The Evening Chit-Chat

By MISS CAMERON

"No man, sir, is obliged to do as much as he can. A man should have part of his life to himself." — Dr. Johnson.

"I know why I feel so wretchedly," I heard a woman say the other day. "It isn't the hot weather at all. It's just because I've been packing my days again. The doctor told me that if I didn't get over that habit I'd be in a sanitarium in six months, and I did reform for a while, but I guess I'm at it again."

Are you one of those unfortunate people who have the habit of packing their days?

You know what I mean, of course—planning every hour, arranging for every moment, packing every instant full of plans.

I don't mean wholly plans for work. They may be plans for social obligations or for pleasures. It isn't the character of what you do that makes the packed day so exhausting. It's the feeling that it is packed.

It's the sense of being obliged to do this and that and to get it done at such and such a time.

It's the constant error that one engagement will overlap another and throw the whole day out.

It's the breathless hurry to overtake one's plans if one falls behind. If you live leisurely and serenely,

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the very beginning, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomachic weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great success to all who suffer from Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements. It is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has on its outside wrapper the Signature

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

Household Notes.

Verdigris can be removed from brass by the use of ammonia.

Nothing makes a finer polish for tinware than good wood ashes.

A mixture of borax and red pepper is good to rid closets of insects.

Medicine should never be left in sight of the invalid in the sick room.

Jonquils or daffodils are placed to advantage in a brass or copper urn or vase.

Undue consumption of tea, coffee, cocoa and chocolate will make the skin sallow.

To make sure that bread will rise in cold weather, warm the flour before mixing.

Shoes will last much longer if occasionally rubbed with vaseline when they are new.

A small quantity of chopped figs added to a nut and apple salad gives an excellent flavor.

The Kidneys Wear Out

But in advanced years you can keep these organs healthy by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

As old age comes on most people suffer more or less from derangements of the kidneys. With some there are years of pains and achings, with others Bright's disease sets in and the end comes quickly.

Fortunately many have learned about Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and are enabled by their use to keep the kidneys healthy and active.

Mr. Richard Preston, Osborne, Lambton County, Ont., says: "Seven years ago I began to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills when my back was so bad that I stooped for the very least thing. My kidneys were in bad condition, but these pills entirely freed me of back pains. I have used them ever since, whenever the kidneys would get out of order, and now, at eighty years, am well and hearty, thanks to this grand medicine."

cleaning the porcelain tub or sink. Kerosene will answer almost as well.

Wet shoes should be stuffed with paper before they are put away. The paper will absorb the moisture and keep the shoes from becoming hard.

When packing, tie in bottle corks well and put the bottles in the inside of the trunk. If packed suddenly in this way they will carry around the world.

Cold water with but little soap should be used for washing colored silks. If the color runs, vinegar should be stirred in the water until the color sets.

When coal is needed on the fire in the sick-room, it should be brought into the room in paper bags, which should be laid gently on the fire to prevent noise.

When pressing a skirt it is always advisable to lay a damp cotton cloth over the material so that it is not touched by the iron. This prevents the material from becoming shiny.

Fought With Wild Dogs

Nurse Who Ministered to Sick and Wounded in Two Continents.

Soldiers have lost a valuable friend in Mrs. Janet Helen King (Slater Helen), who just died in England.

On two continents Sister Janet had tenderly cared for sick and wounded soldiers. When only eighteen she entered the Protestant Deaconess' institution to be trained as a nurse for the sick and wounded in war, and was one of a party of nine sent out to assist in nursing the troops engaged in the war between Russia and Turkey.

Snow lay deep on the ground, the party lost its way, and the night was passed in the open carts, bitter cold and the howling of wolves effectively preventing sleep. Arriving at Varna they found their services sorely needed, and for months the Sisters worked night and day.

To Sister Janet's care were allotted some two hundred patients who lay in beds scattered here and there amongst the hills. Daily as she trudged through the snow from hut to hut on her mission of mercy she was exposed to attacks from wild dogs which infested Bulgaria. More than once these brutes dragged her to the ground, but her stick and dagger protected her until her cries brought assistance. At the close of the war she received for her services the Imperial Order of the Red Cross of Russia.

She went out, too, to the Zulu War, and at Utrecht 3,000 sick and wounded passed through her hands. There she was personally thanked by Sir Garnet Wolseley. She was awarded the medal for the war, and received the Decoration of the Royal Red Cross from the Queen for "her special devotion and competency displayed in nursing duties with her Majesty's troops."

Ring Caused Death.

Chicago Woman Refused to Have Wedding Ring Removed.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Mrs. Jessie Stevedard Gardner is dead at her home because she refused to take her wedding ring from her finger. The gold band was placed on Mrs. Gardner's finger the day she became a bride. Mrs. Gardner's finger had increased gradually in size. The pressure of the ring became corresponding. The ring finally became imbedded in the flesh and caused an interruption of the blood circulation and blood poisoning set in.

Indigestion & Dyspepsia

In all its forms can be cured.

It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: "Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything. I have no heart to exert myself, and at times I care for nothing. I often have a pain in the pit of the stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just as tired when waking in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden."

Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription. A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles. It can be obtained at
