Judging from the political complexion of the Middlesex county council-elect for 1919, the Reformers will have the advantage in the election of the warden by a small margin. We are informed that the Grits have a majority of two.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McCallum of Most farmers are preparing to make an extra early start into the spring work. This is good weather in which to look over and put in shape all implements and machinery. Our advertising columns should show you where to buy the necessary repairs and required parts for plows, mowers, etc.

Old-timers are reminded of the days when the forests were being cut to make way for the plough when they see the teaming activity at this railway yard, with several cars being loaded daily with logs. About the only difference is the price paid both for timber and wages—some four times that of fifty years ago.

The death occurred at the home of James W. Abbott, Mossa, on Tuesday morning of Charles W. Carden, aged 24 years, from influenza. The funeral took place from Gough & Son's under-taking parlour on Wednesday morning, service being conducted by Rev. T. J. Charlton. Interment at Oakland cemetery.

The death occurred at the home of William Thompson, Mossa, on Wednesday last of William Muskett, aged 15 years, from influenza. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon to Oakland cemetery. Service was conducted by Rev. G. S. Lloyd. The deceased leaves his father and one brother living in Detroit.

While this mild weather is very easy on the coal pile, it creates a problem for the ice man, who is beginning to think that there will be no ice harvest. February usually provides a couple of weeks of winter weather, and if this year runs true to form in that respect, there should be no lack of good ice for all purposes.

Brakenham Howard A. Macdonald, formerly employed on the Grand Trunk yards in London, is dead of injuries received in the Mount Rose yards at Niagara Falls. Mr. Macdonald's mother resides in London, but was nursing at Dr. Walker's in Glencoe when she received word of the accident which ended in her son's death.

The many friends of Mile. Van den Broek will be pleased to learn that word has been received from her from Brussels, where she has been for the last four years. At the outbreak of the war she was unable to get away owing to illness and so was virtually a prisoner in Brussels during the German occupancy. She is in fairly good health and the many privations she must have endured owing to the high cost of living have not been able to break her old spirit. She writes that she wishes to be remembered especially to those who so kindly thought of her during those long and weary months that are now past.

German Peasants.

In the discussion about the war profiteer, it has probably been overlooked that the greatest profiteers of all, if they could have their way, are in Germany. They are the petty princes, the grand dukes and duk-lets who are eager to be kings of the conquered provinces, and are squabbling among themselves for the Courlands, the Livonias, the Finlands, and even the Roumanias that have fallen to the German "bag."

But, like the frightfulness that never frightens, it is going to be the profiteering that never profits, as the Allies are going to have the say about the matter.

Their Intelligence.

A man in a country village was preparing for his fourth "ditting" in twelve months. The vicar happened to pass, and said, "What, moving again, John?"

"Yes, sir," replied John.

"You are taking your poultry, too, I see. Aren't they getting tired of being moved about?"

"Getting tired! No fear! Why, bless you, sir, they are quite used to it by now. Every time them hens see a furniture van arrive they run into the yard and lie on their backs with their legs in the air, waiting to have them tied."—Tit-Bits.

His Flivver.

Uncle Ezra Shucks says: "Another thing I like about my flivver is that it never knows its trough the way a horse or mule does. An' I don't never have to build a fire under it on a cold mornin' to make it move forward just far enuff ter burn the buggy up."

What She Wanted.

A bright youngster had several clerks in a local grocery guessing the other day when she called for a quarter's worth of hypocrites. Later it was learned that she wished 25 cents' worth of apricots.

Keep Them Smiling

Soldiers Home Coming Campaign

The "Welcome" sign still hangs high on the doors of the Salvation Army Hostels. Help them to keep it there! While our soldiers have need of the comforts—spiritual as well as bodily—DON'T shut the doors in the boys' faces—Keep them smiling!

The Salvation Army appeals for a Million Dollars for the boys who won the victory. This is the first time the Salvation Army has made a general appeal for its work. We urge you now, for the sake of the soldiers, and as a VITAL factor in the solution of Canada's Reconstruction problems, with the Homecoming of her boys, to give and to give liberally!

Our men in Khaki may not all be home for another year.
While there is a company of Canadians in uniform over there or over HERE, there is work for the Salvation Army Lassie.

The weary waiting and the relaxed discipline spell dangers that MUST be guarded against. A happy smile and a comfortable body help to keep trouble at a distance. Do not let the Hostels shut for lack of funds!

The Salvation Army Million Dollar Fund

January 19th to 25th

"First to Serve—Last to Appeal"

A WORD ABOUT THE HOSTELS:—Have you ever been inside a Salvation Army Hostel? If not, ask a returned man about the Hostels in Paris, London, Toronto, Hamilton, or any others that he has stayed in over HERE.

Let HIM tell you about the REAL beds, the home cooking, the fried eggs, and hot coffee—and hot baths. If he knows you very well, he may give you a hint about the spiritual comfort the Salvation Army Lassies give these men far from home and all it means!
