A RIOT IN TITLES.

Elaborate Classification of Rank That Rules in Denmark.

The Danish classification of rank is a very elaborate one, built up of offices, orders, birth and titles, writes J. Brochner in "Danish Life in Town and Country." There are nine classes, which are divided into as many as a dozen subsections, each of which may again comprise a score or two of different titles and offices, yet there was a complaint in one of the Danish papers the other day that it was anything but complete.

Holders of titles have to pay an annual tax ranging from $44.50 in the first class to a miserly $3.33 in the ninth. There are about a score of different titles, several of which are divided into "real" and "others," the "real" being several shades better than the "others."

These titles are always used in conversation, as, for example, "Will not the chamberlain have a cigar?" or "Mr. Chamberlain, will you not have a cigar?" And it requires a fairly clear head and a good memory to give everybody his due in a large party, especially as some of them are decorously long, as, for instance, geheime-conferentsraad.

Then there are ladies, who generally have "inde" (the English "ess") added to their husbands' title or office. A colonel's wife, for instance, is called oberstinde, and the wife of the chamberlain to the king kammerherreinde, and so forth.

But the subtleties of the additional titular address in writing even excel the verbal form. That persons of the first rank are "excellencies" is only natural, but gentlemen of the second class have on documents addressed to them a "high well born" prefixed to their title and name, and those of the third class a "high and well born." I much regret that I cannot explain why the addition of this "and" should somewhat detract from the value of the same words.

Gentlemen of the ninth class are addressed as "well honorable and well bred," which is, I think, almost more than they could expect for their $3.33.

TRY
Kidney-Wort Tablets.

The Only Medicine That Can Revitalize the Kidneys and Restore Health

If you have a pain in the small of the back of a dragging nature, a disordered state of the urine, sometimes pale in color and very copious, at other times high colored and scanty, often with brick colored sediment or with settling, of mucous, offensive and smelling, a feeling of lassitude and general weakness, be assured you are suffering from some form of kidney disease.

Dr. Fettingill's Kidney-Wort Tablets will always banish any of the above mentioned symptoms and restore the weak kidneys to a perfect condition of health. Thousands have been cured and you may share the same blessings. All druggists guarantee Kidney-Wort Tablets. Price 50 cents a bottle or six bottles for $2.50.

A Matter of Time.
"The reason why I quit shaving," said Rivers, "was that I figured up one day the amount of time that it took. I used to spend a little over fifteen minutes every day of my life shaving myself. I found that this used up ten or twelve working days every year, and I decided I simply couldn't afford the time."

"Well," responded Brooks, "you spend at least half an hour three times a day eating your meals. That makes ten and a half hours a week. There are fifty-two weeks in a year. Ten and a half times fifty-two—let me see—is 546. Allowing eight hours to a working day you spend sixty-eight days, or over two months, every year at your meals. Why don't you quit eating?"

How Iron-ox Tablets Cured a Well-Known Guelph Man of Catarrh of the Stomach.

The Guelph Waterproof Clothing Co., Guelph, Ont.

December 12, 1902.

Through your Iron-ox Tablets I have received a great blessing. For years I was troubled with my stomach. I doctored with several good doctors and they told me I had dyspepsia, but I was sure it was not that which ailed me. I could not be cured. It got so bad at last that my stomach had ulcers, and I suffered something awful. Being a commercial traveler I received a box of your Iron-ox Tablets free last winter. I took them right along and I noticed, when away from home and staying at hotels, eating different food, it did not hurt me as it always did before; so when that box was empty I bought two more, and have since had two more, and I must say my stomach is fully restored to its old-time work. I never leave home without a box of Iron-ox Tablets with me, as I believe them to be the best thing for the stomach ever made. I have recommended them to a very great number of people. As I travel from one end of the country to the other I am well known. I am a member of the above firm and do the travelling for them, and everyone that knows how I suffered with my stomach knows the difference now. I would have written sooner, but waited to make sure it was lasting, and I feel sure it is. I must say it is the best remedy I have ever used, and I would not be without it. Hoping your Iron-ox may cure many as it has me, I am yours sincerely,

W. F. PAYNE.

Great Mushroom Garden in France. The strangest of underground worlds in France which I visited was one devoted to the raising of mushrooms. Its limits seemed unbounded, as indeed they were, for it pierced the hillsides in every direction. We entered through an opening under an orchard of cherry trees. During "harvest time" a crop is gathered every twenty-four hours. Three men, with their great baskets, make the rounds of this underground farm every morning, and every day in the year can count on an immense crop, which they ship to the large cities near by and even several miles away. The discolored and inferior mushrooms are sent to the canneries, but for his best growth the producer receives only 20 cents a pound. Scribner's Magazine.

Flamingoes' Tongues. The beastly Vitellius, as Gibbon calls him, spent at least six millions of money on table in as many months. He invented, or his cook invented for him, a dish which he designated "the Shield of Minerva." One of the principal ingredients was flamingoes' tongues, of which both Pilny and Martial speak in encomiastic terms. Dampier says that the flamingoes have "large tongues, and near the root is a piece of fat which is accounted a great dainty." When Captain Owen was surveying the east coast of Africa his sailors shot down hundreds of these beautiful birds in order, with an extravagance worthy of Vitellius, to make a dish of the tongues alone.

Love in Lapland.

In Lapland the crime which, after murder, is punished with the greatest severity is that of marrying a girl against the wishes of her parents. When a suitor makes his appearance he says nothing to the maiden, who often does not know who he is, but her parents inform her that she is sought in marriage. Shortly afterward, on a day appointed, the girl, her parents, friends and suitor all meet together at a feast, and the young man and maiden are placed opposite, so that they can look at each other freely and can talk with comfort. After the meal is over the company repair to an open space, where "the race for a wife" is run. The usual distance is about a quarter of a mile, and the girl is placed a third of the distance from the starting-point. The suitor who may never trouble her again. If, however, he has found favor in her eyes, all she has to do is to lag somewhat in her flight, so that he may overtake her. If she desires to intimate to him that his love for her is returned she may run a little way and then turn with open arms to accept him.

English For French Tongues.

Persons who have worried through a "French Manual" may get some satisfaction from the thought that with their own language they are revenged upon the Parisian. "Methods Avec Prononciation" is a little book which makes straight the way of the English language for French tongues. Does one wish to say, "How is it, miss; one so charming and pretty walking alone?" (which, of course, would be one of the first remarks a French traveler would have occasion to make) it is only necessary to consult the "Non-vettes Methods": "Aou isite, miss; ouenne so tcharrminque annde pretti ouakinnque alaune?" If the traveler goes to the theater the man at the box office may say, "Oul have onli orchestre stails laifte, beute allow me tou rimarque sat se are se best sitce for singneule degentlemene." Evidently "th" is given up as a bad job, and "y" is as difficult for the Frenchman as for the German, though a German manual gives John Bull as "Dschonn Bool."

SUFFERED HALF A LIFE TIME

One More Splendid Cure Credited to Dodd's Kidney Pills

Doctors Said Nicholas Becker Had Gravel or Bright's Disease, or Something Else — Dodd's Kidney Pills Gave Him the Vigor of Early Manhood.

Nicholas Becker, Ont., Sept. 7. (Special) — Nicholas Becker, St. John's, P. O., on the dividing line of Pelham and Thorold Townships, who has been restored to health after twenty-nine years suffering from Kidney Disease has given a statement for publication. It reads:

"I had been a sufferer from Kidney Complaint for twenty-nine years. I had the most distressing Backache, Irritation of the Spine, and Head-aches, coupled at times with an excruciating circular pain about the lower part of the body. What I suffered no pen can describe. Insomnia, too, added its terrors and I was greatly reduced in flesh.

"Three different doctors attended me. One said I had Gravel, another called it Bright's Disease, while the third said I was in a dangerous condition. None of them gave me any permanent help and my friends thought I could not live much longer. At this stage I gave up other treatments and started using Dodd's Kidney Pills. After taking two boxes I found they were helping me and I continued till I had taken sixteen boxes, when I was again enjoying the splendid vigor of earlier manhood."
