HE FEELS LIKE ANOTHER MAN

Edward Rousseau, after Two Years of Suffering, Used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Thousands of persons have had the same experience as Edward Rousseau of Bruce Mines, Ont. Their stomachs have bothered them for years. They can find relief nowhere. They are just about hopeless. They should do as Mr. Rousseau did. Let him tell the story himself.

"For upwards of ten years," says Mr. Rousseau, "I have been a severe sufferer from Dyspepsia. I doctored almost continually and used almost everything I could hear of until I began the use of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. I have taken two boxes and words cannot express the great good they have done me, as I am now feeling like a new man, better than I have felt for years. I think Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are the greatest medicine in existence and in my case I have proved that they cure when other medicine fails."

THE BIG TREES

WONDROUS AND AWE-INSPIRING PRODUCT OF NATURE, FOUND ONLY IN CALIFORNIA.

California's attractions are mostly of its own kind, peculiar to the state, and of none is this so emphatically true as that unique product the Big Trees. NOT A DULL MOMENT.

When the curtain goes up on the opening overture of the big First Part of the Dan Quinlan and Wall's Imperial Minstrels the "lid is off" and from that moment there will not be a single minute until the drop of the curtain on the big finale number that the audience which will pack the Grand Opera House can distort into a dull moment, for a bright, snappy, crisp and entertaining production is Mr. Quinlan's idea of a minstrel performance and that is what he gives his patrons this year. Watch for the parade, but while you are doing that it might be a good idea to get your seats reserved, for if the success of the company elsewhere this season prevails here it will be a case of S. R. O.

Miss Marie Wainwright, who will appear here soon as Viola in "Twelfth Night," one of Shakespeare's most entertaining vagaries, will be supported by a company of artists of equal skill with herself, and the public may look forward to an evening of rare entertainment.

In the local theatrical calendar for this season that wonderfully successful comedy, "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," stands forth as one of the most pleasing offerings. It will be presented here soon with a company of capable artists and a gorgeous production.

"Way Down East," Lottie Blair Parker's idyllic play of New England farm life, comes to the Grand on Monday, Nov. 7th. It appeals, not to a limited class, but to everybody with a spark of sympathy and a relish for an interesting story and a relish for good, wholesome fun. There are many reasons for its popularity—its pathetic theme, its genial humor, its charming pictures of country life, its quaint characters and striking realism; but its most potent element undoubtedly is the strong human interest that permeates every scene. To this, all classes and creeds must yield their sympathy. Miss Parker's work, so admirably produced under the skillful direction of Mr. Joseph Grismer, has been interpreted by a cast that have been especially selected for their different characters.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

One of those rare and beautiful events takes place on the 11th inst. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Treffy, South Norwiche when a large concourse of relatives and friends gathered to celebrate their golden wedding. Mr. Treffy having lived on the farm continuously for 70 years and acting in the capacity of consignor for many years, and being possessed with a rare heart and congenial spirit has made for himself and family a large circle of friends.

The wedding feast was served in the drive barn, which had been previously used for the occasion with evergreen and burning, five tables being required to serve the purpose. The bride and groom were seated in the centre with their family and near relatives, surrounded by many friends and neighbors, presented a sight that would warm and gladden the hearts of the most skeptical.

The bride was attired in a lavender silk dress, which had served the same purpose 50 years before, well preserved and unaltered in style.

After doing ample justice to the luxuries of the tables, Mr. Gregory, barrister, of Toronto, was installed as chairman, and in his usual brilliant manner addressed the bride and groom with a few pleasing remarks, wishing them every happiness along the line of their earthly journey. Then followed speeches by the Rev. Mr. Ames, of Woodstock; Mr. Hall, barrister, of the same place; Thomas Walker, Beaconsfield; Mr. Rodgers, of Midvale; Dr. Wells, of Delhi; Messrs. Innis, Beek and Duff, of Hawtry, and a noted speaker from Kent County for many, to whom given to the family, a request was then made for the family to respond. The eldest son cheerfully responded. The speeches were interspersed with toasts by the chairman to the bride and groom and family. The speakers having held a life-long acquaintance with the honored couple, spoke in the highest terms and with hospitality shown them by Mr. and Mrs. Treffy. The children and grandchildren presented them with a beautiful engraved address followed by a presentation to the groom of a small gold basket containing $75.50 in gold coin and a tray of costly presents to the bride, others following a day or two later from England, Kansas City and Chicago, in all approximately a value of about $150, to which the groom made a neat and substantial reply, and concluded by singing the hymn "Blessed be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love."

OWES HIS LIFE TO A NEIGHBOR'S KINDNESS.

Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. V., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea; was attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours. For sale by All Druggists.
