PREMIUM CASES IN POLICE COURT

All the Individual Defendants Were Acquitted.

Charge Against Merchants' Premiu Co. Sent Up.

Magistrate and Lawyers Express Opinions on the Case.

The result of the proceedings institut d against the Merchants' Premium Co. nd several local merchants accused of reaking the trading stamp by-law, wa rather disappointing to E. M. Trowern secretary of the Retail Merchants' As ciation, and S. A. Brubacher, both of George Lynch-Staunton de fended the Premium Company, which was committed for trial. After giving vidence in three of the other cases and failing to get them sent up Crown At-torney Washington asked that the oth-ers be dismissed.

The charge against the company was The defendants pleaded not guilty and declinel to elect.

The first witness was Charles Holt, who said that after the trading stamp question was settied by parliament, he was approached by Mr. Ross, who told him they would be able to do business under another method. They were given the tickets for nothing and after the purchaser got a centain number, he handed them back to the storekeeper, who sealed them in an envelope with the amount of tickets and the premium wanted. This was taken to the exchange and the article selected sent to the storekeeper, who delivered it to the custome:

the change bit later gave it to her at the grocery store.

Inolt was recalled by Mr. Staunton, and in answer to a question, said the names were never on the stamps when they received them.

This concluded the evidence.

"We don't know what a trading stamp is," began Mr. Staunton.

"I do," said the Magistrate. "We have a precedent in this court."

Mr. Staunton objected to that case being taken into consideration. He contended that the tickets, were unsigned, were not cash receipts or coupons, and were not a complete document. The merchant, he pointed out, redeemed his own premiums and the act did not cover the case.

without going to an exchange.
"That's the way I look at it," said the Magistrate, "but I may be wrong."

Co. and James Bews. All the other cases were dropped except the Bews case. Those who were not proceeded against were W. Mitchell, 103 John street south:

Shea, King street east, and J. A. Wil-liamson, 233 Bay stret north.

"The charge against E. D. Ross may also drop," said Mr. Washington, "We did not expect to rake the Merchants' Premium Company in, and sent a hook out for both."

The Bews case was also dismissed.

Snow in New Mexico.

Albuquerque, N. M., Jan. 2.—After twelve hours of steady snow fall, one of the heaviest snows for many years covers the whole of New Mexico.

The depth of the snow varies from several inches on the Mesas and the Grand Valley to as much as five and six feet in the mountains.

Conditions are unprecedented. The zero weather is causing much suffering. Following is the temperature as registered at Parke & Parke's.
