The foregoing is in substance, the answer of the Indians to whom I was instructed to communicate the view taken of the matter by the Department of Justice

I placed the matter before them immediately on receipt of your letter to 8520, and only received their answer yesterday March 24th

I enclose a statement in writing from Shot Sundu, a son of Kokosch a Chippewa who was living at the time the Treaty of 1824 was made, and who is still living on Malpoik Island.

To the Subt General
of Indian Affairs
Ottawa
Canada

I am Sir,
your obt Servant,
Chas McKelvey
Indian Agent
Malpoik Island

Indian Affairs. (RG 10, Volume 2022, File 8520)
