

DISTRICT NEWS

WETASKIWIN.

Bulletin News Service.

Mrs. Huckell has moved into her newly rebuilt home on Pearce street west.

The Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. Willford Forbes yesterday, when there was a very good turnout of members.

Silas Andrews has been seriously ill this week, a cold developing into pneumonia, though in mild form.

Christmas music will be rendered in Knox Church the Sunday after Christmas, when Mr. Wade, choir-master, expects to have a good program.

In the Methodist Church the Christmas special music will be given on Sunday, December 22nd.

Mrs. Fred Stinson, of Hastings Coulee, is a city visitor at Mrs. W. Smith's.

H. R. Cameron, Spokane, is a recent arrival, going to his farm about seven miles out. He will bring his family here in the spring.

The Salvation Army held a unique stereopticon service on Saturday evening, under the leadership of Captain Davet. The army is doing good work here, especially among the non-church goers.

Inspector Worsley, of the Mounted Police, Edmonton, was in town this week. He was inspecting the local police here and the east line.

Auctioneer Harkness has made his headquarters at Bradley & Nickerson's real estate office, Pearce street.

H. Schmidt went to Calgary Wednesday morning on a business trip.

Dr. Schiefel has returned to his lucrative practice at Granite City, Ill., after a short visit with friends here.

Rev. T. O. and Mrs. Wald and family, under the leadership of Captain Davet, are on their way to the coast, where they will make their home in future. They are all well known and esteemed here and the district will feel their loss.

City Engineer Neville has resigned, to take effect December 31st. The resignation has been accepted, and he, with Mrs. Neville, will probably be leaving the city, unless he decides to remain here in private capacity.

Mr. Harvey and his band of well drilled fiddlers left this week for Petrolia, Ontario, to return in the spring.

A good flow of water was struck at about 240 feet in the third well, so that the water supply secured to the city and of first-class quality. The gas well is down about 900 feet, and with piping has cost nearly $8,000. The apparatus will run to a depth of 2,000 feet.

Mr. Davidson, J.P., and Mrs. Davidson, Daysland, with Mrs. Horwood and family, left this week, Thursday and Friday, for Mr. and Mrs. James Horner. Mr. Davidson came in for the court sitting, which Judge Gordon is on her way east to Toronto.

The Mattress and Tent Co. applied last Council for a license to sell and use tax for five years, with free electric light for same, or longer term. A short time since the macaroni factory had a request for help on account of removal. The council cannot legally grant such privileges for more than a year, as it is a public utility. The latter request was therefore turned down.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry are the proud possessors of a new baby boy this week. The mother is still in the hospital but is doing well, as is the infant.

Knights of Pythias elected officers on Wednesday evening, as follows: C. J. K. Tweedie, V.C.; E. E. Chandler, prelate; R. W. Manley, M.W.; A. C. Goulet, K.R. and S.; F. Franklin, M.F.; A. Franklin, M.E.; Joe Richards, I.G.; C. D. Eaman; O. C. T. O. Folland; M.A. George Cayles, representatives; Messrs. Hoy and Richards, trustees; Messrs. O. H. Anderson, Hoy and Taylor.

J. H. Knight, architect, who prepared a very elaborate and complete set of plans for the new hospital, estimating cost at $12,500, on the advice of a prominent alderman, presented a brief of his claims to the last meeting of the council. His claim of $12,500 was not given previously, and he is now presenting a bill for only 1 per cent. on the estimated cost, in view of exceptional circumstances, the alderman, offered him $100 for his services.

A big batch of accounts, aggregating $1,837, was paid by the council, among them three big bills for well drilling and for lumber.

Some merchants complain that the shipments of Ontario apples are being made with grade 2 products on account of the shortage in the east.

The dance in Alberta Hall on Thursday evening was the last of the season, as the hall has been leased for a family theatre, which will have many patrons here if the right sort of programmes are given.

On Wednesday morning at 11:30 o'clock one of Wetaskiwin's most popular young ladies was united in marriage, by Rev. J. E. Hogg, to Dr. E. H. Hill, of Edmonton. The bride was becomingly gowned in ivory honiton lace over duchesse satin. She wore the groom's gift, sunburst of pearls, and was assisted by Miss May Gould, in pink ezelienne over pink silk. Mr. Harold Dutton, Edmonton, supported the groom. A reception was held at the home of the bride from 2 to 4:30 o'clock, when a large number took the opportunity of tendering their congratulations. Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Compton, Mr. West, Mrs. Hogg and Mrs. Richardson, the Misses Bailey, Swanson, Walker and Gould assisted. The happy couple left on the 5:30 p.m. train for St. Paul, Minnesota, etc., after which they will spend a month or so at Campbush, Ont., with the groom's parents. The presents were very numerous and costly. The young people were given a rousing send-off by a large number of friends. They will reside in Edmonton.

A separate party will be required for election of Separate School Trustees, which expense must be borne by the constituencies of the Separate School District.

Capital visitors this week: H. E. Cutler, a guest at the Windsor; J. A. Bradley, a guest at the Cecil.

Jno. Ross, inspector of public schools, was in the city on Thursday

WETASKIWIN.

Bulletin News Service.

On his way to inspect Camrose school and paid the Alexandra School an unpaid visit.

The bazaar and sale of work of the Knox Church ladies yesterday was very successful, the net proceeds of the afternoon being rapidly picked up for Christmas giving.

The Assembly Club hold a dance this evening in Angus Hall.

J. F. MacNamara, of Lloydminster, is in the city, arriving Wednesday to visit his doctor, W. MacNamara.

Inspector Manning, of Red Deer, is in town. He is a Merchants' Bank official.

Some anxiety is being stirred up at the news, apparently authentic, that the whole assessment for 1907 for this place was irregular and illegal. A large part of the taxes, however, has been paid.

Supreme Court will take about two weeks here. The criminal cases which have been decided are: Rex vs. Hancock, remaining 21 weeks; Rex vs. Rex vs. Hodgkinson, consoling birth, suspended sentence; Rex vs. Sunderlin, assault, 30 days.

Wetaskiwin, December 14.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN.

Bulletin News Service.

The death occurred on Thursday last of Minnie Russley from typhoid fever. The funeral was held today from the family residence, Rev. W. J. Howard officiated. Several other members of the family have had the fever, but they are now convalescent.

Widespread sympathy is felt for the bereaved mother and sisters.

At a meeting of the fire broke out at the C.N.R. pump house at the foot of Government street, and, despite the efforts of the fire brigades, the engine destroyed. A new engine has been secured and work is going on as usual here and elsewhere.

Rev. A. Forbes and Mrs. Forbes spent Friday at Lamont.

At a meeting of the Fort Curling Club met on Thursday afternoon in the secretary's office and chose the following rink for the coming season: Short, Kettlewell, Bilton, E. White, Captain Strickland (skip), D. Easton, Atkinson, Taylor, Carscadden, Walker, Jones, Donald (skip), W. H. White, Pratin, Cameron, Kinney, McLean, F. A. Walker, Strickland, Corbett, Emery (skip), Mutschutz, Dubuc, Chard, McAvoy (skip), Bill, Joyce, Charters, Coughlan, Saera (skip), F. A. Walker, Strickland, Daniel (skip), Fraser, Courtney, Campbell, Lees, Beetz (skip).

Mr. H. Hogg, M.P.P., T. G. Montgomery and G. O. Baetz spent Tuesday in the Capital.

Dr. Simmonson returned to Kamloops, B.C., after spending some six weeks at home in the Fort. Miss Strickland returned to her home in Peterborough this week, after spending the last year with relatives in the Fort.

Mrs. A. T. Chambers was "at home" to her numerous friends last Saturday afternoon. The rough weather did not prevent any of the guests from attending and a very pleasant time was enjoyed.

A very enthusiastic hockey meeting was held tonight in the fire hall and elected officers as follows: Hon. president, Major Strickland; hon. vice-president, F. A. Walker; president, W. Cameron; vice-president, Chas. Chard; secretary-treasurer, H. E. Stapf; manager, H. Walton; executive committee, Chas. K. Knowlton, Maxwell, Wilson and Walton; sub-committee, Cameron, Chard and White.

Fort Saskatchewan, Dec. 14.

VEGREVILLE.

Bulletin News Service.

St. Martin's School gave the following program for the opening of the new convent: Part I.—Le Noel des missionnaires, chorus; Le Noel des missionnaires, chorus; Patriotic March; Sambone Babies; act; Mazurka Nationale, piano; Evening recitation; Le Galop Favori, piano; Miss Fane, recitation; Le Petit Noel, chant; Une petite soiree, piano duet; Noid a Body Cry, song; L'Amour, Drama; Le Noel des missionnaires, chorus; 5th Nocturne, piano; Part 2.—How the St. Andrew, act; Narcissus, piano; The Flute and the Chorus; Star of the Sea, recitation; Opinion, recitation; Kilac Trees, chorus; The Christmas choral; Companion to Narcissus, piano; Les Dabats di double, act; Theme of the Christmas choral; Canada, chorus; God Save the King.

The Ladies Aid and the Young Ladies' Guild of Warwick held a bazaar in the Fairwood School on Friday night. The proceeds amounted to $90.

An honest editor has been found in no less a person than A. L. Horton, of the Observer, so was the answer to the query of a row gentleman at a literary debate at Warwick last Wednesday night. When this gentleman got through denouncing the editor, he asked them to name him an honest newspaper man. A small voice piped out: "The Observer man."

Vegreville, December 14.

LLOYDMINSTER.

Bulletin News Service.

A fire alarm occurred last night when about 10 o'clock an alarm was given that the Bank of Commerce was on fire. The firemen responded quickly and discovered the fire to be only a chimney blaze. Had it not been discovered in time it would undoubtedly have caused a disastrous fire.

Dr. Farney has retired from the Alberta hotel, Mr. Horning taking over his interests. Andy Hutton will manage the house under the new ownership.

The market for the power house arrives today and will be installed at once.

The death occurred in the hospital here on December 11 of Lina Dorothy Culver, of Marshall, wife of L. L. Culver, hotel proprietor at Marshall. The deceased was well known and highly respected by the whole community. She came to Alberta from Norway four years ago, settling in Carstairs, where she was married to a

EDISON.

The fine weather of the fall suddenly gave way on Saturday Dec 7 to snow. The fall of snow was very slight and as much again has been added to-day, but there is nothing like enough for skating. Winter amusements are the order of the day. Skating has been enjoyed for the last three weeks. The ice has been in capital condition on the lakes. The week before last there was a nice dancing party at Whisteen's and last week there was another at Marshall's.

There was a Christmas festival on Christmas Eve at the Edison school where Mr. Pathello is teacher.

Edison, Dec. 13.

MUNDARE.

Bulletin News Service.

Mundare is a smart pretty little town on the C.N.R., some sixty miles from Edmonton and some seven or eight from the north shore of Lake. The buildings are mostly of substantial size, and the general appearance of the place is greatly improved by a liberal use of paint.

This last matter Mundare takes a leading place among the municipalities. The elevators and a grist mill stand to the south of the railway track. The stores and residential portions are on the north side. A number of buildings has about doubled during the recent summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McLean and their family, general contractors, have been kept very busy.

At a short interview with Robert Fletcher, government supervisor of foreign schools among the Ruthenians, reveals some interesting and encouraging facts regarding the educational matters. Quite a number of six months' schools have been in operation for some time among these people, but several school districts now engage teachers for the whole year. Teachers report that the children generally show great interest in education and that many of the pupils show marked improvement.

The Ruthenian Exchange is a class of people that teachers who have taught in their own country and themselves as pleased and willing to continue in this work.

Mr. Ryan, station master and telegraph operator here, has had eighteen years' experience in railway matters, and he is a very capable man. He is now in charge of the following information: Forty-five carloads of cattle and hogs had been shipped to the west coast. Two full carloads of potatoes went to Edmonton last week. One and a half tons of live poultry were shipped to the same place. Shipments of dressed poultry, including turkeys, were being made in all directions.

Three loads of hay were sent to Edmonton every week. Last year seventy-five thousand bushels of grain were marketed here. This year as yet grain has not come in so freely.

J. B. Beauchamp, of the Mundare Hotel, has one of the best equipped hotels along the line.

Among some of Mundare's business men are: Milne, a general store; Duncan, McAllister and J. O. McAllum, general store merchants; A. I. Walker, lumber merchant; J. A. Lewis, druggist; Murray Brothers, etc.

Mr. Oliver represents the D. L. Davis & Co. The Messrs. Featherstone, the British-American elevator, and Mr. S. Galley, the Alberta elevator. Messrs. Edgely and McKelvey represent the Beaver Lake Land Company. Mr. Ed. Walker is local auctioneer.

The Presbyterian Church is represented by Rev. Mr. Sheppard and the Methodists by Rev. Mr. Clayton. Miss McAllum is the teacher in the public school.

The various machine companies are well represented.

Mundare, December 14.

WETASKIWIN.

Bulletin News Service.

The well-known firm of Henwood & Wilkins, barristers, are at present dissolving partnership. Each will continue the practice of law here in his own name, with offices in the Merchants' Bank Block, as heretofore.

Saturday was another bumper day for the merchants of the city, large crowds being in town from the country. A slight fall of snow came on Saturday, but there is no sleighing yet. There is a general desire for good sleighing for Christmas and for the Christmas trade.

The curlers begin tonight, the series of matches for the Gould Cup. They will require to play some eighteen games per week. Tonight the following games are to be played off: Todd vs. Stephenson, Dickson vs. Wallace, Livingston vs. Fowler. Tomorrow night: Forbes vs. Henwood, Carruthers vs. Walker, Farris vs. Rix.

Mr. Dr. W. Shaw, druggist, will be in town Saturday and will be installed at once.

The closing exercises at Alexandra School will be held in the Assembly Hall, Friday afternoon, at 7 o'clock, when a short program of songs, etc., will be given.

Mrs. B. Martin spent Sunday with her sister, some ten miles out from town.

EDISON.

The fine weather of the fall suddenly gave way on Saturday Dec 7 to snow. The fall of snow was very slight and as much again has been added to-day, but there is nothing like enough for skating. Winter amusements are the order of the day. Skating has been enjoyed for the last three weeks. The ice has been in capital condition on the lakes. The week before last there was a nice dancing party at Whisteen's and last week there was another at Marshall's.

There was a Christmas festival on Christmas Eve at the Edison school where Mr. Pathello is teacher.

Edison, Dec. 13.

MUNDARE.

Bulletin News Service.

Mundare is a smart pretty little town on the C.N.R., some sixty miles from Edmonton and some seven or eight from the north shore of Lake. The buildings are mostly of substantial size, and the general appearance of the place is greatly improved by a liberal use of paint.

This last matter Mundare takes a leading place among the municipalities. The elevators and a grist mill stand to the south of the railway track. The stores and residential portions are on the north side. A number of buildings has about doubled during the recent summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McLean and their family, general contractors, have been kept very busy.

At a short interview with Robert Fletcher, government supervisor of foreign schools among the Ruthenians, reveals some interesting and encouraging facts regarding the educational matters. Quite a number of six months' schools have been in operation for some time among these people, but several school districts now engage teachers for the whole year. Teachers report that the children generally show great interest in education and that many of the pupils show marked improvement.

The Ruthenian Exchange is a class of people that teachers who have taught in their own country and themselves as pleased and willing to continue in this work.

Mr. Ryan, station master and telegraph operator here, has had eighteen years' experience in railway matters, and he is a very capable man. He is now in charge of the following information: Forty-five carloads of cattle and hogs had been shipped to the west coast. Two full carloads of potatoes went to Edmonton last week. One and a half tons of live poultry were shipped to the same place. Shipments of dressed poultry, including turkeys, were being made in all directions.

Three loads of hay were sent to Edmonton every week. Last year seventy-five thousand bushels of grain were marketed here. This year as yet grain has not come in so freely.

J. B. Beauchamp, of the Mundare Hotel, has one of the best equipped hotels along the line.

Among some of Mundare's business men are: Milne, a general store; Duncan, McAllister and J. O. McAllum, general store merchants; A. I. Walker, lumber merchant; J. A. Lewis, druggist; Murray Brothers, etc.

Mr. Oliver represents the D. L. Davis & Co. The Messrs. Featherstone, the British-American elevator, and Mr. S. Galley, the Alberta elevator. Messrs. Edgely and McKelvey represent the Beaver Lake Land Company. Mr. Ed. Walker is local auctioneer.

The Presbyterian Church is represented by Rev. Mr. Sheppard and the Methodists by Rev. Mr. Clayton. Miss McAllum is the teacher in the public school.

The various machine companies are well represented.

Mundare, December 14.

WETASKIWIN.

Bulletin News Service.

The well-known firm of Henwood & Wilkins, barristers, are at present dissolving partnership. Each will continue the practice of law here in his own name, with offices in the Merchants' Bank Block, as heretofore.

Saturday was another bumper day for the merchants of the city, large crowds being in town from the country. A slight fall of snow came on Saturday, but there is no sleighing yet. There is a general desire for good sleighing for Christmas and for the Christmas trade.

The curlers begin tonight, the series of matches for the Gould Cup. They will require to play some eighteen games per week. Tonight the following games are to be played off: Todd vs. Stephenson, Dickson vs. Wallace, Livingston vs. Fowler. Tomorrow night: Forbes vs. Henwood, Carruthers vs. Walker, Farris vs. Rix.

Mr. Dr. W. Shaw, druggist, will be in town Saturday and will be installed at once.

The closing exercises at Alexandra School will be held in the Assembly Hall, Friday afternoon, at 7 o'clock, when a short program of songs, etc., will be given.

Mrs. B. Martin spent Sunday with her sister, some ten miles out from town.

EDISON.

The fine weather of the fall suddenly gave way on Saturday Dec 7 to snow. The fall of snow was very slight and as much again has been added to-day, but there is nothing like enough for skating. Winter amusements are the order of the day. Skating has been enjoyed for the last three weeks. The ice has been in capital condition on the lakes. The week before last there was a nice dancing party at Whisteen's and last week there was another at Marshall's.

There was a Christmas festival on Christmas Eve at the Edison school where Mr. Pathello is teacher.

Edison, Dec. 13.

MUNDARE.

Bulletin News Service.

Mundare is a smart pretty little town on the C.N.R., some sixty miles from Edmonton and some seven or eight from the north shore of Lake. The buildings are mostly of substantial size, and the general appearance of the place is greatly improved by a liberal use of paint.

This last matter Mundare takes a leading place among the municipalities. The elevators and a grist mill stand to the south of the railway track. The stores and residential portions are on the north side. A number of buildings has about doubled during the recent summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McLean and their family, general contractors, have been kept very busy.

At a short interview with Robert Fletcher, government supervisor of foreign schools among the Ruthenians, reveals some interesting and encouraging facts regarding the educational matters. Quite a number of six months' schools have been in operation for some time among these people, but several school districts now engage teachers for the whole year. Teachers report that the children generally show great interest in education and that many of the pupils show marked improvement.

The Ruthenian Exchange is a class of people that teachers who have taught in their own country and themselves as pleased and willing to continue in this work.

Mr. Ryan, station master and telegraph operator here, has had eighteen years' experience in railway matters, and he is a very capable man. He is now in charge of the following information: Forty-five carloads of cattle and hogs had been shipped to the west coast. Two full carloads of potatoes went to Edmonton last week. One and a half tons of live poultry were shipped to the same place. Shipments of dressed poultry, including turkeys, were being made in all directions.

Three loads of hay were sent to Edmonton every week. Last year seventy-five thousand bushels of grain were marketed here. This year as yet grain has not come in so freely.

J. B. Beauchamp, of the Mundare Hotel, has one of the best equipped hotels along the line.

Among some of Mundare's business men are: Milne, a general store; Duncan, McAllister and J. O. McAllum, general store merchants; A. I. Walker, lumber merchant; J. A. Lewis, druggist; Murray Brothers, etc.

Mr. Oliver represents the D. L. Davis & Co. The Messrs. Featherstone, the British-American elevator, and Mr. S. Galley, the Alberta elevator. Messrs. Edgely and McKelvey represent the Beaver Lake Land Company. Mr. Ed. Walker is local auctioneer.

The Presbyterian Church is represented by Rev. Mr. Sheppard and the Methodists by Rev. Mr. Clayton. Miss McAllum is the teacher in the public school.

The various machine companies are well represented.

Mundare, December 14.

WETASKIWIN.

Bulletin News Service.

The well-known firm of Henwood & Wilkins, barristers, are at present dissolving partnership. Each will continue the practice of law here in his own name, with offices in the Merchants' Bank Block, as heretofore.

Saturday was another bumper day for the merchants of the city, large crowds being in town from the country. A slight fall of snow came on Saturday, but there is no sleighing yet. There is a general desire for good sleighing for Christmas and for the Christmas trade.

The curlers begin tonight, the series of matches for the Gould Cup. They will require to play some eighteen games per week. Tonight the following games are to be played off: Todd vs. Stephenson, Dickson vs. Wallace, Livingston vs. Fowler. Tomorrow night: Forbes vs. Henwood, Carruthers vs. Walker, Farris vs. Rix.

Mr. Dr. W. Shaw, druggist, will be in town Saturday and will be installed at once.

The closing exercises at Alexandra School will be held in the Assembly Hall, Friday afternoon, at 7 o'clock, when a short program of songs, etc., will be given.

Mrs. B. Martin spent Sunday with her sister, some ten miles out from town.

EDISON.

The fine weather of the fall suddenly gave way on Saturday Dec 7 to snow. The fall of snow was very slight and as much again has been added to-day, but there is nothing like enough for skating. Winter amusements are the order of the day. Skating has been enjoyed for the last three weeks. The ice has been in capital condition on the lakes. The week before last there was a nice dancing party at Whisteen's and last week there was another at Marshall's.

There was a Christmas festival on Christmas Eve at the Edison school where Mr. Pathello is teacher.

Edison, Dec. 13.

MUNDARE.

Bulletin News Service.

Mundare is a smart pretty little town on the C.N.R., some sixty miles from Edmonton and some seven or eight from the north shore of Lake. The buildings are mostly of substantial size, and the general appearance of the place is greatly improved by a liberal use of paint.

This last matter Mundare takes a leading place among the municipalities. The elevators and a grist mill stand to the south of the railway track. The stores and residential portions are on the north side. A number of buildings has about doubled during the recent summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McLean and their family, general contractors, have been kept very busy.

At a short interview with Robert Fletcher, government supervisor of foreign schools among the Ruthenians, reveals some interesting and encouraging facts regarding the educational matters. Quite a number of six months' schools have been in operation for some time among these people, but several school districts now engage teachers for the whole year. Teachers report that the children generally show great interest in education and that many of the pupils show marked improvement.

The Ruthenian Exchange is a class of people that teachers who have taught in their own country and themselves as pleased and willing to continue in this work.

Mr. Ryan, station master and telegraph operator here, has had eighteen years' experience in railway matters, and he is a very capable man. He is now in charge of the following information: Forty-five carloads of cattle and hogs had been shipped to the west coast. Two full carloads of potatoes went to Edmonton last week. One and a half tons of live poultry were shipped to the same place. Shipments of dressed poultry, including turkeys, were being made in all directions.

Three loads of hay were sent to Edmonton every week. Last year seventy-five thousand bushels of grain were marketed here. This year as yet grain has not come in so freely.

J. B. Beauchamp, of the Mundare Hotel, has one of the best equipped hotels along the line.

Among some of Mundare's business men are: Milne, a general store; Duncan, McAllister and J. O. McAllum, general store merchants; A. I. Walker, lumber merchant; J. A. Lewis, druggist; Murray Brothers, etc.

Mr. Oliver represents the D. L. Davis & Co. The Messrs. Featherstone, the British-American elevator, and Mr. S. Galley, the Alberta elevator. Messrs. Edgely and McKelvey represent the Beaver Lake Land Company. Mr. Ed. Walker is local auctioneer.

The Presbyterian Church is represented by Rev. Mr. Sheppard and the Methodists by Rev. Mr. Clayton. Miss McAllum is the teacher in the public school.

The various machine companies are well represented.

Mundare, December 14.

WETASKIWIN.

Bulletin News Service.

The well-known firm of Henwood & Wilkins, barristers, are at present dissolving partnership. Each will continue the practice of law here in his own name, with offices in the Merchants' Bank Block, as heretofore.

Saturday was another bumper day for the merchants of the city, large crowds being in town from the country. A slight fall of snow came on Saturday, but there is no sleighing yet. There is a general desire for good sleighing for Christmas and for the Christmas trade.

The curlers begin tonight, the series of matches for the Gould Cup. They will require to play some eighteen games per week. Tonight the following games are to be played off: Todd vs. Stephenson, Dickson vs. Wallace, Livingston vs. Fowler. Tomorrow night: Forbes vs. Henwood, Carruthers vs. Walker, Farris vs. Rix.

Mr. Dr. W. Shaw, druggist, will be in town Saturday and will be installed at once.