Funeral Service of Dr. R. Woodbury

INTERMENT AT MIDDLETON — QUIET SERVICE, ATTENDED BY RELATIVES AND FRIENDS.

Halifax, Oct. 23 — Impressive, though quiet and simple in its details was the funeral service held at the late home of Dr. Ralph Woodbury, 228 Robie Street last evening. The body will be forwarded to Middleton this morning, where interment will take place.

Rev. H. B. Clarke, pastor of the United Methodist Church, of which Dr. Woodbury was a devoted member and officer, will accompany the body to Middleton and will assist in the burial services.

In accordance with the wish of Dr. Woodbury, the service at his residence last evening was very quiet and simple and was attended by only his immediate family, relatives and intimate friends.

The service was opened with the singing of "Abide With Me," followed by the reading of the 91st Psalm by Rev. Robert McArthur. A passage from Corinthians 1 and 15, was then read by Rev. A. B. Higgins. "Peace, Perfect, Peace," the favorite hymn of Dr. Woodbury, was sung by Mrs. H. W. MacGregor after which Rev. H. B. Clarke offered prayer. The service was brought to a close with the singing of "When On My Day of Life the Night is Falling" and the Benediction, which was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Higgins.

The floral tributes received at the home yesterday including those of individual friends and from organizations in many parts of the province, were both numerous and beautiful. The collection includes a standing wreath of rose chrysanthemums from the Young Men's Liberal Association and a wreath from the dental students at Dalhousie University.

SMITH-DAINELS

Lawrencetown, Oct. 23—The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Daniels Lawrencetown, of their daughter, Eva Odessa to Joseph Norman Smith of Hampton, N. B. Rev. Arthur H. Whitman, pastor of the Lawrencetown United Baptist Church, officiating.

At 9.30 a.m., to the strains of the bridal chorus of Lohengrin, played by Mrs. A. H. Whitman, the contracting parties entered the parlor and took their positions under an arch of autumn leaves.

The little flower girl, Evelyn Whitman, niece of the bride preceded the bride part, scattering roses in the path of the bride.

The bride wore a gown of soft grey Canton crepe, embroidered with pink and gold, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and maiden hair ferns. Her going away dress was of navy pique twill, with hat to match. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the happy couple were present. The gifts consisted of silver, crystal, linen and several substantial cheques.

After a wedding repast Mr. and Mrs. Smith motored to Digby, where they embarked for St. John, enroute to their future home in Hampton, N. B.

FRIENDSHIP

Much of the so-called friendship of the day is but pretense. It exists only in name and as soon as it ceases to be advantageous it is dropped. The friendship that continues the same in prosperity and adversity is to be prized, but all other kinds are worthless. It matters not how hard a man may struggle to do right and make a success of life there is always some loathsome reptile, some worthless wretch who is ready to drag him down, to blight his hopes and blast his fondest ambitions. The loss of money and property isn't the greatest loss a man can sustain in the business world; far better to lose your money than to lose hope and ambition.

Guard The Children

From Autumn Colds

The Fall is the most severe season of the year for colds—one day is warm, the next cold and wet, and unless the mother is on her guard, the little ones are seized with colds that may hang on all winter. Baby's Own Tablets are mother's best friend in preventing or banishing colds. They act as a gentle laxative, keeping the bowels and stomach free and sweet. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent colds, or if it does come on suddenly their prompt use will relieve the baby. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cts, a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

Johnny had used some unparliamentary language, much to his mother's distress. "Johnny," she cried, "do stop using such dreadful expressions. I can't imagine where you pick them up."

"Well, mother," replied Johnny, "Shakespeare uses them."

"Then don't play with him again," commanded his mother; "he's not a fit companion for you, I'm sure."

"Child's Eyelids Inflamed Stuck Together and Bled"

Mr. E. P. Kimball, Estherville, Alta., writes:

"Our little girl from birth was troubled with inflamed eyelids and in spite of several remedies, grew worse until at the age of sixteen months her eyes could not be opened after sleep without bleeding, a waxy discharge sticking the lids together and adhering with great tenacity. The child's grandmothers were consulted by mail, and both responded with a little sample box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. These were used as directed, and lasted until we could obtain a further supply from Edmonton. Improvement was very marked from the first application. The waxy discharge was easier removed and did not reappear. Inflammation subsided and has not returned."
