With the Farmers

HISTORY OF RED POLLED CATTLE

An interesting history of Red Polled cattle, contributed by G. V. Clendenning, president of the Red Polled Cattle association...

The Red Polled cattle originated in Norfolk and Suffolk counties, England, and hornless or polled cattle have existed in Suffolk from time immemorial...

Of the Norfolk strain of the breed, the idea of the Norfolk Mercury show that as early as 1778 there were herds of polled cattle in Norfolk...

The modern Red Polled cow, as already stated, is a result of the combination of the old Norfolk and Suffolk strains, and it is the aim of the most successful breeders to combine the good qualities of both...

As to crossing with other breeds, the Red Polled sire makes an excellent cross upon any grade cattle, removing the horns, making the color uniform and developing the feeding and milking qualities...

SWINE RAISING PAYS

As an instance of how quickly a farmer can turn over his money, he goes into pig raising intelligently, the Red Deer News calls attention to the experience of Sam Fye in the Horn Hill district...

The spring litters. The same six sows gave him fall litters to the number of 53 pigs, and last week at his sale 35 young sows were sold at an average of $13 each...

THE WHEAT RECEIPTS

5,000,000 More Bushels of Grain Received This Year Over Last. Winnipeg, July 8--Grain receipts at points on the lines of the C. P. R. on Saturday amounted to 5,000,000 bushels of wheat...

WHEAT SUPPLY EQUAL TO DEMAND

New York, July 9--The following interesting review of the world's grain situation appears in the Evening Post. Whether our wheat crop runs short this year, or Europe's, or both, or neither, the fact will remain that in a few weeks we were confronted with the menace of a world-wide insufficiency of the principal food stuff...

CROP CONDITIONS ALONG C. P. R.

Calgary, July 10--The following is the report of crop conditions along the line of the Canadian Pacific railway in Alberta and Western Saskatchewan compiled by General Superintendent R. H. Jamieson, from reports received today from the company's agents at the different points--

Swift Current--Crops well advanced; weather conditions very best. Old-timers predict bumper crop. Maple Creek--Grain well advanced; no damage; prospects best ever known in district...

Langdon--Crops looking well; weather favorable. Medicine Hat--Crops in good condition and growing well; good rain fall. Gleichen--Crops making rapid progress; fall wheat heading out; weather hot and showery; prospects still good for large yield...

Strathmore--Crops doing well; weather fine. Langdon--Crops looking well; weather favorable. Medicine Hat--Crops in good condition and growing well; good rain fall. Gleichen--Crops making rapid progress; fall wheat heading out; weather hot and showery; prospects still good for large yield...

Grainless Alarm. Quite in keeping with the alarmist utterances of the Crookes school of science was a recently widely quoted statement of James J. Hill. He predicted that by 1950 the American Republic will contain a population of not less than 200,000,000. To provide food for all these millions, and still retain our supremacy in the export of breadstuffs, he regarded as one of the gravest problems now confronting the American people; and one that could
