THE GREAT CONTEST FRIDAY.

The contest on Friday night at the Rossley Theatre will be the best of all, there are all new performers and lots of good fun is promised; to make things a little more interesting Mr. Burnstein, the popular ladies' tailor, of Water Street, has promised to sing a song of his own composition, a parody on "It's a long way to Tipperary," but in Yiddish: "It's a long way to Jerusalem." This song Mr. Burnstein sent to New York, was sung in the Jewish Theatre by the great Jewish tenor, Abe Levi, and it was a pronounced success. Mr. Burnstein is not singing for the prize, merely to prove how popular Tipperary has become. There are all new names in the contest, and the lady singers and dancers will prove a great draw. The contests are drawing to a close, so have the laugh of your life while you can. There are other new novelties in store. Don't forget that the pantomime Little Bo Peep and Boy Blue will be positively delightful; great transformation scene; the four seasons: Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter.

"OURS" IN THE WEST END.

There was a good attendance at the popular little theatre last night, and all were charmed with the little singer. To-night she will sing a new song dressed in character costume. Friday night's contest at Rossley's East End Theatre promises to be the best of all. There will be all new competitors as all former prize winners are barred in this contest. Many new names have been received.

THE CRESCENT PICTURE PALACE WELL PATRONISED.

The Crescent Picture Palace was well patronised yesterday and everybody was charmed with the splendid picture programme the Crescent is showing this mid-week, Sidney Drew and John Bunny the recognized comedy leaders provide the fun, and the dramatic films are furnished by the Edison, Biograph and Vitagraph Companies. Mr. Delmonico received great applause for his singing of: "When You Were a Tulip and I were a Rose." This new and catchy song delighted the Crescent audiences yesterday. The same bill will be repeated to-day, go and see it. The Crescent is delightfully cool and comfortable.

THE TREASURE OF ABDAR RAHMAN.

The thrilling and sensational picture of "The Treasure of Abdar Rahman" is shown at the Casino Theatre to-night and should be seen by everyone in the city as it is one of the most instructive and fascinating pictures ever imported here. It tells the story of an Arab's cupidity, in fact to what measures men will go in order to secure the filthy lucre. Fearing an attack on a neighbouring tribe, who want revenge, Abdar Rahman conceals his treasure. It's location is known to a faithless servant. After the raid in which Rahman is killed the servant endeavours to get off with the treasure but is pursued. He falls over a cliff and the treasure is lost for three hundred years. A French officer secures a piece of paper which tells of its location but the translator proves false and gives the wrong meaning. He sets off but is also pursued. The story is one that holds the audience spellbound right through, so, if you want to see a good, real live picture that has all the elements of excitement, come to the Casino to-night.

THE BRITISH THEATRE.

Yesterday's programme at this popular theatre was attended by large audiences, both in the afternoon and at night. "The Quicksands," one of the Kalem masterpieces, was very much appreciated, as was also "The Unwritten Play," by the world-renowned Vitagraph players, G. M. Anderson, alias "Brocho Billy," the children's favorite, was seen in a new role yesterday, and his portrayal of the part of a minister was very cleverly done. The two comedians created much amusement, as did also Mr. Arthur Priestman Cameron's peculiar song, sung in his own peculiar way. Miss Keeping, presided at the piano and the musical selections were most appropriate. The last opportunity to see this well-balanced programme will be this afternoon and night.

MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY IS A GREAT FILM.

The Nickel Theatre was crowded yesterday as everyone was anxious to see "The Million Dollar Mystery" which wonderful story is now being shown there on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Last night's episode was very interesting and was keenly followed by all. The arrest of the Black Hand Gang and the escape of Brian were most sensational. Norton, the newspaper reporter is the hero again. This evening the whole programme will be repeated and no doubt there will be a large attendance as every one is anxious to see it. The Nickel has another great feature in store for patrons to-morrow when "The Hazards of Helen" will be given. This is one of the cleverest series ever given in this city. Look out for it.
