

Baker, the American poet, is about to publish a volume of poems with the title of "The Book of the Dead."

Baltimore, in order to have a world's fair, proposes to celebrate the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus in 1492. There is no end to American ingenuity; but New York and Boston have both failed to secure the world's fair. Will Niagara Falls succeed in now the question asked.

Dear Wilds, the athlete, while in Philadelphia, was accorded a reception by Mr. Davis, breakfasted by Dr. Gross, and dined by W. C. Clark, the proprietor.

A single home in New York deals in artificial flowers to the amount of $5,000,000 a year.

After six years study, a New York artist has succeeded in producing a finely executed life-sized oil painting of a young lady.

The story goes that a young man in Paris was greatly annoyed when a young lady, pointing at a black beetle in the hearth, picked it up and crunched it between her teeth at the same time saying: "They are not nice to look at, but I find them capital for the complexion." The bug was made of gold.

A young lady in Hoboken is so modest that when she went to be vaccinated she refused to roll up her dress, but a doctor at her side, at her request, was a new and expensive one. A number of ladies, however, were less modest, more particular about the seat, when they were vaccinated on the leg.

It would hardly be thought that the author of the famous lines "Hearts resolved and hands prepared. The blessings we enjoy to guard."

was a man of letters, and a well-known reclining of men. It is recorded in his history, that he, Spaulding, wrote to Earl Selbourn in 1848, and that he was a member of the Government for his History of England, he would accommodate his politics to the Ministry of the day.

It is said that the publisher of the work has upon the current series of three-line and half paper, the publication, in weekly numbers, to every parish clerk in England, carriage free, with half a crown per volume, and distributed in the pews of the church. This was generally done, the specimens were read in the act of reading, and the result was an immediate sale of 30,000 copies.

It may not be generally known that the portrait of Magna Charta, now in the British Museum was discovered by Sir Robert Cotton in the possession of his tailor while in the act of cutting out a pair of trousers for his customer. Sir Robert paid for the document, and thus saved the world what might have been a lost treasure.

On the 11th of April, 1848, O'Connell, deposed the Duke of Wellington, Sir Robert Peel, Lord Brougham and other members of the House of Lords, and declared that when his Majesty visited the Irish subjects he would be accompanied by a million from one corner of the country to the other.

The inventor of the spinning jenny, James Hargreaves, died worth nearly $400,000.

George Coleman, the dramatist, was introduced by his father to Dr. Johnson, with the remark: "He is a very good fellow, and a very good man." Dr. Johnson, who had never heard of him, said: "This is my son, Dr. Johnson." The great man gravely answered, "I see him, sir, and I have never seen him before."

It is said that a man, who was a member of the House of Commons, was once asked by a friend: "What is the best part of a man's life?" He replied: "The part of a man's life when he is not in the House of Commons."

Madame Dubois, better known as George Sand, was a French novelist and romance writer who began as a newspaper writer on the Paris Gazette. Her husband was her first lover, and she was married to him in conjunction with Jules Sandeau.

The ignorance of some people is strangely illustrated by the following incident. A party of friends were told they were discussing the performance of Richard III. At the Lyceum. "Ah," said one of the party, "I have read of Richard III. I have read of his reign, but I have never seen him."

"Good gracious, that man written another play!"

William Pitt, who was the greatest of English statesmen, was once asked by a friend: "What is the greatest of your achievements?" He replied: "The fact that I have never been a fool."

Dear child of mine, be waken of your warm heart. Hang like ripe clusters of the apricot. Thy blue eyes, gazing, compressed me no; Thou lovest with a shy and serious air. Outspouting only when the moon is hot. 'Tis not my fault, but thine, that thou art not a poet. 'Tis not my fault, but thine, that thou art not a poet."

Pieces of young hair, uncombed by the frost, crowned with a wreath of pale roses, were scattered about the room. "William Pitt was the greatest of English statesmen," said one of the party, "and he was a man of letters."

It is said that a man, who was a member of the House of Commons, was once asked by a friend: "What is the best part of a man's life?" He replied: "The part of a man's life when he is not in the House of Commons."

Madame Dubois, better known as George Sand, was a French novelist and romance writer who began as a newspaper writer on the Paris Gazette. Her husband was her first lover, and she was married to him in conjunction with Jules Sandeau.

The ignorance of some people is strangely illustrated by the following incident. A party of friends were told they were discussing the performance of Richard III. At the Lyceum. "Ah," said one of the party, "I have read of Richard III. I have read of his reign, but I have never seen him."

"Good gracious, that man written another play!"

William Pitt, who was the greatest of English statesmen, was once asked by a friend: "What is the greatest of your achievements?" He replied: "The fact that I have never been a fool."

Dear child of mine, be waken of your warm heart. Hang like ripe clusters of the apricot. Thy blue eyes, gazing, compressed me no; Thou lovest with a shy and serious air. Outspouting only when the moon is hot. 'Tis not my fault, but thine, that thou art not a poet. 'Tis not my fault, but thine, that thou art not a poet."

Pieces of young hair, uncombed by the frost, crowned with a wreath of pale roses, were scattered about the room. "William Pitt was the greatest of English statesmen," said one of the party, "and he was a man of letters."

It is said that a man, who was a member of the House of Commons, was once asked by a friend: "What is the best part of a man's life?" He replied: "The part of a man's life when he is not in the House of Commons."

Madame Dubois, better known as George Sand, was a French novelist and romance writer who began as a newspaper writer on the Paris Gazette. Her husband was her first lover, and she was married to him in conjunction with Jules Sandeau.

The ignorance of some people is strangely illustrated by the following incident. A party of friends were told they were discussing the performance of Richard III. At the Lyceum. "Ah," said one of the party, "I have read of Richard III. I have read of his reign, but I have never seen him."

ABOUT PARAGUAY CHURCHES AND RELIGION.

Putnam county, Mo., has no clergyman. A little Maine girl, on a cold day last week, said: "It's awful cold, I'm degrees below Zion."

True religion ought never to be regarded as the equivalent or synonym of what the child called "a pain in the pinosore." "That by the way."

Emmett, O., is laughing at the diot who broke into a church and busted open a confessional, which had not held a confessor for seven years.

A Baptist minister immersed eleven persons in a pond near Clarksville, Iowa, and was in an out of the stream with each. It was a freezing day and he had much reason for haste.

A Massachusetts parson said "young men who dance will become of later years a very respectable and useful class of men, but they will be a very small class."

Living in the Seventh Presbyterian church last Sunday in New York, who was Miss Mrs. Squire, the kissing revival of the church was a very successful one.

Brooklyn man last Sunday who had just been calling himself a "miserable sinner" was seen at church and knocked a man down for calling him the same thing.

On Sunday last, Rev. Mr. Fongoly, Baptist minister, preached at the church in New York. He maintained that future punishment is a burning conscience, aroused by Almighty God, and that it is not to be feared.

Two clergymen of Annapolis, Va., went into court with their dispute to the effect of a $3 call. Each owned a cow which he claimed was the mother of the calf.

There was a great sensation in the Campbell street church on Monday night. Converts being called for. Gen. Abner Buford was among the first to step up and be baptized.

Following is a list of the Spring sittings in the circuits mentioned for 1882:

BOOK CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Burton. Owen Sound, Monday, 27th March. Orangeville, Monday, 3rd April. Watford, Monday, 10th April. Woodstock, Tuesday, 18th April. St. Catharines, Monday, 24th April. Stratford, Tuesday, 24th May.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Patterson. Burlington, Monday, 3rd April. Brantford, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT. The Hon. Mr. Justice Galt. London, Monday, 27th March. St. Thomas, Monday, 3rd April. Chatham, Monday, 10th April. Sandwich, Monday, 17th April. Barrie, Monday, 24th April.

MARRIAGE IN JAPAN.

Marriage in Japan is an institution unknown as a religious sacrament, or a legal contract pronounced or ratified by any civil officer or court.

It is the simplest form of matrimony known in the world. It is a simple ceremony, and is performed in the presence of the parents, or of some other persons.

When the child is born and named in Japan, it is registered in the official register of the town or district. Then the parents, or other persons, take the child to another town or province, and register it there.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

A DAY WITH THE MINISTER ON THE SAFF LOAN.

Rev. Dr. Will Waterhouse is the minister of the Baptist church in the village of Birkenhead, and a local curier he is.

He is the simplest form of matrimony known in the world. It is a simple ceremony, and is performed in the presence of the parents, or of some other persons.

When the child is born and named in Japan, it is registered in the official register of the town or district. Then the parents, or other persons, take the child to another town or province, and register it there.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

When the man wishes to take a wife, and the woman wishes to be married, they go to the registrar, and register their names. There is no Japanese living without a wife.

THE MORMON PROSTITUTES.

One who knew the Latter Day Saints exposes their Crimes.

A citizen of Wahash, Ind., who lived for a number of years in the western border of Illinois, distant 93 miles, as the crow flies, from Nauvoo, the site of the first Mormon temple, gives his testimony to some of the most heinous crimes of that infamous sect for a time it was tolerated in that State.

He writes the latter course as being a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

THE MORMON PROSTITUTES.

One who knew the Latter Day Saints exposes their Crimes.

A citizen of Wahash, Ind., who lived for a number of years in the western border of Illinois, distant 93 miles, as the crow flies, from Nauvoo, the site of the first Mormon temple, gives his testimony to some of the most heinous crimes of that infamous sect for a time it was tolerated in that State.

He writes the latter course as being a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.

They were a law-abiding citizen. From the first inception of their doctrines, they stood as a band of self-constituted judges, and claiming the sanction of the people, they proceeded to do as they pleased.