

to which lumbering gives employment. (12) Name some of the uses to which iron is put. (13) Name some industries dependent on the products of the farm. (14) On cattle and sheep. (15) On the fisheries. (16) What do we get from mines? (17) From quarries?

SUGGESTIONS. — (1) Visit the nearest market, and see what articles are brought there for sale. (2) Find out if these articles are for home use or to be sent away. (3) Visit a railway station, and see what natural products are loaded on the cars. (4) Where are these going to? (5) What natural products does the grocer sell? (6) In what form are they; in sacks, or barrels, or boxes, or tins? (7) Is there any factory in your neighborhood? Or a mill of any kind? (8) Where do they get their raw (or natural) material from? (9) Where are the canned fruit, fish, or vegetables prepared that the grocer sells? (10) Which are home products, and which come from other countries? (11) What natural products do you use for food? For clothing? (12) Where does the coal or wood you burn come from? (13) What materials have been used in building the house you live in, and where do these come from? (14) Write a story about a tree, from the time it is growing in the forest till it is used as lumber in building.

X. OUR DOMESTIC ANIMALS

REVIEW QUESTIONS. — (1) What animals are called our domestic animals? (2) Do other countries have the same kind of domestic animals? (3) Where are the great cattle ranches to be found? (4) What animals do our farmers chiefly raise? (5) What animals do we use for drawing loads? (6) Name some of the animals used in other countries. (7) Where is the horse most valuable? The mule or ass? The ox? The elephant? The camel? (8) Where is the dog used for hauling loads? Can you tell why? (9) Why is a camel most useful in the desert? (10) Why is a mule or a burro most useful in the mountains? (11) Why is an elephant best fitted to break through the jungle? (12) What wild animals act as scavengers in some old countries? (13) Name some of them and where they are found.

SUGGESTIONS. — (1) Ask some farmer what breed of cows gives the most milk. (2) From which does he get the richest cream, and