CRACK WELDON.

FREDERICA, THE BONNET-GIRL.

CHAPTER XVII.

It would appear that something had occurred...

'Yes sir! He has, without question, been carrying...

'What is in question to be guilty of?'

'Forgery!'

'I am not a merchant, and an astonishment, Mr. Weldon...

'Well, sir,' answered Mr. Weldon, scarcely able...

'Yes.'

'These books since, as our books show, you had...

'Well, sir!'

'The books say you drew out twelve thousand!'

'I believe I did, Mr. Daily with satisfaction.'

'At four not? You had then five thousand remaining...

'No, sir! I have made but one other large draft...

'But on the sixteenth you drew for eight thousand...

'You had on deposit but five thousand. But I paid the check...

'To whom did you pay it?'

'To a lady, I believe. At least he said he was. But the check...

'The check now? It is cashed, and his voice...

'I did, sir!'

'I have heard nothing of it, Mr. Weldon.'

'The next day you deposited four thousand dollars...

'You deposited one thousand, continued the cashier...

'The very next day you drew for five thousand dollars...

'Who presented the first check for two thousand?'

'The cashier, I believe. Did he present the second one...

'No. The same lad who had offered the one for eight thousand...

'It is not the same lad who had offered the one for eight thousand...

'Of this you are sure?'

'It was not Charles, thank God!'

'No. You have not noticed any man of a tall and thin...

'It is not the same lad who had offered the one for eight thousand...

'It was none of the others, you are sure?'

'And what yesterday?'

'You drew a draft, did you not, for twenty-two hundred dollars...

'Yes.'

'Mr. Daily presented the draft?'

'Yes.'

'You drew a draft, did you not, for twenty-two hundred dollars...

What more?

'Four hours after, the boy returned and deposited...

'This is a serious matter and more intricate!'

'I will soon bring you the key—at least with some...

'That was correct, I got him to take back with...

'So Mr. Daily said at the time. You had now in the bank...

'I wrote no such check. An hour ago I sent Mr. Daily...

'One thousand dollars.'

'This Mr. Daily presented, and I paid.'

'What then is to come of it? This was as it should be.'

'Yes, sir, but not twenty minutes after, the same lad...

'I could leave the bank, for I began to suspect, I knew not what I feared for your credit, in tone was so...

'The check now? It is cashed, and his voice...

'I did, sir!'

'I have heard nothing of it, Mr. Weldon.'

'The next day you deposited four thousand dollars...
