DEAR SANAL: -It is almost a wonder thas a word of compaint and inignation has no accounty reasoned you concerning the s ; the roads, but I presume the old three that "what's every body's business, was noody's business" must have arone been the cause.

Consi tering the large amount of team ing done auring the winter season, it is of the accuse importante to both town and country that the roads should, if possible, be acht in a passable condition, therefore traceause of the trouble and its speedy remady should engage the serious attention or all interested parties.

The country now being cleared up on both successfully main roads has left bota sates of our main roads has left the name exposed to the sweep of the winds, hence the trouble. The only practical way that see as to suggest itself is to same wife for the ordinary board and sname ences, or where board fences and already been constructed to remove one two contre heards and replace then by two or tiree strands of wire, which would effectually answer the purposes. In what manner to accomplish this desired end it is difficult to says for I presu ne the manisipality has really not got the power to compel owners of land to adopt it, but if public opinion is brought to bear on the question and show conclusively that every farmer will be directly beneated by seeping the roads good in his immediate neighborhood then it may untimately be done. Unless this course is pursued, travelling either for profit or pleasure will soon become a thing of the past. The lake shore road just now from past. The lake shore road just now from Mr. Morris's, coming due north is quite unsafe to pass over and in the vicinity of Leeburn Church is really dangerous, and causes one's mind to be very improperly filled with skeptical ideas, as vainly endsavors to pass the sacred edifice in safety.

Dear old maids and love sick swains by every comfort and write about the "Bautiful Snow" and the "Merfy jingle of the Bats," but let them drive a distance of five miles up the lake shore road and drive into the hundred and one pitch holts and their postic feelings. holes and their poetic feelings will very soon become most sadly disturbed.

SINGING SCHOOL -Messrs. Geo. Caldvell and Jas. Hayden have organized a singing school here. There is great en-thusiasm among the young people who belong to the school, and the melodious art will probably make great headway in our burg.

Behold the conquering hero comes in view; ushered in with a jingle of Boycotting, syndicates, home rule, &c., hailing from Kintail. He commences to talk as assably about mail matters as to talk as sensibly about mail matters as any one from Kintail could be expected to do. But the Port Albert Harbor seems to raise his ire, or Irish. Perhaps he is one of the unfortunate syndicate who raised a thousand dollars to build a spile dock at Kintail and hand it over -well, who ever is the sharpest one in the scramble for the defunct firm's goods and chattles. Or did "Conqueror" form one of the committee who coaxed two hundred and fifty dollars out of our township council to buy a road which was already offered to them for nothing, after they found it was illegal to make a gift of over three hundred dollars to the enterprising firm of Blake & Co. queror" has been counting the spiles driven in our harbor during the last season and finds 84. But he did not tell you that there is a large number on the ground ready to drive. And perhaps when he comes again to take the census of those piles he will see two horses working it instead of one. The pile driver, I think, cannot be a bad one, for Lie Broken.—A young man named Robt. Pentland had his leg broken on the evening of Sunday, 9th inst. When returning from church he had occasion to climb a fence; and in getting over it returning from church he had occasion get out of our Tory shells, and secure to climb a fence; and in getting over it he slipped and fell, fracturing the limb.

The slipped and fell, fracturing the limb. Such an infusion of new blood as well prevent us from becoming altogether AURORA.

Kintail

Boycotting still continues, there having been no change made yet in the time of receiving mails, which still con-tinue to arrive here about 24 hours behind time. This is very aggravating, particularly at the present time, when railway syndicates, harbor syndicates, coercive bills, wire fences and snow drifts occupy so much the attention of the general public, I think it is time some of our public men called the attention of our representative at Ottawa to the Maitland con., lately received a letto this disgraceful state of affairs. Our ter from his son in Dakota, who stated Municipal Council have not yet acted on that the extreme cold of that State was helow zero here on Tuesday morning 18th. inst.

Property Sold.—The hotel here has been sold to Mr. Thomas Nicholson, of Blyth, for $2,250. Mr. N. takes possession in February. This is the last possession in February. The refrest possession in February and the last possession in February. This is the last possession in February. The possession is the state of the Pebruary and the sum of retrogressive. In point of fact, their kins, of the 14th con., intends erecting economical propensities are so strong, that they would rather wade through mountains of snow, or mud to the axletrees, than raise the taxes of the poor man. It is time that the electors bestired themselves and infused some new life into our municipal Council. We are living in a progressive age and progression and impassible roads are not synony-

As to wire fences, our County Council have not time to discuss any such salutary measures. That august body are more interested in discussing official excursions at the public expense. For their next official excursion allow me to suggest for the benefit of their health, that they truthe Falls or Toronto. The that they try the Falls or Toronto. The immense amount of work performed by that august body while in session, and the late hours they have to keep to per-form that work must necessarily be very trying to their constution, and a run to Toronto or the Falls would enable them. Toronto or the Falls, would enable them to regain their lost vigor. It would be so nice, and they could have such a jolly time. At the last June meeting, all the tact, eloquence and wire-pulling of that body was used for the purpose of rais-ing the county assessment rate of Ashfield, ing the county assessment rate of Ashfield, in which they succeeded to the tune of $128,000. And our representatives at William Wakefield of the 5th con., was that meeting allowed such gross injustice to take effect without appealing to the Court. If our representatives cannot do better at the next June meeting, we may consider that (their) usefulness is gone. - Conqueror.

It is a strange fact in connection with Purtell, one of the Biddulph prisoners, that all the persons who were expected to prove his alibi have since the last trial been killed. ## RALLY AT PORT ALBERT.

husiastic Meeting to Discuss the Prac-cability of Getting a Bailway and Improving the Harbor.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held at Port Albert on Wednesday evening last, to discuss the feasibility of bringing a railroad through East and West Wawanosh and Ashfield to Port Albert, and to take action on the harbor

Albert, and to take action on the harbor question.

Mr. Jos. Griffin, Deputy Reeve of Ashfield, occupied the chair. Anumber of interesting speeches were delivered, which our space will not admit of this week. They will appear in our next. The following resolutions were submitted

Moved by Mr. J. H. Courtney, seconded by Mr. Jas. Mahaffy, that Whereas, Port Albert possesses the natural commercial advantages of magnificent water privileges readily available nificent water privileges readily available for manufacturing purposes, and one of the best naturally protected harbors on the east shore of Lake Huron;

And whereas, The naturally fertile township of Ashfield and adjoining townships are capable of producing large quantities of agricultural produce for exportation, and also pressessing as they portation; and also, possessing as they do a large quantity of timber, the manufacture and exportation of which would be of great importance to said townships;

And whereas, A railway is the best known artificial agency in developing the resources of a country, and inasmnch as the development of the above-name decourses would materially add to the esources would materially add to the commercial prosperity of a large portion of Western Ontario:

Be' it therefore Resolved, that for the purpose of developing our natural, com-mercial, and agricultural resources it is absolutely necessary that we procure railway communications with the centres of trade in the Province of Ontario.

Moved by Mr. Jas. Mahaffy, seconded by Mr. A. C. Hawkins, that Whereas, In order that we, the in-habitants of Ashfield, in the County of Huron, should have facilities for shipping the products of the farm and forest on qual terms with other localities;

And whereas, Many of our products will not bear the heavy expense of teaming to such markets as are now available to

And whereas, A comparatively small expenditure of money would construct a good commercial harbor at Port Albert. Therefore be it resolved that this meeting respectfully but earnestly ask the Dominion Government and House of Commons to assume the harbor at this place and expend such sums of money thereon as will make it available fo

It was moved by Mr. Edward O'Con-nor, seconded by Mr. John Sullivan that Whereas, It will be necessary to further prosecute, and give effect so the rail-way resolution moved by J. H. Courtney, which resolution you have sustained, It is therefore necessary for that pur ose and for the better carrying-out of the objects of this meeting to a success ful issue to appoint a committee.

Be it theirfore Resolved that Jas. Ma-J. H. Courtney, John Whitley and the mover be appointed a committee with power to meet and cooperate with other committees and to open correspondence with any railway company willing to build a railway to this place. Moved by Jas. Quaid, seconded by Thos. Hawkins, that the Railway Committee take charge of the harbor petition and obtain signatures to the same
