVOR OF TEMPERANCE. BURLINGTON, Vt., March 5.—A constitutional election against the liquor sale which has been a marked feature of the March elections in Vermont since the prohibitory law was passed four years ago, was again manifested today, less than thirty towns and cities voting in favor of license. In the elections held a month after the repeal of the law, in 1902, twenty-two cities and towns voted in favor of license. In 1904, the number was reduced to 49; in 1905 to 36; in 1906 to 27, and according to returns received at a late hour tonight, only two cities and 23 towns were recorded as favoring the sale of liquor during the coming year. Of 203 out of 246 cities and towns heard from, 25 voted for license. The missing places are small and usually vote "no."

Foreign Ports. An attractive and unusual display is made in one of P. A. Dykeman & Co.'s windows on Charlotte street. A lot of children's and ladies' dresses made from tissue paper, complete with every detail and having the same fit and appearance as if made from cloth are shown on forms. This display is made to show what can be accomplished with the use of Standard patterns. If such attractive dresses can be made from tissue paper cut from these patterns every detail can be accomplished if the dresses are cut from woven materials?

Foreign Ports. The sale of corsets and waists at M. R. A.'s, Ltd., which commenced yesterday is being continued today, and will go on again Friday. It is a genuine clearance of odd sizes in all reliable makes of corsets and waists, and affords a most unusual opportunity to secure every day necessities at prices that heretofore did not exist.

Foreign Ports. BRIGIDIER and Mrs. Turner, Major and Mrs. Phillips, Capt. Bruce, Capt. March, Ensign Cornish and wife, Capt. Princes, Ensign Hodson, Capt. Caveney and Ensign Martin of the Salvation Army here left last evening for Toronto, to attend the great annual congress. Six more local officers will leave this evening for the same destination. They will be absent about a fortnight. On their way home they will spend Sunday at Montreal at the time of General Booth's visit to that city.

Foreign Ports. MRS. HENRY R. BAIRD. Mrs. Henry R. Baird died at the residence of her son, Harry D. Baird, on Friday afternoon at the age of 64 years. Mrs. Baird, who was Miss Augusta Drake, was born in Fredericton. After her marriage with Mr. Baird they moved to Florenceville where Mr. Baird conducted a drug store a few years ago and was born in Southampton about 1851 and spent the rest of his life there. Her husband pre-deceased her about twenty years ago. She leaves one son, Harry D. Baird, of Woodstock and five daughters, Mrs. Ople, of Bathurst, Mrs. (Dr.) Mann, of Houlton and Miss Louise and Miss Jennie, musicians of Boston, and Miss Millie, a trained nurse of Boston. LOCAL NEWS. The regular monthly meeting of the Home for Incurables was held yesterday. One boy patient was admitted, the vacancy having been created by the death of Mrs. Graham. Both wards are now full.

LOCAL NEWS. Another cooking accident occurred on Miller's Hill, in the West end, last evening. Two steds collided, and as a result a boy named Lenihan was somewhat injured, his face being cut. At first it was thought the boy was badly hurt, as the cut bled quite freely, but it was afterwards found that his face was merely scratched. He was able to walk home.

LOCAL NEWS. In the German street Baptist church last evening Dr. O. H. Hay gave a very interesting lecture on some of nature's products. He dealt with the potato especially and showed how the potato ball became practically extinct. The lecture was made more interesting by a number of sketches of the different plants. Rev. Mr. McMaster in a neat speech presented the thanks of the meeting to Dr. Hay.

LOCAL NEWS. Fred W. Sumner intends leaving shortly for England in connection with the negotiations for the sale of the New Brunswick Petroleum Co.'s old field at Memoracook and Dover to an English syndicate. Mr. Sumner is president of the Old Company. Mr. Lodge is the secretary of the company. JOHN R. RONALD. GLASSVILLE, March 5.—On Thursday, Feb. 28th, the community learned with sad surprise of the death of one of its most respected citizens, John R. Ronald. For a few days Mr. Ronald had been confined to the house from an attack of la grippe, but nothing serious was thought of until a day or two before he died. Mr. Ronald was born in Cummock, Ayrshire, Scotland. After coming to this country he lived for some time in St. John, settling in Glassville in the early sixties, a year or two after the Glass colony. With the sturdy men of his generation he shared the arduous toil of carving out a comfortable home for himself and his family from the "forest primeval."

THE sons of Scotland who began life in this new land with himself are passing away one by one. He was a man of sterling integrity. The large number of people from far and near who attended his funeral testified to the esteem in which he was held by all who knew him. All felt that a good man, a tried friend had gone. He was buried in the Presbyterian cemetery at Glassville, Rev. J. H. A. Anderson of Presque Isle officiating at the service. He was twice married and leaves a widow, four sons and one daughter, brothers and sisters in Scotland and Australia. He was 68 years of age.
