

A DREAM OF THE PAST.

There's a joy for the young,
There's a dream for the old,
For brighter than sunlight
Can ever fade.

HURON DISTRICT, BY virtue of a Facias, issued out of Her Majesty's Huron District Court, and to me directed against the Lands and Tenements of Richard Darlington, at the suit of Robert Park; I have seized and taken in Execution, Lot number four in the seventh Concession, E. D. in the Township of Colborne, containing 100 acres; which Lands I shall offer for sale at the Court House, in the town of Goderich, on Saturday, the 25th day of November next, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon.

BY LAWS.

1. No animal gaining the first prize year, can take it in the same character the second or any other year, but may show and be entitled to a Certificate from the Society, or such other honorary reward as may be decided on except Bulls, Stallions, Boars, and Rams, which may show and carry first prize for two years. 2. That a Subscriber be only entitled to one prize for Butter and Cheese, or for Grain of the same kind. 3. That the Stallions, Bulls, Boars, must have served within the Society's District the season previous to the Show, (excepting in cases provided for by extra Premiums), or exhibitors of such to give an obligation that they will serve in their season. 4. That Bulls must have a ring or screw in their nose, with a rope or chain attached, to prevent accidents. 5. That the prize for Heifers be not awarded to any animal that has previously had a Calf. 6. That all stock and produce exhibited, (except Fat Sheep and Horses, and such as are specified) and the Cheese and Butter, or other Farm Produce, exhibited, to be produced from an exhibitor's farm, land or stock; and that all Ewes shown (except Fat Sheep) shall have suckled a lamb to the first of August previous to the day of show. 7. That all competitors for Prizes must give the Secretary notice of the description of stock or Produce they intend to show, before, or on the day of show, previous to the day of any Annual or General Show. 8. That all stock and produce exhibited, must be on the ground precisely at 12 o'clock of the day of show; the Judges will be at that hour on the premises. 9. No article or animal can be shown for two prizes the same year. 10. That for the encouragement of those members who have been long in the Society, any animal entered for competition be deemed by the Judges worthy of the first prize, and if the owner of the same prove to the satisfaction of the Judges, he shall receive double the amount of premium otherwise awarded, but only for one year. 11. All stock to be property of exhibitor three months before the show. Judges will have discretionary power in withholding prizes; and no person shall be allowed to exhibit any animal entered for competition be deemed by the Judges worthy of the first prize, and if the owner of the same prove to the satisfaction of the Judges, he shall receive double the amount of premium otherwise awarded, but only for one year. 12. NEW WORK.

CHAMBERS' MISCELLANY. OF USEFUL AND ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE, Edited by ROBERT CHAMBERS, author of Cyclopaedia of English Literature: With Elegant Illustrative Engravings. Price 25 cents per No.

GOULD, KENDALL & LINCOLN.

I am happy to announce that they have completed the increase of their Catalogue of popular writers, and to supply the increasing demand for useful and entertaining reading, and to bring all the literature to bear on the cultivation of the feelings, the moral and social improvement, and every species of study and avocation—cheer the lagging and desponding, by the relation of true and noble incidents, and to give a lively and interesting scene—a zest to every-day occupations by ballad and lyrical poetry—in short, to furnish an unobtrusive and useful, and a lively fireside companion, as far as that object can be attained through the instrumentality of books.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

From the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser. The design of the MISCELLANY is to supply the increasing demand for useful and entertaining reading, and to bring all the literature to bear on the cultivation of the feelings, the moral and social improvement, and every species of study and avocation—cheer the lagging and desponding, by the relation of true and noble incidents, and to give a lively and interesting scene—a zest to every-day occupations by ballad and lyrical poetry—in short, to furnish an unobtrusive and useful, and a lively fireside companion, as far as that object can be attained through the instrumentality of books.
