J. C. MACKLIN & Co.
GUELPH, July 16, 1874 dw

Hunter, con. 7, and a quantity of wood and a fine sugar bush completely demolished.
The Buffalo Express says that there now lives near the ruins of Fort Erie, on the other side of the river, an old sailor named William Moore. He is one hundred and four years old and enjoys excellent health. He fought with Nelson at Trafalgar, and speaks with pride of his humble participation in that famous contest.
BREAKFAST.—Epps's Cocoa.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled—"James Epps & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London." jy6-9m AN IMPORTANT EXPEDITION.—The exploring party who are going to discover the character of the Peace River country, under the leadership of Mr. Lindsay Russell, is a very important one. The party will comprise the staff, axe-men and packers, &c., and will probably be forty or fifty strong. They will go by St. Paul and Pembina, and the impression amongst the men is that they will be out about four years.
LEPROSY.—This loathsome disease, so long considered incurable, has found a master in Fowler's Plac and Humour Cure.
Sister Reed, Lady Superior of Hotel Dieu Montreal, writes:—"All those Lepers who have used your remedy have experienced a decided improvement, and two patients affected with Leprosy have been so far cured as to be let out of the Hospital." See special notice.
The Home Rule Association of Montreal met on Friday evening and adopted resolutions thanking Mr. Butt and his colleagues for their efforts in favor of Home Rule, and denouncing, in unmeasured terms, the O'Donoghue for his opposition to the movement of Prof. Mc-Kay. One speaker declared they would proceed openly and boldly, and not in an attitude of veil and cover of rebellion, as the O'Donoghue affirmed; and one Carroll, amid applause, asserted that they were prepared, if they did not get their rights, to face rebellion.
