

adian volunteers for active service in South Africa, and for providing as hereinafter mentioned for a fund by way of allowance to such volunteers or their dependents.

“Expenditure” defined.

Equipment, transportation, etc.

Pay up to time of landing in Africa.

Separation allowances.

Difference between Militia pay and Imperial army pay while serving in Africa.

3. The word “expenditure” in this Act includes—

(a) Expenses of every kind in connection with the raising, 5 enrolling, arming, equipping, provisioning, despatching and transporting of the said contingents up to the time of their arrival at the place of debarkation in South Africa;

(b) The payment of the officers, non-commissioned officers and men composing the said contingents up to the time of such 10 debarkation, at the rates authorized by the regulations and orders of the Department of Militia and Defence;

(c) All separation allowances paid to the wives and children of the married non-commissioned officers and men;

(d) The difference between the rates of pay of the officers, 15 non-commissioned officers and men which they receive or are entitled to receive from Her Majesty’s Government during their period of service in South Africa and the rates of pay mentioned in paragraph (b) of this section,—such difference not to be paid to such officers, non-commissioned officers and 20 men, while on such service, but the amount which would be payable to each such officer, non-commissioned officer or man to be placed to his credit and to be applied in such manner as the Governor in Council determines for the benefit of those dependent on him, or, if not so applied, to be paid to him or 25 his representatives at the close of his period of service.