Power of Dollar is Easily Shown
Keep One Moving and See What It Will Do for Your Community
PAYS MULTITUDE OF DEBTS
When it is Sent out of Town, However, to Pay for What Can Be Bought at Home It Is Gone Forever.
(Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union)
It is a rather wonderful thing, when you stop to think about it, what one lone dollar will do, if it is kept at work. This has been illustrated in a striking manner on several occasions by means of a very simple experiment. If you want to see just how important a role a silver dollar or a dollar bill plays in the life of a community here is the way to do it. Just attach a tag to the dollar and turn it loose, with the request that every person who receives the dollar make a note on the tag as to how he received it. The result will be an eye-opener.
Here is the way it works. Smith, the lumber dealer, who first possesses the dollar, buys some groceries for Brown and pays for them with the dollar. About that time Jones, the plumber, who had done some work for Brown, sends his collector around and Brown pays the bill with this dollar. Jones owes Green, the printer, a small advertising bill, so he sends this dollar with possibly some others to Green to pay his bill. Green had just put the dollar in his cash drawer when in comes Black, the milkman, to whom Green owes a dollar for milk delivered at his house. Green takes the dollar out of his cash drawer and pays Black. For some time Black has owed White, the carpenter, for some work done on his dairy house, so now he takes the dollar that Green has paid him and pays up what he owes White. White still owes for some lumber dealer, so he takes the dollar and squares up his account with Smith. Smith now has his dollar back. Brown has been able to pay his plumbing bill, Jones has squared up with the dairy house, and the dollar has done its work.
