We are always pleased to announce the success of any of our Aylmer boys, in fact, we are proud to do so. A copy of the Sisseton, Dakota, Weekly Standard lies before us, and we see that a very exciting election was held there last week and that Casper Kennedy was elected mayor of that city with a majority of 55. At the same time a vote was taken on the license question. The decision was against license by a close vote of 163 to 164. Mr. Kennedy was here a few weeks ago, visiting his late brother, Edward, and old friends. He first made his bow to the working world in the printing office of the late J. C. Pankhurst here, and after serving his time left for Dakota, where success has attended him. He is wealthy, popular and unmarried; what more would a man want? Cas, boy, shake, we congratulate you.
