Saturday last was a great day for the youths of Athens. The day was clear and beautiful. The Methodist clear and beautiful. The Methodist Sabbath School held their annual picnic in Taplin's grove and the Presby terian school went to Charleston Lake. Of course, both these pic nics were well attended and the parents were well attended and the parents and teachers were kept busy in attending to the wants of the little ones and securing their safety and enjoyment. At the Methodist pic-nic a matched game of baseball was played between picked nines of the Athens players, and some good ball playing was witnessed. Score, 11 to 16.
