Harbor Grace Notes.

The ladies of St. Paul's Church are holding their annual Sale of Work on Wednesday and Thursday nights of this week in St. Paul's Hall. We hope the affair will be well patronized, as in the past, and the ladies secure a good amount for their efforts.

The ladies of the Methodist Church finished their Sale of Work on Thursday night of last week in Coughlin Hall, and realized the sum of $225.00 as the proceeds for the two nights.

Mrs. R. S. Munn, who has been on a visit of several weeks to Toronto, Ont., returned home again by Monday night's train. Mrs. Munn accompanied her daughter, Muriel, to Toronto in September last, when she went to enter college. She also has a son, Fred, working in the big city.

Schooner "Pandora," Capt. Yelman, arrived in port on Saturday evening from St. John's.

Mr. Robert Lee has opened a "Nickel" here this week, which will be held in the British Hall, commencing to-night, Wednesday. Eight Reels will comprise the opening Show, and there will be a complete change each night, viz: Monday, Wednesday and Friday. We wish the Manager much success with his "Nickel."

Messrs. Graham Ash and Norman Hatcher, who have been working at Montreal, during the Summer months, returned home again by Monday night's train.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Pike and little girl, Florence, who have been at Heaping Harbour, White Bay, during the summer months, arrived in St. John's by the "Prospero" on Sunday, and came to town on Monday. Mr. Pike has been doing business there for Mr. E. Simmons, M. H. A.

Mr. F. R. Ward, Cable Operator, at Canoe, N. S., came in by Monday night's train on a visit to his Sister, Mrs. C. A. Stevenson and friends. Frank's many friends are pleased to see him in the old town again, and wish him an enjoyable holiday.

The Salvation Army Band, of Carbonear, came to town on Monday afternoon; they had a short parade a little while after, and played some selections. In the evening a special Musical Concert was given in the Citadel. Selections were rendered by the Band; also among the items were, quartettes, duets and solos, recitations and readings, all being enjoyed by those present. Commandant and Mrs. Sainsbury were also among the visitors. The party left again for Carbonear by the night's train.

Mr. Jack Stapleton, who has been working at Conche, during the summer months, arrived by the last trip of the "Prospero," and came to town on Monday.

Mr. Kenneth Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Parsons, left by Thursday morning's train of last week to join the Staff of the Bank of Montreal at Curling.

Lieut. Churchill made his Farewell at the S. A. Citadel on Sunday evening last, and leaves to-morrow for Paradise Sound, P. E., where he has been placed in charge of the S. A. work there.—COR.

Mr. Grace, Dec. 5th, 1923.

Chestnuts—But Still—

"John, I think you might rock the baby," said the fond mother. "She has been crying for two hours."

"I'd like to," said the fond father, "but I don't see any rocks handy."

Mr. Mulrooney's two hopefuls returned after a day's absence. Mrs. Mulrooney—"Mikie, an' where have you bin?" Mikie—"I was nowhere, ma." Mrs. Mulrooney—"And where was you, Jamesey?" Jamesey—"I was along wid um."

Crustleigh—How did you dare, sir, to kiss my daughter last night on the balcony?
Gayboy—Well, now that I've seen her by daylight, I wonder myself.

He—"Once I loved a girl, and she made a fool of me."
She (sweeily)—"What a lasting impression some girls make?"

Desperate sailor—"I'll give you a sixpence, Tommy, if you get me a lock of your sister's hair."
Small brother—"Make it a shilling, and I'll get you a whole bunch. I know where she hangs it."

In a certain case where the charge was the theft of a watch, the evidence was conflicting. As the jury retired, the judge observed that he would be glad to help in adjusting any difficulties that might present themselves to the minds of the jury.

Eleven jurors filed out of the box. The one who remained was an expression of extreme perplexity. Observing his hesitation, the judge said:

"Would you like to ask me a question?"

"Yes, my lord," replied the juror, eagerly. "I'd be very glad if you'd tell me whether the prisoner really stole the watch."

BORED HAIR.

The blooming damsel everywhere have shorn their blond or raven hair, and even dames advanced in years submit their ringlets to the shears. And some have multiplied their charms, while others look like false alarms. The latter are more often seen; it takes a rarely blooming queen to cut away the flowing locks, and not resemble Guy-H. Fawkes. I am a relic of the past, and oftentimes I stand aghast at modern wrinkles, modern curves; said curves and wrinkles jar my nerves. The women strive and strive again, to look like duplicates of men.
