THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N.S., JUNE 25, 1897.

Local and Provincial.

Messrs. Starr, Son & Franklin have just had an attractive sign placed on the front of their store.

Mrs. Palmeter has had the verandah on her residence on Main street replaced by a new one of improved appearance.

Rev. W. R. Turner will preach in the Methodist church next Sunday morning and Rev. Douglas B. Hemmison, A. B., in the evening.

The ladies of Wolfville are invited to attend a Vocal Music Lecture in Temperance Hall on Saturday afternoon at 2.30. No admission charged.

The summer time table of the D. A. R. which went into effect on Monday last will be found in another column. The Flying Blonson Express will be put on July 3d.

Mr. S. P. Benjamin is employing his new barges in shipping deals to West Bay for re-shipment. Two of these barges and a schooner were towed down by a tug on Thursday morning.

Mrs. S. B. Bishop, of this town, has had her residence on the corner of Prospect street and Highland avenue very much improved in appearance by building on a neat verandah on the west side.

The street committee have had a new scraper employed on Main street this week. It is an invention of the chairman, and appears to be capable of doing good work in scraping and levelling.

Mrs. C. H. Borden, of this town, received a telegram yesterday morning, announcing the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Macklin, of Fredericton. Mrs. Borden left for Fredericton immediately on receipt of the news.

Copper Sulphate (Blue Vitriol) $6.00 per hundred weight. At the Drugstore.

Mr. C. E. Starr has about completed the repairs which he has been making to his dwelling lately, and has had it painted. He has now a handsome residence. The ground in front has been levelled and a neat driveway leads to the result.

Company 9 on Sunday evening last, marched from their drill hall down to the Anglican church, and attended service. The rector, Rev. K. C. Hind, preached a most appropriate sermon. The church was filled to its utmost seating capacity.

MONEY TO LEND ON MORTGAGE.—Apply to E. S. Crawley, Solicitor, Wolfville, N.S.

In another column Mr. F. W. Woodworth offers for sale the handsome new residence which he has just completed on Acadia street. The property is a most desirable one. The building is thoroughly built throughout and finished in best style with all the modern improvements. We would recommend any person who desires a first-class property in town to call and see it.

Notice.—Good washed wool taken in exchange for goods at C. H. Borden's, Wolfville.

The road across the Port Williams dike has been greatly improved in condition since our last issue. The road-machine has been employed on it with good results. This road is a good example of what heavy loads and narrow tires will do on a dirt road. Broad tires would be much more profitable in every way. We should like very much to see them tried on the Port Williams dike road.

Foresters' service.

Court Blomdon, I. O. F., held its anniversary service on Sunday afternoon last. Foresters from Kentville, Canning, Port Williams and other parts of the county were expected, but were prevented from attending by the rain. A number were present, however, from Hantsport. A meeting was held at the hall at 2.30 o'clock where the exercises in connection with the anniversary took place. The members were then formed in procession and marched to St. Andrews' church, where the sermon was preached at 3. Clad in the characteristic garb and regalia of the order they presented a fine appearance as they filed into the centre pews of the church. The Rev. P. M. Macdonald, pastor of the church, who is also chaplain of the Court, delivered an exceedingly appropriate and effective discourse. From the text: "Honor all men. Love the Brethren. Fear God."—1st Peter 2:17—he deduced the duty of the true Forester, and claimed for the order the imposing of as lofty obligations as those of the Christian church. He who is true to the principles of Forestry, he held, is a true Christian. The service throughout was most appropriate.

A Prominent Breeder. Of all the men who have been identified with the breeding interests in this country, none have done more to improve our trotting stock than Mr. C. R. Bill, Billtown, N. S. He was among the pioneer importers of trotting bred stock to the Province, and his stallions Rampart and Allie Clay have got some of the best horses in the country. As is well known by horsemen, Israel, 2:19½, Arlight, 2:19½, Resolution, 2:25½, Dresden, 2:27½, Rampart Jr., 2:28, are by Rampart; Dinah, 2:21½, and Mayflower, 2:28, are by a son of Rampart; Dandy Eastmont, 2:20½, Clayoia, 2:21½, Clayton, 2:22½, Young Clay, 2:28½, Adrienne, 2:29, are by Allie Clay; but we are now reminded of Mr. Bill's good work in this direction by glancing at the entry list for the races at the Riding Grounds on the 31st inst., as 10 of the 18 horses entered are either sired by or descended from stallions which he has owned. Wilmont, Bertha L., La Belle, Rambler and Andrew are by Rampart; Adrienne, by Allie Clay; Ajalon Jr., 2:30, by Ajalon; Simon W., by Ajalon; a son of Allie Clay; Champ is a son of Little Hope, by Rampart; Little Fred, by Zenith, and all the stallions mentioned have been owned by Mr. Bill.—Recorder.

Fruit culture is more profitable to the farmer now than his other crops. Brown Bros. Co., the most extensive nursery house in Canada, have a vacancy in this section. Write them at Brown's Nurseries, P. O., Ont., for their terms.

The Witter block occupied by Mr. J. D. Chambers, dry goods, and Mr. A. J. Woodman, furniture, is undergoing quite extensive alterations this week. The whole building is being lowered to the level of the sidewalk and plate-glass will be added to the store occupied by Mr. Chambers. When completed the block will present a thoroughly modern appearance, and will be greatly improved in every way. Mr. Sidney Borden, of Port Williams, has the work in charge.

In another column the town clerk advertises for tenders for painting the school-building.
