Theft Reported.

SEAMAN PINSENT OF S. S. PORTIA LOSTS $50.

An alleged robbery is reported to have occurred on board the s.s. Portia. The loser of the money is a seaman named Pinsent, and the amount lost is $50.00. Thursday last was the last time Pinsent saw his money. He counted it and then placed it in a valise, which he put in his bunk in the fore-cabin. Yesterday when the ship left Cape Broyle, the last port of call, Pinsent came off watch. He went to pay a visit to his "dough" and was dumbfounded to find that it had vanished. He immediately acquainted Capt. Kean of his loss, who in turn on the ship's arrival reported the matter to the police. Supt. Gormes took the matter in hand, and before any of the crew were allowed ashore had two detectives make a thorough search of their rooms. It was without avail, however, as there was no sign of the missing money. The detectives questioned some of the seamen and stokers, but were unable to glean any information of the robbery. Pinsent has not the least suspicion of anyone on board taking his money. No arrest has yet been made. The police told the Telegram that they are satisfied with Pinsent's story that the money has disappeared. They have little, if any, clue to work on, but are hopeful of solving the problem.

Harsh Government.

Martin Dingle, the poor orphan boy, who was recently summarily dismissed by the Government from the Hospital where he had served well and faithfully for 12 or 14 years, is now lodging at the Poor Asylum. But for the kindness of Supt. Prudeaux who gave him shelter, he would be starving on the street now. There was nothing against him that would earn for him such cruel treatment, he was a faithful and painstaking servant of the Hospital and the people of St. John's are justly indignant at the way in which he has been served. Rumour has it that the Government will be petitioned to reinstate him. Though Martin has no influential friends who might turn votes Morrisward yet the harshness meted out to him will be resented at the right time by many a citizen. Ejecting women and orphans from the pretty positions they hold seems to be congenial work for the Picnic Party.

Rough Passage.

The schr. Helen Stewart, Capt. James, 37 days from Pernambuco via Sydney, arrived last evening at A. S. Rendell & Co. In the early part of the passage moderate weather was had but after crossing the Gulf stream head winds were met and the progress of the vessel was detained. For several days she was knocked about badly by the heavy seas, and as a result, lost two fore-sails, two main-sails, two jibs and a flying jib. The foreboom was also smashed. Most of her canvas was blown away. On Sunday afternoon the vessel was off Beal's Bulls but during the night a strong wind came up and she drifted to sea 30 miles. Yesterday morning conditions were favorable and she was towed into port at 4.30 p.m.

MRS. GREATON'S AWFUL EXPERIENCE

During Change of Life—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman.

Natick, Mass.—"I cannot express what I went through during the change of life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold, I had creepy sensations, and I could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I also had a tumor. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish my letter."—Mrs. MARION SWEET GREATON, No. 1 Jefferson St., Natick, Mass.

Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Let Your Wives Tell You How and Where to Buy.

It has been said that in America a woman's husband is often mistaken for her footman. But this is not true, because a good footman always appears in livery and walks few paces to the rear.

The average man is as shrewd as a gypsy when it comes to buying things for his business, and as simple as a feeble-minded boy when it comes to buying things for himself.

Now, why don't you, for once, let your wife help you in the choice of your winter clothes? She has to go around with you. So she ought to have something to say as to how you look.

Besides, she is ready now to buy the children's outfit for winter and she may be able to offer some advice for yours.

This paper is filled with good bargains of every kind to-day. Your wife knows all about them. She has been reading our advertising—financial pages and saving money while you have been reading the other financial pages and making mental bets with yourself. She probably knows every good bargain in this paper. You probably don't.

She makes it her business to know, and she gets her information by carefully reading the ads.

You could do the same thing if you would. In twenty minutes you could have your whole winter outfit outlined in your own mind.

Every clothing store, every shoe store, every store of furnishings and underwear has been carefully preparing for days for your fall trade. And now all those preparations are embraced in the advertising which is published here.

There are many little advertisements in this paper with remarkably good values. There are many small places whose service will be valuable. On the other hand, the large stores have large advantages to give. But they are all here with their advertising; all of the worthy ones. All of the merchants who have sought your consideration by giving you theirs.

Winter is right at hand. You can't delay any longer. You've got to have these things. So why not look over this paper to-day, pick out the good things from the advertising news and make up your mind what ones are best to buy.

These advertisements are your price list, your merchandise report. You wouldn't buy anything else without consulting such a list. So why not consult it now when you are buying for yourself. Go over it carefully. Buy well. Look your best for once. And the rest of your family will get some pleasure out of it, even if you don't.

HERRING SCARCE.—People who arrived from Twillingate by yesterday's train say that herring are very scarce there, whereas this time last year good hauls were being made. At Nipper's Harbour they are also scarce while at Bourne Bay they are reported very plentiful.

Condemned Murderer Pre- sided at Dinner.

Monreal, Oct. 31.—In order to say farewell to his three companions in the condemned cell and also to show his utter indifference to the fate that will soon overtake him Sylvia Yacloff, to die if no reprieve is granted him on Nov. 15, for the murder of his sister-in-law, this morning gave a party. Yacloff sat at the head of the table and the usual prison fare was supplemented by delicacies bought by the host. Yacloff delivered a speech expressing his regret at having soon to leave his friends, and then sang a song in Russian, his native language.

"Whitey" Lewis Will Be Tried First

New York, Oct. 31.—It was definitely decided to-day that "Whitey" Lewis would be tried first of the four gunmen, charged with the murder of Herman Rosenthal, to be placed on trial. The trial will begin on November 7. District Attorney Whitman appeared before Justice Goff to-day and asked that a special panel of 200 talemens be summoned for the case.

Bowels Bad, Liver Torpid, Cascarets.

If Constipated, Bilious, Headachy, Stomach Sour, get a 10-cent box of Cascarets—take one to-night.

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have back-ache and feel worn out. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—do good—never gripe or sicken.

Do Your Best.

This habit of always doing one's best enters into the very marrow of one's heart and character; it affects one's bearing, one's self-possession. The man who does everything to a finish has a feeling of serenity; he is not easily thrown off his balance; he has nothing to fear, and he can look the world in the face because he feels conscious that he has not put shoddily into anything, that he has nothing to do with shams, and that he has always done his level best.

The sense of efficiency, of being master of one's craft, of being equal to any emergency; the consciousness of possessing the ability to do with superiority whatever one undertakes, will give soul-satisfaction which a half-hearted, slipshod worker never knows. When a man feels throbbing within him the power to do what he undertakes as well as it can possibly be done, and all of his faculties say "Amen" to what he is doing, and give their unqualified approval to his efforts—this is happiness.

Snubbed His Son in Law.

Cettinje, October 28.—King Nicholas recently received a letter from his son-in-law, King Victor Emanuel, of Italy, remonstrating with him for his attack on the Turks.

The Montenegrin King wrote back: "My dear son-in-law.—You are making a lot of fuss about nothing. I am demanding what Turkey has owed me for years and years, and what, therefore, is mine by right. You, on the other hand, are taking Tripoli—which never belonged to you, and to which you have no right at all. I should like to know which of us has right to cast the first stone. Not you, at any rate."

IN THE YEAR 1932

how much will you have accumulated at your present rate of saving? Most men will have little or nothing saved if conditions are at all similar to those of to-day.

Every prominent young man appreciates the wisdom of accumulating for his own benefit at least, and looks forward to an old age of comfort and enjoyment relieved from want and worry. And every thoughtful man endowed with manhood feels that a duty rests upon him to make some provision for others dependent upon him.

The safest, simplest and most profitable way to accomplish all this, and to be sure of a snug competency by the year 1932, is by investing in a Canada Life Endowment Policy for $5,000 or $10,000, according to your means and requirements. The policy can be bought on easy instalments and facilities are provided to assist in carrying and enjoying the insurance.

Send in your name and age and let us submit to you a good proposition.
