

inst. for erection of school house. Plans by G. Henderson, architect, Truro.

GRANDMÈRE, QUE.—The Laurentide Paper Co. will increase its capital for the purpose of making certain improvements.

COLLINGWOOD, ONT.—It is reported that a new contract will be let this summer for widening the deep water channel.

ARNPRIOR, ONT.—Ratepayers have petitioned the council to ascertain the cost of operating the waterworks by electricity.

CODDEN, ONT.—The council will issue $5,000 of debentures for new school building and $5,000 for sewers and road improvements.

ST. JOHNS, QUE.—A by-law to raise $4,000, largely for permanent roads and sidewalks, was carried by the ratepayers last week.

PRINCE ALBERT, N. W. T.—The town has offered to contribute $25,000 towards building a bridge across the Saskatchewan river.

WINDSOR MILLS, QUE.—An expert has been engaged to report upon the best means of obtaining electric power and light for the town.

KAMLOOPS, B. C.—The British Columbia Government have chosen a site near here on which to build a consumptive sanatorium.

DENVER, B. C.—The Denver Light & Power Co. has been formed to generate electricity for lighting the towns of New Denver and Silverton.

QUEBEC, QUE.—J. M. Noel, hardware merchant, has purchased property on Champlain street on which to erect a large storage warehouse.

MAGOG, QUE.—It is reported that A. L. Deseve, R. E. Bertrand, and Jos. Gauvin will build summer cottages on the shore of Orford Lake.

STRATFORD, ONT.—William Richardson is about to build a brick and stone barn, 40 x 62 feet, two-stories, cement floors, cost $3,000.

LIVERPOOL, N. S.—Bids received by E. C. Mulhall, Mayor, up to September 4th for purchase of $35,000 4 per cent. thirty-year debentures.

PETERBOROUGH, ONT.—E. G. Patterson, of the Canadian General Electric Company, is taking tenders up to 20th inst. for erection of brick residence.

GLENCOE, ONT.—A by-law to assist W. G. Jeffrey & Co., of North Rose, N. Y., to establish an evaporating factory here will be voted on August 28th.

SMITH'S FALLS, ONT.—Tenders are wanted by August 17th for construction of 14,000 superficial feet of concrete sidewalk. Particulars from Harry Welch, town engineer.

CHESTERVILLE, ONT.—W. B. Lawson will receive bids up to August 25th for the purchase of twenty debentures of the Township of Mountain for the sum of $1,392.46 each.

KINGSVILLE, ONT.—W. A. Smith, town clerk, wants plans and estimates by September 15th for extending intake of waterworks about 1,500 feet into the clear water of Lake Erie.

OWEN SOUND, ONT.—An addition will be built to the Northern Business College.—A. McMillan, implement agent, will erect a two-storey and basement brick implement warehouse.

KINGSTON, ONT.—William Newlands, architect, is taking tenders this week on addition to dry goods store of Crumley Bros.—The agreement entered into with the Bell Telephone Company provides that the company shall expend about $40,000, including $10,000 for a new plant.

MIDDLETON, N. S.—The Valley Telephone Co. have decided to extend the metallic line next year from Middleton to Bridgetown, and to lay a new cable across the Annapolis river.

BURK'S FALLS, ONT.—The by-law to raise $30,000 for establishment of waterworks system was carried on Monday last by a substantial majority. Work will be commenced this fall.

REVELSTOKE, B. C.—Dalton & Eveleigh, architects, of Vancouver, are calling for tenders for construction of brick and stone building in this town for the Imperial Bank of Canada.

ORILLIA, ONT.—The county council at last meeting discussed the proposed steel bridge across the Severn river at Bennetts. Unless the Government shall agree to pay half the cost, which is $5,600, the work may not be undertaken.

NORWAY, ONT.—Tenders will shortly be invited for addition to school house for S. S. No. 20.—At a meeting of York township council last week the question of constructing a waterworks system for this village was discussed.

SUDBURY, ONT.—T. T. Simpson, of Ottawa, has been engaged as consulting engineer for a company which intends developing the water power at McPherson Falls, on the Vermillion River, near here. A large plant will be installed at once.

VICTORIA, B. C.—W. M. Northcott, purchasing agent for the city, will receive tenders up to September 21st for supply of cast iron water pipes.—The plans of F. M. Rattenbury, architect, have been accepted for addition to the Royal Jubilee Hospital.

ST. JOHN, N. B.—Ald. Robinson has given notice of a resolution to issue $41,000 of bonds to pay for the Sand Point repairs and warehouses.—The management of the Opera House has decided to install an electric plant, at a cost of about $12,000.

ALMONTE, ONT.—The electric light committee have submitted to council a report on improvements to power plant. Four plans are suggested, ranging in cost from $5,000 to $25,000 and including the building of a new power house and installation of new dynamos and water wheels.

NORTH VANCOUVER, B. C.—Building operations in this municipality are brisk. A. St. G. Hamersley and A. D. Taylor will each build a new residence.—A. F. Barber & Co. are reported to have purchased a site on which to build a business block, and it is said that they may install an electric light plant.

WINCHESTER, ONT.—James Norman, reeve Roxborough township, will receive tenders up to 17th inst. for construction of the Morrison-Munro drain, the repair of the Fraser drain and the building of two road culverts. The work will cost about $4,000. The engineers are Dunn & Fullerton.

EDMONTON, N. W. T.—Prof. J. H. Riddell, of the Wesleyan College, Winnipeg, was here recently in connection with the proposed new Methodist College. Work on the building will not likely be commenced until next spring.—C. P. R.

Engineers are taking levels for a high level bridge to connect Edmonton and Strathcona.

BRACEBRIDGE, ONT.—George H. O. Thomas is advertising for tenders for erection of R. M. Bionning Memorial Hall.—George W. Ecclestone, hardware merchant, is building a commodious and up-to-date residence on Market street.—Work has been commenced on the new mill of the Dominion Linen Company. The bulk of the stone is on the ground.

BARRIE, ONT.—It is understood that a site has been selected for Grand Trunk car shops to be built here.—Thomas Kennedy, architect, will receive tenders for steam heating the Wellington Hotel up to 20th inst.—The township of Innisfil is offering for sale $3,195 5 per cent. debentures, issued for drainage work. Bids received by Lennox, Cowan & Brown, solicitors, in this town, up to August 22nd.

LONDON, ONT.—W. G. Murray, architect, is preparing plans for alterations to residence on St. James street for Mrs. Rossie and for residence on Oxford street for M. Manley.—Herbert Matthews, architect, has plans in hand for a new residence in Tilsonburg for C. H. Denton, a terrace on Bathurst street for George F. Morris and an egg warehouse on Bathurst street, this city.

SYDNEY, N. S.—The Boston Engineering Co. (A. F. Bremner, manager) will establish a plant here for repairing and construction of marine engines, boilers, etc.—By a large majority the citizens have voted an additional $75,000 for extension of sewerage system.—Rev. D. McAdam, Indian Agent, will receive tenders up to 15th inst. for construction of certain drainage works in the Sydney Indian Reserve.—The Catholic Societies have decided upon the erection of a $35,000 opera house building.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—A stock company, capital $25,000, is about to be formed to erect a new county orange hall, plans for which have been prepared by W. T. Whiteway, architect; estimated cost $20,000.—The St. Paul's Church Building Co., capital $50,000, has been formed to erect a church building for the congregation of St. Paul's Anglican Church in the west end.—Grant & Henderson, architects, have taken tenders on a residence on Nelson street for Dr. Emmons.

OTTAWA, ONT.—It is reported that James A. Corrie, contractor, has purchased the William Howe property on Rideau street, and that E. L. Horwood, architect, has been commissioned to prepare plans for seven-storey brick and stone building to be built thereon.—The City Club has recently been organized and has purchased the house occupied by Dr. D. B. Dowling, corner Metcalf and Slater streets, which will be remodelled.—The following permits were granted last week: Alex. Elliot, brick dwelling, McLaren street, cost $2,500; C. B. Powell, brick addition to residence, Metcalf street, cost $3,000; H. A. Bate, brick addition to shop, Bank street, cost $1,500.—Band, Burritt & Meredith, architects, have been appointed to prepare plans for new Bolton street school.

HAMILTON, ONT.—It is said that the Barton Building Co. will build two hundred houses on property recently acquired in the east end of the city.—

THE HANOVER PORTLAND CEMENT CO. LIMITED

HANOVER, ONTARIO.

Manufacturers of the Celebrated

"SAUCEEN BRAND" of Portland Cement

Prices on Application.