The Literary Revolution.

To keep in good humor the good people who delight in good books; to wake up the slow bookkeepers who are inclined to go to sleep in the summer, instead of like a possum in the winter; and to prevent our friends, the Cheap Books book publishers, from getting us, we have concluded to publish a few more cheap books. If you do not name him at all, we must, of course, head Shakespeare the list with the immortal Shakespeare, and will give you either his "Merchant of Venice" or "Hamlet," or any one of his fourteen other principal plays, in beautiful type, for 5 cents. At Three Cents, the same price you may have Macaulay's "Life of Frederick the Great," former price $1.25, or Carlyle's "Robert Burns," or Lamarine's "Life of Washington Irving," or Washington Irving's "Manliness of Christ," or Washington Irving's wonderful, delightful, heretofore inaccessible "Sketch Book," which contains the incomparable Rip Van Winkle, you can A Dime. Tom Brown at Rugby, the best boy's book ever written, except Robinson Crusoe, which you can have also, for 10 cents. To charm those who delight in fiction, we give also for 10 cents each, Cooper's "Last of the Mohicans," one of the most justly celebrated American novels, and Charles King's "Hyslop," which is a very front of famous historical fiction. These are only specimens of the cheap books we publish, all in good type, neatly printed, and are not in the broad side or any other "side" or "square" style, but handy pocket volumes, of course in paper binding. Our motto, however, has always been that a book worth reading is worth preserving, as well as worth owning, and our large list of standard books, to which we are making additions, with speed unprecedented in the history of publishing, are all elegantly and strongly bound, in cloth or better style, and so at prices proportionately low with those in paper covers. We issue these few only in pamphlet form, as specimens of the quality of our good literature, and these special terms will not be long continued. 5,000 Booksellers throughout the United States and Canada are prepared to either abundantly supply or liberally slander our publications. We give liberal terms to clubs where no bookseller acts as agent. Descriptive Catalogue, and illustrated pamphlet describing book-making and type-setting by steam, will be sent free, on request. AMERICAN BOOK EXCHANGE, 764 Broadway, New York. JOHN B. ALDEN, Manager.

Revolution Sunday-School Requisites.

ENORMOUS SAVING TO SCHOOLS.

There is usually quite as much money in selling 100,000 copies of a publication at 5c., as 5,000 at 25c., or 500 at $1, and we are quite contented to make prices on this basis. We employ writers and pay for all MSS., using more original matter than any two other publishers in this line, having employed and paid 170 writers during the past year, besides seven editors. Nothing partisan or sectarian admitted.

5c. Library Books.—Ninety-six library books now issued. First 52 are reprints of best books written. Original price, from 60 cents to $2.15, the whole 52 originally costing $57.45. Volumes above No. 52 are written expressly for us. Each book printed without abridgment, in large, clear type, on good paper, bound in pamphlet form, wire stitched, and put up in neatly engraved cover—a different style for each book. Far better for Sunday-school library use than the ordinary; being light and flexible, and wire-stitched, will last three times as long. Being carefully selected beforehand, saves selection books being numbered, and containing descriptive catalogue of the whole, saves numbers, catalogues and labels. A new book coming each week replenishes the library, with little trouble or expense. PRICES, post paid. Five or more books, 6 cents each; 10 or more, 5 cents each; 20 or more, 4 cents each; 30 or more, 3 cents each; 40 or more, 2 cents each; 50 or more, 1 cent each.

5c. Song Books. Books handsomely printed on good paper, in strong, durable cover. Tune combination in each book (except Anthem books), an arrangement whereby pieces can be sung at sight to old tunes if no time to rehearse new ones.

THE LESSON HYMNAL for 1881 (3rd year), 3 original lesson hymns on each lesson of the year—182 pieces in all. 25 or more copies, 5c. ea. (postage extra 1 1/2c. ea.). Specimen copy, postpaid, 10c. PRIMARY SONGS. Word edition, 70 choice songs for Infant Class use; set in very large type and illustrated. 25 or more copies, 5c. each (postage extra 1 1/2c. each). Sample, postpaid, 10c. CHURCH AND PRAYER-MEETING SONGS. For prayer-meeting, congregational singing, etc.; 97 pieces, choicest selection of standard hymns and tunes and popular new pieces. 25 or more copies at 5c. each; (postage extra 1 1/2c. each). Specimen, postpaid, 10c. TEMPERANCE SONGS. For gospel temperance meetings, etc. Eighty pieces. 25 or more copies at 5c. each (postage 1 1/2c. each). Sample, postpaid, 10c. TEMPERANCE ANTHEMS. A new idea, nothing else of the kind in existence. Will insure good music by the choir at temperance meetings. 48 pages of anthems by ablest writers. $1.20 per doz.; postage extra 24c. per doz. Sample, 15c. BAND OF HOPE SONGS, for juvenile temperance societies, etc. 57 choice pieces. 25 or more, 4c. each (postage 1c. each). Specimen, 5c.

Sunday-School Papers. Fifteen different publications. Four monthlies at 5c. a year each, with more and better matter than that of papers costing 12 to 18c., published by others. One infant class weekly, at 6c. a year (nothing else 3c. a year, containing 5 times the matter of papers for which others ask 50c. to 1.00). Specimens free.

Lesson Helps. Such helps as will secure the best possible results from the study of teacher's help and scholar's help in five different grades. Credit for lesson preparation on the day-school plan. The song service of the school utilized in the interest of the lessons, by the introduction of purely lesson songs written expressly for us, and growing out of the lessons. The whole series in perfect keeping. Lesson hymns are arranged to sing at sight (without rehearsal) by the introduction of old and new tune combination. Old hymns also added. Saves cost of song books. Scholars' helps, with music and all, cost but from 44 cents to 11 cents a year. Teachers' helps, 18c. to 30c. a year. Circulation over one million. Sample, etc., free.

25c. Anthem Book. Book of 100 pages, church music size. Choicest pieces, ablest writers. Costs but 23 per dozen copies (postage extra 5c. each). This is a new invasion. Others charge $15 to $24 per doz. for no better anthem book. Specimen copy postpaid, 35 cts.

10c. Teacher's Library. A library of 12 choicest books for teachers, superintendents, and all Christian workers. 5 books now ready. The "Teacher's Bible Dictionary," 512 columns of matter, and nearly 100 engravings—a rare book. The "Compendium of Teaching," nine choice books in one. The Bible in Chains!

A few centuries ago the few Bibles in existence were commonly chained in the churches and accessible only to a few. Those who attempted to free them, translate them, and give them to the people, had the stake and the scaffold for their reward. The Revised Version of the New Testament was completed, printed, and bound months ago in England, but that the English publishers might be able to monopolize its sale, and make a few hundred thousand dollars the more, it was withheld from the public. The Copyright Law in England is such that at least two newspapers, which, by some method, secured copies of portions of it, and published extracts, with comments, were compelled to desist from repetition of the "crime," and to publicly apologize for their "wrong." We are in favor of an equitable international copyright law that will give authors due reward for their labor, but Americans will not care to see such an English law transferred to this country.

On the morning of May 20th the British monopolists unbound the chains. At 6.30 P.M. of the same day our beautiful edition was all in type, and of the various editions of the entire Testament and the Gospels published separately, we shall endeavor to manufacture as many as 50,000 copies a day till the demand for them is met. We have taken pains to make the work typographically one of the most perfect ever published in this country. The type is large and beautiful, nearly double the size of that of the monopolists' cheap edition, at prices low beyond comparison with theirs.

New American copyright index edition. 1 vol. quarto, Popular Edition, cloth, $2.25; postage, 37 cents. Half Russia, sprinkled edges, $2.75; postage, 37 cents. Scholars' Edition, half Turkey, marbled edges, $4.50; postage, 81 cents.

Our new edition of this magnificent work may fairly be called the "Webster's Unabridged of Religious Literature." By its aid the unlearned English reader is given ready access to the information heretofore accessible only to those learned in the Hebrew and Greek languages, or by the aid of expensive and often inaccessible Greek and Hebrew Lexicons and Concordances. In connection with the new version of the Bible, particularly, it proves especially interesting and helpful, giving what no other work supplies, clues to the considerations which have led scholars to make the varying translations which have been given to the world in the centuries past, enabling the intelligent reader in large measure to decide for himself what is the meaning that will best satisfy his own understanding and the demands of his own conscience. Specimen pages sent free on request.

It is the best Concordance extant. It is one of the marvels of the American Book Exchange.—Northwestern Christian Advocate, Syracuse, N. Y.

It is a long way ahead of any work of the kind we have ever seen. It is the cheapest book we ever saw, except the Bible.—Christian Advocate, Charleston, S. C.
