Meeting of Protest Against Secret Diplomacy" to be Held.

Mexico City, Sept. 15.—Heinrich von Eckhardt, the German minister to Mexico last night made a statement, denying everything in con-nection with the disclosures of Wash-ington that he had been employing a former Swedish charge d'affairs to convey information to the Berlin foreign office. Von Eckhardt de-clared that he had never sent any communication through Folke Cron-holm and that he never wrote any holm and that he never wrote any communication recommending Cron-holm for a decoration for his ser-vices to Germany.

Von Eckhardt further declared that he did not know Cronholm personally, only having met him at diplomatic receptions or through the offices of the introducers of ambassadors, or some such formal meetings. Von Eckhardt makes a complete denial of everything in con-nection with the Washington disclosures and in reply to an assertion his complicity, declared that this was merely an American intrigue for the purpose of casting discredit on the representatives of Germany.

Situation Little Improved by Suppression of Revolution; Cabinet Con-RED CROSS struction Again a Live Issue at Petrograd; Clemency May be Shown to Korniloff in Case of His Surrender

Petrograd, Sep. 14—The political equilibrium, which the country had expected as a result of the collapse of the rebellion, has not yet been reached. The cabinet crisis continued all day. The evening newspapers agree that Premier Kerensky is in a very difficult position. The Birjeviya declaring that his resignation is not yet excluded from the possibilities.

The cause of the trouble is an acute revival of the old struggle for power. Premier Kerensky, persists that the entry of four Constitutional Democrats into the cabinet is indispensible, but opposition to this is growing among members of the Left. Kerensky might give way on this point, but he also is negotiating through Minister of the Interior Kishkin for the entry into the cabinet for representatives of the Moscow industrial workers and these declare that they will not accept portfolios if the Constitutional Democrats are expelled. The Social Democrats and the Social Revolutionists while continuing to oppose the Constitutional Democrats declared they are also against the formation of a purely Socialist cabinet.

The problem is complicated by the attitude of the Petrograd Council of Deputies, in which at last night's meeting the Bolshevikis for the first time gained an overwhelming majority of 279 against 115 in favor of an extremely radical program. This program declares that not only the Constitutional Democrats, but also representatives of propertied classes, must be excluded from power; that the policy of compromise must be abandoned, as it is merely a cause of counter-revolutionary plotting and that exceptional powers of repression claimed by the government must be relinquished.

It also demands the immediate declaration of a democratic republic, the abolition of private property and land, with the transfer to peasants of all stock and machinery on estates, control by the working classes over production, the nationalization of the chief branches of industry, "merciless taxation" of capital and the confiscation of war profits.

The resolution demands further the publication of secret treaties, an immediate invitation to the warates to conclude peace, the expulsion of counter-revolutionaries from commands in the army; the satisfaction of the demands of Ukraine and Finland, the dissolution of the Duma, and the council of empire, the immediate summoning of a constituent assembly, and the abolition of privileges of nobles.

M. Tseretelli, former minister of the interior, vainly warned the meeting against extremists, declaring that the reactionaries await with impatience the transfer of power into the hands of the Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' Deputies, which wil give them excuse for a new attack on the revolution. The Bolshevikis retorted that only proletariat could save the resolutions

Premier Kerensky was engaged in negotiations all day Friday, but a settlement of the difficulties is not yet in sight.

MOHILEV UN NDER SIEGE

Petrograd, Sep. 14—Mohilev, the staff headquarters has been declared by General Korniloff in a state of siege, according to information received. Orshidav Junction, a point eighty miles to the northward, has been occupied by government troops and all officers and soldiers arriving there bound for the north are being arrested. A request by Korniloff to send provisions to Mohilev has been refused and an effort by Korniloff to communicate by telephone with Orsha said Korniloff daily was expecting the arrival of General Alexieff for a conference.

Pskoff is in the hands of the government troops.

Korniloff's Fate Petrograd, Sept. 15. - The question of the probable fate of General Korniloff is exciting public opinion. Indications are that the government must face serious difficulties over the mat-

A feature of the conflict is the creditable absence of bitter feeling, and clamor for vengeance. Having re-established geance. Having re-established capital punishment at the front however, the government, if it spares the rebel commander, must face the reproach that it executed common soldiers for less serious offences, and it would be virtually impossible to impose the death penalty in the would be virtually impossible to impose the death penalty in the future. Against this are the facts of Gen. Korniloff's brilliant service, his chivalrous and personal character, and the happy circumstance that there has been no bloodshed so far.

There are indications that the

There are indications that the government is seeking a way out. As an instance, M. Kiskin, the new minister of the interior, declares that the government has decided not to take extreme measures against Korniloff, as it does not wish to appear revengeful.

"The story." M. Kishkin said
"is so tangled, that only an inquiry by a commission can elucidate the truth. Meantime we have reason to believe that the revolt was due to a misunderstanding with Kornitoff's emissary to Kerensky. Valdimir Lvoff, who has not the reputation of being a responsible man."

Interest Revived
Petrograd, Sept. 15.—Judging from the tone of press comments, party and individual expressions of opinion which are raining in, the Korniloff episode has had the effect of quickening interest in the war and convinc-ing the public that only a well disciplined army with a vigorous disciplined army with a vigorous fighting programme can save Russia. An Atlantic Port, Sep. 15—A British steamer that arrived here to-day reported that early yesterday morning, a wireless "S. O. S." call was heard stating that the ship from which the message came was shelled by a German submarine, the locality being 65 miles east of Nantucket lightship. The name of the ship attacked did not come clear, only the word "Abby" presumably the last half of the name, being caught.

Additional information that a submarine was in the western Atlantic was brought by another British liner which arrived here to-day from an English port. Officers of the liner said they had been instructed to watch out for U-boats when nearing the American coast.
