Miss Lillian Owens returned to Hamilton on Saturday.

Miss Alena Telfer was called home from Port Huron owing to the illness of her sister, Miss Elsie Telfer and Mrs. Ryevecraft. We are glad to note both are getting better.

Following are the officers of the village for 1922: Clerk, A. L. Tucker; treasurer, D. Stalker; collector, Amos Fennell; assessor, J. P. McVicar; medical officer of health, Dr. Owens; member of board of health, F. McRae; auditors, Elmer Connelly and George Clements; caretaker of town hall, nuisance inspector and black knot inspector, Ed. Leech; fence-viewers, F. McRae, Chas. Fennell and E. Connelly; pound-keeper, Wm. J. Armstrong; sheep valuator, Chas. Fennell.

John Moran has started buying grain at North Newbury.

The Women's Missionary Society held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Bayne. The president being unable to be present, Mrs. J. Bayne presided. The meeting opened with the usual devotional exercises. After plans were made for the year Mrs. Farquharson gave a very interesting address on Korea. The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer. The hostess served a dainty lunch and a pleasant hour was spent.

Don't Submit to Asthma. If you suffer without hope of breaking the chains which bind you, do not put off another day the purchase of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Remedy. A trial will drive away all doubt as to its efficiency. The relief that comes will convince you more than anything that can be written. When help is so near, why suffer? This remedy is sold by dealers everywhere.

MELBOURNE

Rev. J. N. Norion of London, Field Secretary of the Christian Men's Association of Canada, will speak in Guthrie Presbyterian church next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Robert Hardy has sold his farm which he recently purchased from David Williamson to Geo. Seabourne.

The district president and staff from Anna Rebekah Lodge visited Irene Lodge at Kerwood and installed the officers there for the coming term.

The cold snap was welcomed by our young people, who hustled to the pond to get things ready for a good game of hockey. Skating is now the order of the day, many enjoying the afternoon, while others take advantage of the delightful moonlight nights.

Dr. R. D. Dewar has been confined to his bed for about a week. Although improving, he is not able to attend to his practice yet.

S. Hyatt, D.D.G.M., and a number from Mount Brydges Lodge, visited the I. O. O. F. Lodge here on Friday evening. After the regular meeting a social time was spent and supper was served by the members of Melbourne Lodge.

STRATHBURN

The U. F. O. had a pleasant gathering at Bert Simpson's last Friday evening.

Quite a number from here attended a party at Joe Walker's last week and report a good time.

Frank Copeland has moved into his new home.

Clare Treastin is busy sawing with his Fordson.

The ice harvesting is in full away. The ice is ten inches thick and of good quality.

The congregational meeting held in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening was well attended and the business of the past year was reviewed and reports received from the various organizations of the church. The secretary reported a fairly successful year financially, although the books showed a deficit, partly owing to the extra expense incurred and also to a number not having paid up their usual contribution when the books were audited. Lunch was served by the ladies at the close of the meeting.

A meeting of the ratepayers of School Sections Nos. 4, 6 and 13 of Ekfrid township will be held in the town hall, Appin, on Monday evening, Jan. 23, to discuss the matter of providing a continuation school, or other means requisite to providing for the education of the pupils of these sections who come within the application of the compulsory school attendance and adolescent school acts.

Its Quality Sells It.—The fact that so many thousands of intelligent people continue to use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil speaks volumes for its healing efficiency. Ever since it was first introduced it has grown steadily in public favor, owing entirely to its manifold usefulness in relieving and healing sickness. As a specific for cuts, burns, scalds and various inflammatory pains its record is beyond reproach.

SOUTH EKFRID

The next meeting of the South Ekfrid literary society will be held on Friday evening, Jan. 20, when D. A. Debie will give a report of the annual U. F. O. convention at Toronto. There will also be a good musical program.

IN THE ESTATE OF MARY MCKELLAR, DECEASED

The undersigned Executor of the Estate of Mary McKellar, deceased, offers for sale her farm, containing seventy acres, more or less, and being the south-westerly half of Lot Gore, in the Township of Aldborough (Eastern Division), in the County of Elgin, save and except the south-easterly thirty acres thereof heretofore conveyed to one Hugh McColl by deed dated April 14th, 1874. An excellent, well-improved farm.

Sealed tenders for the purchase of the same will be received on or before Jan. 25th, 1922, by J. D. Shaw, 384 Talbot street, St. Thomas, Ont.

Solicitor for the said Executor, or the said tenders may be left at my Rodney office.

The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.—Possession given March 2nd, 1922.

Dated at St. Thomas this 31st day of December, A. D. 1921.

J. D. SHAW, 384 Talbot street, St. Thomas, Solicitor for John McLeod, Executor of the said Estate.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

IN THE MATTER OF THE Estate of John Malcolm McPherson, late of the Township of Mosa, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, Deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to "The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1914, Chapter 121, Section 56," that all Creditors and others having claims against the Estate of the said John Malcolm McPherson, who died on or about the Twenty-eighth day of May, A. D. 1921, are required to send by post prepaid or to deliver to the undersigned, Solicitors for John C. Elliott and Archibald Graham, Executors of the last Will and Testament of the said John Malcolm McPherson, deceased, their names and addresses and full particulars in writing of their claims and statements of their accounts and the nature of the securities, if any, held by them.

And take notice that after the fifteenth day of February, A. D. 1922, the said John C. Elliott and Archibald Graham will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased among the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which they shall then have had notice, and that the said John C. Elliott and Archibald Graham will not be liable for the said assets or any part thereof to any persons of whose claim they shall not then have received notice.

ELLIOTT & MOSS, Solicitors for the said Executors. DATED at Glencoe this Seventeenth day of January, A. D. 1922.
