CONDEMNED .- The American schr. "Clara F. Friend," has been enudemned by the Vice Admiralty Court at Charlottetown, P. E. I. FORGERY .- A young lad named Henry Harwy is under arrest for attempting to pass a forged check on the Merchant's Bank, purporting to be signed by Mr. Grant, of the Colonist. The forgery was detected by the Cashier, who ordered the massenger to detain the boy; the latter kicked furiously and made off but was soon overtaken by Mr. Romans, teller of the Bank, and handed over to the Police, Harvey says the form of the check was obtained by boy named Vaughan, in Mr. Grant's employ, and given to a youth named Naufts (at Chipman & Co.'s), who filled it in, and gave it to Harvey to get cashed. Vanghan was in waiting outside the Bank, and when he saw that the other lad had failed in passing the check, he made off dropping into Chipman's on his way to teil Naufits what had happened. The latter asked leave to go home, as "his mother wanted him." Leave was granted, since which time neither he nor Vaughan has been seen. The Police are in search of the young scamps, but up to the present time have not succeeded in catching them. On the 16th of November last, a forged check, for $150, bearing Mr. Grant's name, was presented at the Bank of Nova Scotia, and est cash rates. Advertisers in that city are cashed; but the forgery was not discovered until yesterday, Mr. G. having requested a above houses.
