

Red Robertson Accepted Psychological Moment To Turn The Trick

Some Dope From Ottawa After the Great Contest on Last Saturday Afternoon—What Ottawa Fans Think.

(Ottawa Free Press). Opportunity knocked at "Red" Robertson's door in the last half of the ninth Saturday afternoon and "Red" won undying fame for himself by taking advantage of it in the most approved manner. The settings were perfect for a thrilling climax. The score stood London 5, Ottawa 4. Two men were down, the bases loaded and a pennant virtually hanging on an outfield hit. Added to this over seven thousand fans keyed up to the high pitch of excitement fairly pleaded Mr. Robertson, who was at bat, to deliver.

The count was two and two. Pitcher Bob Heck shot a fast one straight up the groove. Robertson took a vicious cut at the ball. There was a sharp crack like the report of a pistol, something streaked on a line toward left field, and all the runners were instantly in motion. Then came a wild yell from the vast crowd, one of the most spontaneous outbursts ever heard. The crowd quickly saw the ball was going into safe territory and that Crowder, who was on third base, was coming over with the tying run. The hit, however, was an extra long one and a second runner was seen rounding third en route for the plate. It was Lefty Rogers. The din increased in volume as it was quickly discovered Rogers would score the winning run. He was across the plate before Left Fielder Neale retrieved the ball.

When the hit was made attention was diverted from the batter to the ball and the runners. Hence Robertson was perched on second base before anyone thought of looking up the man who had broken up the game. Manager Shatghnessy ran out from the third base coaching lines and grabbed Red by the hand. Other Ottawa players rushed up to the hero of the afternoon and escorted him to the bench. The London players came in from the field absolutely dazed.

Swinging the moving picture machine around from the field to the grandstand one gets a film that would head the bill of any "movie" in the world. There was one wild tumult. The whole stand was a raging sea of hats coats hands and umbrellas. Women folks participated in the celebrations with some enthusiasm. One lady removed the pins from her hat and

The Department of Justice, which has for some length of time been engaged in an inquiry into the New Haven Railroad monopoly, is now deep in facts which will result in startling indictments if the facts are found to warrant them. Attorney General McReynolds said that the longer he stays on the New Haven trail the bigger are the tracks he finds.

shied that expensive article through space. The outburst was continuous for five minutes.

Over on the new Bank Street bridge where hundreds of deadheads were taking in the contest the excitement was just as keen. One boy lost his balance and fell to the ground near the north approach to the bridge. Fortunately the drop was only twelve feet and no damage was done.

Robertson, the hero of the hour, was very modest about his achievement. Last year "Red" had the happy faculty of cracking out a hit near the end of many games that pulled on his team. His hitting this year has not been so opportune as formerly but that one smash on Saturday makes up for all past delinquencies. When he is in his stride he is one of the most dangerous sluggers in the league. His favorite place is down the third base line or a line drive to left. He is always at his best when shooting them in that direction.

At 6:30 on Saturday night seven thousand fans passed the following resolution:

"Resolved: That we have just seen two of the greatest games of baseball ever played for one admission price. That Red Robertson will be given our unstinted support for mayor at the next election, if he runs. That we don't mind Frank Shatghnessy for crabbing since he looks sure to give us another pennant. That while Robertson drove in the tying and win-

PUGILIST WORRIED BY BAILIFFS' VISIT

Jack Johnson's Plans to Be Seen in Music Hall Seriously Affected.

TALKS WITH PASTOR

LONDON, Wednesday, Aug. 27.—The Standard says the prospect of Jack Johnson, the American negro pugilist, appearing in London is becoming daily less hopeful. An unexpected incident has seriously affected the fighter's plans. This was the sudden appearance on Monday night at the house in Bayswater, where Johnson is staying, of a number of bailiffs sent by a firm of solicitors who got judgment for $75,500 damages for breach of contract against the pugilist the last time he was here. Johnson then broke his engagements with some of the McNaughten syndicate music halls and skipped to Paris. MacNaughten then got the judgment against him.

The bailiffs stayed at Johnson's house all night, but a conference on Tuesday morning resulted in a settlement.

Rev. F. B. Meyer, formerly president of the Baptist Alliance, who has been fighting against Johnson's appearance here, says he has not received Johnson's invitation to call on him and discuss various matters in the presence of newspaper men. Johnson, however, conferred with another reverend opponent, Dr. A. J. Waldron, who, after a serious talk with the negro said he was impressed by Johnson's simplicity and honesty, but agrees with Reverend Meyer that if Johnson wants to stand right in England he must return to America and face the music.

French Aero Scandal.

PARIS, Aug. 26.—The French Club committee met yesterday and decided to make no change in the arrangements for the international aviation cup races at Rheims next month in spite of the strong opposition of many active members. The decision it is thought will involve the resignation of Louis Bleriot, who threatened to withdraw from membership if the club persisted in utilizing the Rheims aerodrome, which is the property of Armand Depredussin, who was arrested recently for alleged fraudulent practices. The committee protests against the accusations made in the newspapers by active members, constructors, and pilots, that the committee has sacrificed everything to social considerations, ignoring the real needs of aviation as recalls that it has distributed nearly $1,400,000 in prizes.

A MESSAGE FOR THOSE WHO SUFFER

Mrs. E. J. Talbot Tells Them to Find a Cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills. She Had Rheumatism, Lumbago and Neuralgia and Found the Remedy She Was Looking for in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 25.—Special—"I know there are a lot of people who suffer and do not know what will cure them. Dodd's Kidney Pills will."

These are the words of Mrs. E. J. Talbot who resides at 29 Wellington street north this city. And Mrs. Talbot speaks out of her own experience. "Last July I was very sick," Mrs. Talbot continues. "My heart bothered me, my limbs were heavy, and I had a dragging sensation across the loins, Rheumatism, lumbago and neuralgia added to my sufferings and the doctor I called in did not help me much. I finally decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I have used seven boxes and I am so much stronger and better that I feel I must recommend them to others."

Mrs. Talbot's complication of troubles all came from sick kidneys. That's why Dodd's Kidney Pills cured them. For Dodd's Kidney Pills are no cure-all. They simply cure kidney disease of any kind. They never wait to do that.

BASEBALL NOTES

Once again Nap Lajoie announces the date of his retirement. "When they tear the uniform from my back," he says, "I'll be in the Indian pitcher signed by the Phillies, is so big that none of the spare uniforms on hand would fit him and one had to be made to order for him."

Joe Wood may not pitch again for over a week, according to word from Boston, which says that his injured hand still gives him trouble.

Nap Lajoie has struck out eight times this season, Ray Keating doing the trick three times. Walter Johnson has not fanned him once in three games he has pitched against the Naps.

It is said that Larry Schally of Jersey City will succeed Bill Clymer as manager of Buffalo next season, the latter taking charge of the Wilkes-Barre team. Who will take Schally's place in Jersey City is not known.

Walter Johnson denies that he would refuse to play ball if the Senators should fail to offer him $12,000 for next year's work. "I have never told anyone what I wanted for next year's work," he says, "for I don't know myself. I expect to sign the first contract Griffiths offers me."

Rochester Herald—There are two players, aside from Derrick, on the Oriole squad, who would now be wearing Hustler uniforms if the local management had not broken with the New York Americans. They are Bert Daniels and Ezra Midkiff. Early in the season both were slated to become Hustlers, but New York was unable to get the necessary waivers on them. Later in the season when the waivers were received, the wind had shifted and the players in question are wearing Baltimore and not Rochester uniforms.
