During the cold spell of the past winter a Presbyterian congregation in the neighbourhood gave to the Rev. Dr. A. A. Mackenzie, rector of St. Paul's, Bad Axe, Michigan, a handsome fur-lined coat as a token of their goodwill to him and of their affection of the work he has been doing.

The New Bishop of Hull.—An excellent successor to the late Bishop Blunt as Bishop Suffragan of Hull has been found in the Rev. Canon Kempthorne, who for six years has been Rector of Liverpool. The announcement has been received with genuine satisfaction, though in Liverpool Churchmen and Nonconformists keenly regret his forthcoming departure. Canon Kempthorne's training and wide experience as a parochial clergyman eminently fit him for the responsible post to which he has been called. Graduating from Trinity College, Cambridge, he was ordained in 1890 to the curacy of St. Aidans, Gateshead, where he remained five years, when he accepted the Vicarage of St. Mary's, Rochdale. Five years later, however, he returned to the Durham Diocese as Vicar of St. Thomas, Bishopwearmouth, and Examining Chaplain to Bishop Westcott. Subsequently, he became Rector of Gateshead, and in 1904 he was presented by the Rev. Stephen Gladstone with the Rectory of Liverpool. The Bishop designate is 46 years of age. At Cambridge he was a prominent member of the Church Society and later on he joined the Auckland Brotherhood. It was when he was in South Africa in 1904 taking part in the special Mission there, that he received the offer of the Rectory of Liverpool. Before he took Holy Orders he was for a year an assistant master at Harrow. He was educated at Haileybury School, and from thence won a Foundation Scholarship at Trinity College, Cambridge. In 1883 he won the Abbot Scholarship, and in the following year he took a first-class in the Classical Tripos Part I. Two years later he received honourable mention for the Chancellor's Medal. The Bishop designate's wife is a daughter of Dr. John Peile, Master of Christ's College, Cambridge. He has been appointed vicar of Hessele, Hull, from which he will receive his increase as Bishop-Suffragan of Hull. In accepting the honour conferred upon him Canon Kempthorne is making a considerable pecuniary sacrifice, the net income of the Rectory of Liverpool being £1,080, whilst the net income of the Bishop of Hull by virtue of his being also Vicar of Hessele is £517.
