In spite of other attractions a fairly large house greeted the Colonial Stock company at the Orpheum Theatre last evening. The play presented was "Straight," a comedy in three acts. All the parts were taken and the performance much enjoyed. The vaudeville numbers between the acts and the music by the orchestra were especially enjoyed. A matinee will be given this afternoon and the closing performance tonight. No doubt the audience will be a large one.

An investigation has been started as the reason for the poor showing of Nova Scotia apples at the British Empire Exhibition, as reported by Mr. R. DeHart, who had charge of the Canadian fruit exhibit. It is now being determined that the apples sent from Nova Scotia for the exhibit never reached the market, but that in transit, possibly at St. John, got mixed with some inferior fruit that was en route to the market of England, and they, instead of the picked fruit of Nova Scotia for the Fair, arrived at the Exhibition instead.

F. W. McCully, factory representative of the Gilson Mfg. Co., Limited, of St. Catharines, Ontario, was in town this week, guest at the Royal Hotel. Gilson products are well known here and are in high class in every respect. HYLO-FLUX, the wonderful Gilson engine slinger, "Wizard" engine, stable equipment, pipe and pipeless furnaces. Gilsons have been in the foundry business twenty-four years. They make seven sizes coal-burning and two sizes wood-burning furnaces. Furnaces to suit every need, from the small bungalow to the largest house, store or public building. Gilson wood burner is designed to suit maritime requirements, burning in large chunks of rough wood. Sawler, "the plumber," is the dealer for Wolfville and vicinity; F. B. Westcott, Gaspareau, for the country districts of East Kings. Samples of the furnace that "makes many warm friends" can be seen at the place of either dealer. Watch for large advertisement next week.

Many of our readers neglect so small a thing as a subscription debt. Put yourself in the editor's place; expenses have to be met week after week. We have to rely on such small accounts for our income, therefore we would be obliged if those whose subscriptions are still unpaid would remit at once.

A BUSINESS-WINNING SECRET

A great writer has said that the physical closely parallels the psychical. The six-year-old child learning by rote to recite the alphabet says the same elemental words over and over again, until finally one bright day she proudly recites the entire lesson perfectly.

Note that nature follows the same process when the constant drip, drip of water upon stone will eventually wear away the surface.

In both instances there is a scientific and business-winning principle of tremendous value.

It is the principle upon which Uneda Biscuit has secured its enormous distribution—the principle of Wrigley, of Wanamaker, of a half-hundred others.

It is the principle of repetition—reiteration. Rightly understood and rightly used, it is a great secret of advertising success.—King's Courier.

THE REALLY PRECIOUS THINGS

As we grow older, and the shadows begin to lengthen, and the leaves which seemed so thick in youth above our heads grow thin and show the sky beyond, and as those in the ranks in front drop away, and we come in sight, as we all must, of the eternal rift-pits beyond, a man begins to feel that among the really precious things of life, more lasting and more substantial than many of these objects of ambition here, is the love of those he loves and the friendship of those whose friendship he prizes.
