

For Coughs--Take This

Do you know a remedy for coughs and colds nearly seventy years old? There is one--Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Once in the family, it stays. It is not a doctor, does not take the place of a doctor. It is a doctor's aid. Made for the treatment of all throat and lung troubles. Ask your own doctor his opinion of it. Follow his advice. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

You cannot receive a sample of this medicine unless you are accompanied by a physician. Ayer's Pills are gently laxative; act directly on the bowels. Sold for nearly sixty years. Ask your doctor all about them.

GEORGE C. AYLES

The death occurred at Moncton, Monday morning at ten o'clock, of Mr. Geo. C. Ayles, aged twenty-nine, at his parents' home on Archibald street, death resulting from consumption, after a year's illness. Deceased leaves a wife and one daughter to mourn their loss. His father and mother also survive, as does also three brothers, Garnet, Joseph and Wilfrid and four sisters, Fanny, Beulah, Myrtle and Mrs. J. Sullivan, all of Moncton. Deceased was a son of Mr. Elford Ayles and a fireman in the I. C. R. shops. At one time he lived at the Bridge, Newcastle.

Growing children need just the things that are in Quaker Oats.

It is a great strength builder and is digested easily.

HUGHIE C. STEEVES

Hughie, the little seven-year-old son of Station Agent and Mrs. Steeves of South Nelson, died at his home on Thursday, Nov. 25th. The little boy took sick Sunday and despite the tender care of loving parents and every means that medical skill could devise, the little fellow succumbed to the disease. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved parents in the loss of a bright son. The funeral was held the same day. Interment at Nelson.

AN UNWELCOME VISITOR

One night this week, while Mr. and Mrs. Thomas V. Tozer and Mrs. and Miss Cale were away to Chatham, they returned earlier than expected. While Mr. Tozer was putting in the horse and one of the ladies was fixing the furnace fire, the lights in the house were suddenly extinguished. This prompted the ladies to investigate. They found that a lock had been broken, and the neighbors recollected seeing a man leaving the house about that time. The would-be burglar had no time to take anything. There is no clue as yet.

WILLIAM McRAE

William McRae, son of the late James McRae, died suddenly of pneumonia on Wednesday morning at the residence of Mrs. John Cassidy, where he boarded. He had been ill only five days. Everything that could be done for him was done, but the disease could not be overcome. Deceased was only thirty years old, and for years was well known here, where he resided most of his time, although he was born in Chatham. In February, 1907, he was one of the victims of the disaster to the pulp train near Beaver Brook. He was hurt in the head and side and laid up for some time. He was unmarried. He leaves a brother, Norman, in Maine; three half-brothers, Angus McRae, of Campbellton; Harvey of Renous Bridge; and Neil of Upper Blackville; and one half-sister, Miss Annie, of Newcastle.

The funeral, which took place in St. James Cemetery Thursday afternoon, was well attended, deceased being popular among his associates. Rev. W. J. Dean officiated. The pallbearers were Messrs. Clement Ryan, George Black, Daniel Macdonald, William Kitchen, Matthew Daley, and Andrew McKenzie.
