E. E. W. MCGAFFEY.

The Rev. R. McNamara was invited to become rector of Gageton, N.B., but has declined. We trust his work in Lindsay and Cameron, etc., may be much blessed of God,

We congratulate our Presbyterian and Methodist friends on the success of their "Twentieth Century Fund." Such liberal giving if done in the right spirit will bring a rich blessing upon the givers.

The Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, of Omeme, was lately married to Miss Hatley, of Orillia, and on Tuesday, Oct. 10th, a reception and welcome was tendered them at Omeme. We wish them both many years of happy usefulness.

Twenty-four were present at the October Young Men's meeting at Mr. Sisson's. Three new members were received, one being Mr. George Irwin, who has just come to Lindsay and whom we welcome to the association and St. Paul's.

The Rev. Septimus Jones, M.A., of Toronto, has kindly consented to give a lecture on Oliver Goldsmith in the school-house on Nov. 20th, under the auspices of the Young Men's Association. He will also give several violin selections. A collection will be taken up for the work of the Y.M.A.

Omeme and Emily parish has lately suffered serious loss through the death first of Mr. Grandy, one of the oldest and most useful members of Christ church, and later of Mrs. McGee, of St. John's church, and Mr. Boates, of St. James' church, Emily. We trust others will be raised up to take their places.
